ILLUSTRATED. HARPER'S BASAR will continue to mintain its reputation as an unequalled family urnal. Its art illustrations are of the highest order, its literature is of the choicest kind, and its Fashion and Household departments of the most practical and comomical character. Its pattern sheet supplements and fashion plates alone will save its readers ten times the cost of subscription, and its keeping, cookery, etc, make it indispensible to every household. Its bright short stories, and timely essays, are among the best published; and not a line is admitted to its columns that could offend the most fastidious taste. Among the attractons of the new volume will ial stories by Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, ars. Alexander, William Black, and Thomas Hardy, and a
