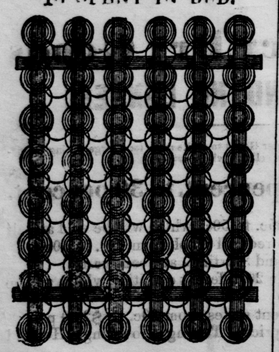
ONE THIRD OF YOUR LIFE IS SPENT IN BED.



HOW important then that you have a good Bed to sleep on. The more quiet and undisturbed your slumber, the more fully does nature repair the waste and damage your system has sustained during the day. The man who comes home exhausted by the labors of his day and stretches himself upon a hard uneven bed will rise in the morning very little benefitted by his sleep. Other things being equal, the man who has a comfortable bed will have clearer brain a stronger arm, and a longer life than his neighbor who is not so fortunate. The HUTCHINSON SPRING BED will positively give more solid comfort to the square inch than any other bed in the market. And the man who is fortunate enough to possess one is led to say with Sancho Panza: "Blessed be the man that invented sleep." It is the only bed ever made that has the elastic spring and buoyancy, each coil being connected on the surface with the springs. There is thus formed a perfect spring surface, which gives an elastic movement whatever weight is placed.

Having secured the exclusive right to manufacture these Beds in New Brunswick, I am prepared to sell them either at wholesale or retail.

Good reliable agents wanted in the Northern and Eastern Counties to whom exclusive Territory will be given. I am also prepared to sell to rights to manufacture in Nova Scotia and P. E. Island or to arrange with reliable parties who wish to manufacture on royalty.

McMILLAN'S New Brunswick Writing Books.

MCMILLAN'S SERIES OF COPY-BOOKS, lately prescribed by the Board of Education for use in the Public Schools of the Province is now ready and on sale at the several Bookstores

It is believed that this system of Penmanship is the first attempt that has yet been made to incorporate the principles that regulate all sound elementary teaching—

"Wholes before Parts, Re-Composition of Parts into Wholes"

"Ideas before the Symbol which Represents Them," Etc.

There are no meaningless words, or lines, or lines, whatever words or forms are employed convey to the pupil distinct ideas or purposes, and can therefore be intelligently imitated or represented. It is confidently believed also, that as a practical system fitted to secure plain, legible writing, it will be found much superior to any other now in use

The series consists of Eight Numbers

Miscellaneous.

WOULD MAKE NO DIFFERENCE—Tombstone Dealer (to widow)—I have a second-hand stone madam, which I can make quite a reduction on.

Widow—Any inscription on it?

Tombstone Dealer—Simply, The good die young."

Widow (contemplatively)—Let—me see—William was nigh on to 80 but I don't s'pose the inscription would make any difference if you fix the price right

Oh let us together tobog.,
With never a bump or a jog.
But a swoop and a glide,
Like a skiff with the tide,
And that is the way we'll tobog.

You know how to make a tobog?
Just get you the skin of a log,
Then straighten it out,
Give a curl to its snout,
And there is your little tobog.

Then let us together tobog.,

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of "MRS WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP" for children teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP" for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "MRS WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP" and take no other kind.

UNFORTUNATE RESULTS — She—I hear that you have lost your valuable little dog, Mr Sissy.

He—Yaas; in a railroad accident. I was saved, but the dawg was killed.

She (shocked)—What a pity!

MRS. A LIVINGSTON.

Lot 5, P. E. I.

Grocer (to boy)—What are you doing James?

James—Puttin' sand in the sugar.

Grocer—Well, that won't do. You must put the sugar in the sand, and then if a customer asks if we put sand in our sugar you can truthfully say no. You will find, James, as you acquire more business experience, that in the long run truth always pays.

Don't

let that cold of yours run on. You think it's a light thing. But it may run into catarrh. Or into pneumonia. Or consumption.

Catarrh is disgusting. Pneumonia is dangerous. Consumption is death itself.

The breathing apparatus must be kept clear of all obstructions and offensive matter. Otherwise there is trouble ahead.

All the diseases of these parts, head, nose, throat, bronchial tubes and lungs, can be delightfully and entirely cured by the use of Boschee's German Syrup. If you don't know this already, thousands and thousands of people can tell you. They have been cured by it, and "know how it is themselves." Bottle only 75 cents. Ask any druggist.

"You shock with a free hand, Miss Buckbay," remarked the professor, who had been critically examining her portfolio.

"Entirely free," said the Boston young lady, as she cast down her eyes in soft confusion and waited for the professor to follow up the opening.

"Gift Enterprises"

seem to be all the rage in the Soap Business, owing to the idea of some manufacturers of getting something out of nothing, if possible. Grocers get 6 boxes for 5 of some kinds, and are offered all sorts of "Nick Nacks" with others, as an inducement to recommend such soaps to their trade.

It is a well known fact, however, that a genuine article in this day of competition pays no fancy profits. WELCOME SOAP represents this class of goods, and demonstrates the value of quality in manufacture, which is the only guarantee of a pure and legitimate washing quality.

Physician—Patrick, don't you know better than to have your pig pen so close to the house?

Patrick—An' phy shud Oi not, sor?

"It's unhealthy."

"Be away wid your nonsince. Shure the pig has never been sick a day in his life."

"A Word to the Wise is Sufficient."

Catarrh is not simply an inconvenience, unpleasant to the sufferer and disgusting to others—it is an advanced outpost of approaching disease of the worst type. Do not neglect its warning; it brings deadly evils in its train. Before it is too late, use Dr Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It reaches the seat of the ailment, and is the only thing that will. You may dose yourself with quack medicines 'till it is too late—'till the stream set becomes a resistless torrent. It is the matured invention of a scientific physician. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

"What can you tell me about Esau?" queried the pedagogue.

"Esau," responded the youth, with the glib alacrity of one who feels himself for once on safe ground, "Esau was a writer of fables, who sold his copyright for a bottle of potash."

Style.

The most fashionable color, at present, is the hue of health, and it will never go out of style. Its shades and tints are various, but all of them are exceedingly becoming. It is perfectly astonishing what a change is being daily wrought by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in the looks of sickly women. Sufferers from any sort of "female weakness" or irregularity, backache or nervous prostration should give it a trial. All druggists.

Stranger (to boy)—Boy, can you direct me to the nearest bank?

Boy—I kin for 25 cents.

Stranger—Twenty-five cents! Isn't that high pay?

Boy—Yes, sir! but it's bank directors what gets high pay.

The Time To Act.

If you are threatened with Headache, Constipation, Biliousness or weakness, procure at once a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters and use it according to instructions. Prompt action is necessary in order that your trouble may be cured before it becomes chronic.

Nettie tells her engagement with great pride to her brother, and concludes: "Now, don't tell anyone."

Brother (who does not think so well of it)—Oh, you needn't be afraid. I'm as much ashamed of it as sure are.

A large assortment of Lace Curtains in sets and by the yard, in White, Cream, Brown and assorted shades just opened at R. B. Belyea & Co's.

"Do you know the gentleman?" asked a San Francisco lady of her little girl, in reference to the minister who was making a pastoral call.

"Of course I do," said the little dear, "he does the hollering at our church."

Nova Scotia News.

"I had Scrofula on my neck very bad for two years, had tried all remedies and doctors, but did not get any help until I got a bottle of your Burdock Blood Bitters which cured me of it entirely." James Cochrane, Fall River, Cumberland Co., N S.

Minister—Well, Bobby, do you think you will be a better little boy this year than you were last?

Bobby (hopefully)—I think so, sir; I began taking cod liver oil last week.

A Postmaster's Opinion.

"I have great pleasure in certifying to the usefulness of Hagyard's Yellow Oil," writes I. Kavanagh, Postmaster of Umfreville, Ont. "Having used it for soreness of the throat, colds, burns, etc., I find nothing equal to it."

Gus DeSmith—I've been reading about another remarkable faith cure.

Gilhooly—I don't believe in it. Pays beats the faith cure every time.

Smith—Well, it ought to; it has the inside track.

Don't forget to go to R. B. Porter & Co.'s and secure some of the great bargains they are offering.

German Professor (to young American—You don't musht make yousellf of drouble to speak Cherman to me; ven you spheak English I know your meanness very well.

A Trusty Friend—Perry Davis' Pain-Killer. Safe to keep and use in every household.

"Yes," he said, "I used to be troubled with cold feet at night, too; but that was some years ago."

"Then you never are now?"

"No, not since I've been a widower."

In Habitual Constipation, Campbell's Cathartic Compound is used with great success.

"If I should die, John, dear," said a very sick wife, "would you marry again?"

"Not much!" he replied, with such emphasis, that the lady got well.

on the radical cure of SPERMATORRHŒA or incapacity induced by excess in early indulgence.
