A Good Man Gone.

News of the death of Rev. A. Taylor, on of the oldest and most prominent ministers of the F. C. Baptist conference, will be received with profound regret in all sections of the province. He died at Hampstead, Queens County, on Saturday.

A Freak.

Dublin, Ireland, society is greatly excited over the recent discovery that the eldest Woodstock brethren a very pleasant and enchild of a widow lady, moving in the first classes, recognized as a charming and accomplished young lady, is a boy. No explanation is given of this remarkable freak of the standard, "fair women and brave man" nature or design.

The idea is to promote a fuller appreciation of Christian burial, and to encourage interment in plain coffice.

Another Horror.

Last week a car, on an express train, ful of eleeping emigrants, bound for Los Angelos Cal., went over an 80 foot embankment; the car took fire and several passengers were Cole's Hall.
