To the Editors of the Carleton Sentinel: Within a year past a great change has taken place in St. Francis, on the Maine side of the St. John. This is due partly to the enforcement of the Maine Law and partly to the influence of the Roman Catholic priest who has been very active in putting down the traffic in strong drink. When I speak of St. Francis, I mean a district on both sides of the St. John, six miles in length, from the mouth of the St. Francis down, about one-third of the population being of English descent, and the rest of French. It is not for me to say what has been, because I should speak mostly from report, but I can say, on the Maine side of this district Cor. Main and Queen Streets. no liquor is sold to my knowledge; no drunken rows take place; no yelling and screaming in the dead of night; no drunken text.—Montreal Witness.

Now we want our friends on the Province side to be encouraged not to drink rum, but to hope that what has been done for this side

But the best of all is the rum is not leaving us alone. It is carrying with it tobacco and profanity. I sent away for some temperance tracts and received temperance and anti-tobacco tracts. The train, on its eastern trip, will run by the in which these who was taken to show what God a little making the last completing the arrangements for the through express train, that is to run direct from Portland to Baugor, without making any stops, taking water from troughs laid between the rails. in which those who use tobacco are handled about as roughly as those who use strong drinks. But there is no need of me saying probably make one of the longest runs withmuch on this point has roughly as those who use strong of any in the century. much on this point because we are having such a free and easy time. We accord the right of private judgment to each other and let every man do just what he wants to. We have forty who don't want to drink rum, and a few of these who don't want to accord to the longest runs with out stopping of any in the eastern States, covering a distance of over 135 miles, in three hours, a little more than 45 miles per hour. The cars to be used are the celebrated vestibule coaches, that are arranged so as to turn the whole train into one long compartment.

Neighbors," a vigorous and intensely interesting study of a phase of life contrasting two widely different forms of woman's belief. "Two Russians," by Nora Perry, presents a new side of Russian official life—the true Liberals, as opposed to the Conservatives and Nihilists. The construction of this story is ingeniously and skilfully managed. There are seven poems, among them "For an Old Poet," by H. C.

The Bowels. By the advice of a friend I began taking Ayer's Pills. In a short time I was free from pain, my food digested properly, the sores on my body commenced healing, and, in less than one month, I was cured. - Samuel D. White, Atlanta, Ga. I have long used Ayer's Pills, in my family, and believe them to be the best pills made.—S. C. Darden, Darden, Miss. My wife and little girl were taken with Dysentery a few days ago, and I at once began giving them small doses of Ayer's Pills, thinking I would call a doctor if the disease became any worse. In a short time the bloody discharges stopped, all pain went away, and health was restored.
