BEAUTIFUL HAIR.—"Beautiful, beautiful, silken hair," Philip murmured fondly, toying lovingly with one of her tout-brown tresses; "soft as the plumage of an angel's wing; light as the thistledown that dances on the summer air; the shimmer of sunset, the glimmer of yellow gold; the rich red brown of autumnal forests blend in entrancing beauty in its——" And, just then, it came off in his hands, and he forgot what to say next. There was a moment of profound silence, and then Aurelia took it from him, and went out of the room with it. When she came back he was gone.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP" for children teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP" for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle Be sure and ask for "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP" and take no other kind.

A gentleman of this city in moderate circumstances was recently solicited to sign a bail bond with another party. When questioned by the magistrate he was asked if he was a real estate owner. He responded that he was, and, without further questioning, was accepted. As the gentleman associated with him on the bond reached the street he remarked: "H., I didn't know you owned a foot of real estate. Pray where is it situated?" "In the Mount Hope cemetery. I have a lot there 20 feet by 10," replied the other.—[Boston Budget.

MESSRS. C. C. RICHARDS & Co.

Gents.—I have used your MINARD'S LINIMENT successfully in a serious case of croup in my family. In fact I consider it a remedy no house should be without.

J. F. CUNNINGHAM.
Cape Island.

SO SAY ALL.—That MINARD'S LINIMENT is the standard liniment of the day, as it does just what it is represented to do.

She (flaring up)—What do you mean by kissing me, William Henry Smith?

W. H. S. (humbly)—I—I—I meant no disrespect, I assure you.

She (angrily)—Well, I should like to see you do it again, that's all.

W. H. S.—Here goes then.

S.—(smoothing her ruffled plumage) You're just awful.

What Am I to Do?

The symptoms of Biliousness are unhappily but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhœa or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure try Green's August Flower, it costs but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.

"I'll take your caramels and gum drops, Mr. Peduncle," said Willie, candidly, as he pocketed the confectionery given to him by the young man, "but I'll tell you right now that Irene isn't at home and isn't going to be, either, unless Mr. Hankinson comes. She told the girl so herself, five minutes ago. I heard her."

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all Throat and Lung Affections; also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this receipt in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y.

Minister (to bereaved widow, whose husband was blown up by dynamite)—Would you prefer a short sermon at the church, my dear Mrs. Hendricks?

Bereaved Widow—Ah, yes, Mr. Goodman; there was so little of poor John found that I think it would be more appropriate.

Look and Live!

My lady reader, don't pass me by with the unkind remark, "Only an advertisement." I may do you good. I may unfold to your view the "pearl of great price." I may be the means of restoring to you health and happiness. I surely will if you are suffering from any form of nervousness or female weakness, and will act upon my suggestion. I bring to your notice, with every confidence in its merits, a remedy especially compounded to meet just the requirements of your case—Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, bidding you look and live! Ladies everywhere, who have used it, speak volumes in its praise!

Bobby [whispering]—Didn't I hear Clara tell you, Mr. Featherly, that she was sorry, but she really couldn't give you a lock of her hair?

Featherly—Sh, Bobby—er—yes.

Bobby—Well, you must wait a day or two, and I'll get some for you when she's out.

"Gift Enterprises"

seem to be all the rage in the Soap Business, owing to the idea of some manufacturers of getting something out of nothing, if possible. Grocers get 6 boxes for 5 of some kinds, and are offered all sorts of "Nick Nacks" with others, as an inducement to recommend such soaps to their trade.

It is a well known fact, however, that a genuine article in this day of competition pays no fancy profits. WELCOME SOAP represents this class of goods, and demonstrates the value of quality in manufacture, which is the only guarantee of a pure and legitimate washing quality.

"Yes, boys," said old Bellows, proudly beating his breast, "I've been a soldier in my time, and, if I do say it myself, like the war-horse of scripture, I could ever scent the battle from afar."

"I s'pose," ventured young Paperwate, "that on very many occasions that saved your life?"

A Millionaire in a Minute.

Instances are on record where toilers in gold mines and diamond fields, who, by one turn of a spade, a single movement of the hand, have been transformed from penniless laborers to millionaires. But they were not so lucky as is the consumptive who finds a means of restoration to health, who learns that the dread disease from which he suffers is not incurable. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure consumption (which is lung scrofula), and nothing else will. For all diseases of the blood, such as blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous sores and swellings, it is unequalled.

Don't forget to ask when you go into R. B. Porter & Co.'s to see the 4 Button; also Clasp Kid Gloves, regular price $1.25, reduced to 86 cts. per pair.

QUITE CLEVAH!—"I was getting measured for a suit of cloth at his mawning," said young Mr. Sissy to his pretty cousin, "and just for a joke, y'know, I awsked Snipen if it really took nine tailors to make a man. He said it would take more than nine tailors to make a man of some people. I thought it was quite clevah."

Highly Valued.

"Last summer our children were very bad with summer complaint and the only remedy that did them any good was Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. We used 12 bottles during the warm weather and would not be without it at five times the cost, considering it to have no superior for diarrhœa." Mrs. James Healey, New Edinburgh, Ont.

Physician—Now, madam, this mixture is for your daughter, Flossie, to be taken internally, and this one for the little dog, to be outwardly applied. Don't get the two confounded; the result might be serious."

Madam—No, indeed, I won't, poor dear little fellow.

A Railway Smash Up

calls vividly to mind the appalling spectre of death, and yet no thought is taken of the thousands annually dying through disease caused by wrong action of the stomach, liver, kidneys or bowels, and which might be remedied by the use of B. B. B, nature's great restorative tonic and blood purifier.

Little Bess [to gentleman caller]—You ain't black, are you, Mr. L?

Mr. L.—Black, child? Why, no, I should hope not. What made you think I was?

L. B.—Oh, nothin'; 'cept pa said you was awful niggardly.

Is Cholera Coming?

When symptoms of cholera appear, prompt remedies should be resorted to. Miss Mary E. Davis, of Lusksville, Ont., says: "My brother was bad with cholera morbus and after using one bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, it cured him entirely."

A Georgia drummer asked a barefoot lad, whom he overtook driving home the cows, "Say, my boy, what time will it be at 6 o'clock this evening?" and was answered, "Bedtime for hens and fools, and you can go to roost though you ain't a hen."

A doctor's bill is seldom less than five dollars, and this doesn't include the cost of filling prescriptions. One dollar purchases a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which, in nine cases out of ten, is all the medical treatment needed. Try it, and save your money for a rainy day.

The presence of mind of an impecunious lover was illustrated recently at a bazaar, where there was a small stand for the sale of watch charms. "Oh, George," she said, "buy me a charm!" "Sarah," answered he, "you have too many already."

Our new Silks and Satins are the best value we ever offered to the public. R. B. Belyea & Co.'s.

"My!" exclaimed the rural editor, in alarm, "I was stuck with a bogus dime last week, and now a counterfeit $500 bill has been put in circulation. There's getting to be altogether too much worriment of mind in the newspaper business!"

New Room Papers, latest designs, at lowest prices, at Hugh Hay's.

Old Gentleman [to boy behind the bar]—Haven't you got a mask, little boy?

Boy—Yes, sir.

O. G.—Why don't you wear it?

Boy—My big sister's wearin' it to-day.

A New Home Treatment for the Cure of Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made by the patient at home.

READ THE FOLLOWING;

Ritcey's Cove, Nova Scotia, June 22, 1885.

GENTLEMEN—I am happy to say that the treatment which you sent me last February has effectually cured me of Catarrh. Mine was a case of long standing, and up to the present time I have been waiting for developing remains of Catarrh, but none are manifest. You may use my name as a proof that your remedy cures Catharrh. I feel grateful for the removal of such a trouble.

Yours etc., (REV.) G. O. HUESTIS.

TWO YEARS LATER.

Mill Village, Queen's Co., N.S. Dec. 23. 1887.

GENTLEMEN—Allow me to say that after three years' trial I find no unpleasant odor in the nose or, fetid breath, which used to effect others in my company. No symptons of Catarrh remained after the second application of your remedy.

Wishing you success in the good I remain,

Yours sincerely (REV.) G. O. HUESTIS.

We send a pamphlet describing this new treatment on receips of postage stamp.

A. H. Dixon & Son, 303 King St. W. Toronto, Can.

"When a girl gets mad and rises from a fellow's knee," says an exchange, "but thinks better of it and goes back again, that's what we call a relapse."

A lady who advertised for a girl "to do light house-work," received a letter from an applicant who said her health demanded sea air, and asked where the light-house was situated.

Ask For Ayer's

Sarsaparilla, and be sure you get it, when you want the best blood-purifier.

With its forty years of unexampled success in the cure of Blood Diseases, you can make no mistake in preferring Ayer's to any other. The fore-runner of modern blood medicines, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is still the most popular, being in greater demand than all others combined.

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla is selling faster than ever before. I never hesitate to recommend it."—George W. Whitman, Druggist, Albany, Ind.

"I am safe in saying that my sales of Ayer's Sarsaparilla far excel those of any other, and it gives thorough satisfaction."—L. H. Bush, Des Moines, Iowa.

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla and Ayer's Pills are the best selling medicines in my store. I can recommend them conscientiously."—C. Bickhaus, Pharmacist, Roseland, Ill.

"We have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla here for over thirty years and always recommend it when asked to name the best blood-purifier."—W. T. McLean, Druggist, Augusta, Ohio.

"I have sold your medicines for the last seventeen years, and always keep them in stock, as they are staples. 'There is nothing so good for the youthful blood' as Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—R. L. Parker, Fox Lake, Wis.

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla gives the best satisfaction of any medicine I have in stock. I recommend it, or, as the Doctors say, 'I prescribe it over the counter.' It never fails to meet the cases for which I recommend it, even where the doctors' prescriptions have been of no avail."—C. F. Calhoun, Monmouth, Kansas.

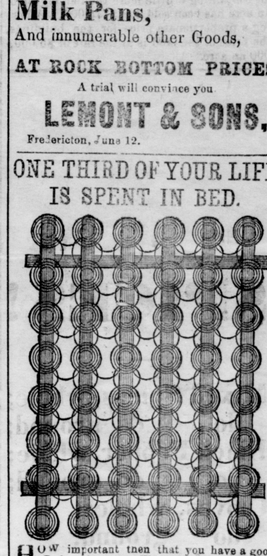
ONE THIRD OF YOUR LIFE IS SPENT IN BED.



HOW important then that you have a good Bed to sleep on. The more quiet and undisturbed your slumber, the more fully does nature repair the waste and damage your system has sustained during the day. The man who comes home exhausted by the labors of the day and stretches himself upon a hard uneven bed will rise in the morning very little benefitted by his sleep. Other things being equal, the man who has a comfortable bed will have clearer brain, a stronger arm, and a longer life than his neighbor who is not so fortunate. The BUTTERFIELD SPRING BED will positively give more solid comfort to the square inch than any other bed in the market. And the man who is fortunate enough to possess one is led to say with Sancho Panza: "Blessed be the man that invented sleep." It is the only bed ever made that has the elastic spring and brace, each bed being connected on the surface with side springs. There is thus formed a perfect spring surface, which gives an elastic movement wherever weight is placed.

Having secured the exclusive right to manufacture these Beds in New Brunswick, I am prepared to sell them either at wholesale or retail.

Good reliable agents wanted in the Northern and Eastern Counties, to whom exclusive Territory will be given. I am also prepared to sell rights to manufacture in Nova Scotia and P. E. Island, or to arrange with reliable parties who wish to manufacture on royalty.
