Strike in St. John.

The compositors and pressmen of the John Sun "struck" on Saturday, owing to a forbids union men working in an office where stereotype plate matter is used. The Saturday Gazette, printed at the Sun office, uses such and hence the trouble. On Monday, the compositors of the Globe office also "went out," but for what reason is not known These papers have been put to inconvenience, but are published as usual, and will soon have an efficient staff to supply the place of the striking workmen.

The Indians and Leo XIII.

A correspondent of the Catholic Review gives a beautiful illustration of the generosity of the Catholic Indiane in Montana and their devotion to the Holy See :-

"During the sermon at High Mass., Bisho Brondel stated that the Holy Father woul celebrate his golden jubilee this year, and that it was expected of all his faithful children to offer him presents as tokens of their love. He made use of but three sentence which were made known to the Indians through their interpreter, the good Father Catalda, and immediately followed a scene lions, will be on exhibition, together with the that my pen can never describe.
