Miscellaneous.

The Girls Who Chews Gum.

Chew, chew, chew,
Oh, maiden, fancy free!
And I would that my tongue could utter
The thoughts that arise in me.

With a gluck, gluck, gluck!
Go thy jaws which never are still,
And oh the sight of thy cavernous mouth,
And, oh, my tolu bill!

'Tis well for the youth who dreams
At night of thy beauty and grace,
That he sees thee not with thy quid of gum
Distorting thy fair young face.

The car rumbles down the street,
Somewhere its rumble will cease,
But, oh, for the sight of a jaw at rest
And a mouth forever at peace!

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP" for children teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP" for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "MRS WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP" and take no other kind.

ONE CAN GET USED TO IT.—"How does it feel to have a mustache on your lip, Henry?" she asked, when she perceived that her lover was cultivating that masculine adornment.

"I can't say," he answered; "how does it feel to have one on yours?"

"Well," she answered, as she struggled from his embrace and drew her breath, "I think it is something to which one could in time become reconciled."

MESSRS. C. C. RICHARDS & Co.

Gents,—Having used MINARD'S LINIMENT for several years in my stable, I attest to its being the best thing I know of for horse flesh. In the family, we have used it for every purpose that a liniment is adapted for, it being recommended to us by the late Dr. J. L. R. Webster. Personally I find it the best allayer of neuralgic pain I have ever used.

FAMILIAR WITH THE LANGUAGE.—Irishwoman (to Chinaman in street car)—Shove yersilf ferninst the corner wid yer blue shirt, and give a leddy a chance to set down, bad cess to yez!

Chinaman—Wow!

Irishwoman—Can't yez talk English, ye yaller hathen?

Chinaman—If I couldn't talkee English muchee beetle old Irish woman, yeb, I shootee my glandmothie.

Don't

let that cold of yours run on. You think it is a light thing. But it may run into catarrh. Or into pneumonia. Or consumption.

Catarrh is disgusting. Pneumonia is dangerous. Consumption is death itself.

The breathing apparatus must be kept clear of all obstructions and offensive matter. Otherwise there is trouble ahead.

All the diseases of these parts, head, nose, throat, bronchial tubes and lungs, can be delightfully and entirely cured by the use of Boschee's German Syrup. If you don't know this already, thousands and thousands of people can tell you. They have been cured by it, and "know how it is themselves." Bottle only 75 cents. Ask any druggist.

ROMANCE AND REALITY.—"Oh, my darling, your voice is as musical to me as a vespers bell, whose tones fall softly on the perfumed evening air. Speak again, and say those words, my beloved, for I could listen to your words until the stars are extinguished in everlasting night."

Six months after marriage: "I have had just about enough of your clapper, old woman, and if you don't shut up I'll leave the house."

"Why Do I Suffer So

with headache and vertigo, doctor? I have a bad cough, too, and dull aches under the shoulder-blades; I'm losing weight, and am bilious all the time." The courteous physician answers: "If you enquire what is the cause of all this mischief, it is a torpid liver. That organ, you are aware, is the largest gland in the body, and its office is to carry off the waste of the system. When it fails to do its proper work, the refuse of the body is re-absorbed and goes circulating round and round in the blood, poisoning, not nourishing, the tissues. But why you continue to suffer in this way I am at a loss to understand, since Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery would give prompt relief, and future immunity from such attacks."

IN LEAP YEAR.—Charlie—Darling Clara, will you marry me?

Clara—Yes, but how funny?

Charlie—How?

Clara—It is ten minutes of nine and I had made up my mind to propose to you at nine, sharp. You have spared me a great disgrace.

"Gift Enterprises"

seem to be all the rage in the Soap Business, owing to the idea of some manufacturers of getting something out of nothing, if possible. Grocers get 6 boxes for 5 of some kinds, and are offered all sorts of "Nick Nacks" with others, as an inducement to recommend such soaps to their trade.

It is a well known fact, however, that a genuine article in this day of competition pays no fancy profits. WELCOME SOAP represents this class of goods, and demonstrates the value of quality in manufacture, which is the only guarantee of a pure and legitimate washing quality.

NEVER FOUND ONE.—Sweet Girl (disrobing)—Did you look under the bed?

Old Maid—What for?

"To see if there is a man there."

"No, dear, I've given up all hope."

Never Heard of "Davy Crockett's Coon"?

That's queer! Well, it was like this: Col. Crockett was noted for his skill as a marksman. One day he leveled his gun at a racoon in a tree, when the animal, knowing the Colonel's prowess, cried out, "Hello there! Are you Davy Crockett? If you are I'll just come down, for I know I'm a gone coon." Just take a dose of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, and see how quickly your biliousness and indigestion will emulate the example of "Davy Crockett's coon," and "climb down." They are specifics for all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels.

The widow of an eminent composer having stated upon the tomb of her husband that "he has left this life and gone to that blessed place where only his music can be exceeded," the mourning relict of a famous pyrotechnist adopted the same idea, and caused to be inscribed upon the marble slab, "He is gone to that blessed place where only his fireworks can be exceeded."

A Good Countenance.

Boils, Pimples and Skin Humors disfigure the countenance. Purify the Blood by using Burdock Blood Bitters to remove the impure matter which loads it, and the result will be a clear skin, good complexion and perfect health.

Jogg—There is a good deal said about woman's sphere. What is it in your opinion?

Hogg—Well, I cannot say what woman's sphere really is, but I have an idea what sphere she wants.

Jogg—Aha! What is it?

Hogg—The earth.

"Going out again, Harry?" said Mrs Hartley, reproachfully: "there was a time when you and I were never so happy as when we were alone."

"Well what of that?" was the unfeeling reply. "I don't object to being alone now."

"Aw, Chelly, I, aw, want to awsk you a widdle?"

"Fire away, dear boy."

"If one cigaw will make a man ill, will two make a manilla?"

(Chorus)—Haw! haw! haw!

Four Years of Suffering.

Mrs Terrance McNish, of Smith's Falls, Ont., after four years' intense suffering with Scrofula, from which her head became bald, was cured by Burdock Blood Bitters, after the best medical aid had failed.

Wife (reproachfully)—How can you come home in such a condition, John when only last week you signed the pledge?

Husband—I know it (hic), my dear, but's eashy 'nough t' sign nuzzer.

The Cold Dip.

During the recent cold weather here I had three fingers frozen. We had some Hagyard's Yellow Oil in the house and I tried it with good results. Wm. Macklain, Montreal, P. Q.

"What a nice girl is Fannie!" says Lester to me; but then she's so cold—and why so, I can't see."

"Oh, 'tis plain," I replied; "if the truth you have told—to be an ice girl she of course must be cold!"

Don't forget to go to R. B. Porter & Co.'s and secure some of the great bargains they are offering.

An Oriental Tale.

There once was a Turkish Pacha,
Who winked—what on earth could be racha!—
At the Sultan's best wife,
And for that lost his life.
The moral is: Don't be a macha!

There was a young lady of York
Who was such a demon to tork,
When once she begun
She would let her tongue run,
Till they stop'd up her mouth with a cork.

A New Home Treatment for the Cure of Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made by the patient at home.

READ THE FOLLOWING;

Ritcey's Cove, Nova Scotia, June 22, 1885.

GENTLEMEN—I am happy to say that the treatment which you sent me last February has effectually cured me of Catarrh. Mine was a case of long standing, and up to the present time I have been waiting for developing remains of Catarrh, but none are manifest. You may use my name as a proof that your remedy cures Catharrh. I feel grateful for the removal of such a trouble.

Yours etc., (REV.) G. O. HUESTIS.

TWO YEARS LATER.

Mill Village, Queen's Co., N.S. Dec. 23, 1887.

GENTLEMEN—Allow me to say that after three years' trial I find no unpleasant odor in the nose or, fetid breath, which used to effect others in my company. No symptoms of Catarrh remained after the second application of your remedy.

Wishing you success in doing good, I remain,

Yours sincerely (REV.) G. O. HUESTIS,

We send a pamphlet describing this new treatment on receipt of postage stamp.
