Medicine for Throat and Lung Diffi-culties has long been, and still is, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It cures Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and Asthma; soothes irritation of the Larynx and Fauces; strengthens the Vocal Organs; allays soreness of the Lungs; prevents Consumption, and, even in advanced stages of that disease. relieves Coughing and induces Sleep. There is no other preparation for diseases of the throat and lungs to be compared with this remedy.

"My wife had a distressing cough, with pains in the side and breast. We tried various medicines, but none did her any good until I got a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has cured her. A neighbor, Mrs. Glenn, had the measles, and the cough was relieved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have no hesitation in recommending this Cough Medicine to every one afflieted."-Robert Horton, Foreman Headlight, Morrillton, Ark. "I have been afflicted with asthmator for forty years. Last spring I was taken with a violent cough, which threatened to terminate my days. Every one pronounced me in consumption. I determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Its effects were magical. I was immediately relieved and continued to immediately relieved to the continued to the contin ately relieved and continued to improve until every recovered."—Joel Bullard,

"Six months ago I had a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, brought on by an incessant cough which deprived me of sleep and rest. I tried various remedies, but obtained no relief until I began to take Aver's Charry Posterel gan to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. A few bottles of this medicine cured me." Mrs. E. Coburn, 19 Second st., Lowell,

"For children afflicted with colds, coughs, sore throat, or croup, I do not know of any remedy which will give more steedy relief than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have found it, also, invaluable in cases of Whooping Cough."—Ann Lovejoy, 1257 Washington street, Boston, Mass.

Men's Working "In employment to the Editors of the Carleton Sentinel:

It newspaper reports are to be believed, some doubts seem to have arise in next ineed in quarters, as to the guilt or innocence of Millman, lately hanged at Charlettown, P. E., for the murder of his sweetheart. The Telegraph of Aug, 22nd says: "Evidence has been laid before the Minister of Justice which, if true, proves that Millman's life was sworn away by a person implicated in the murder. Millman died strongly protesting his innocence." We all remember the trial. The circumstantial evidence was dead against the prisoner. The Judge's charge to the jury were quite in a cordance with the evidence submitted at the trial. The execution was the natural constant of the Millman's execution—supposing of contract the subject is a somewhat hackneyed on but not too hackneyed, we insist. Woodstock, Ang 22, 1888.

The dull weather of Friday, 24th ult., probably proved more favorable for the holding of the third annual S. S. In the absence of the President, Rev. R. W. Clements, the opening devotional exercises, commencing about 10.30 o'clock, were led by the Secretary. In these exercises the President, arriving soon after their commencement, took an earnest part. On proceeding to business a Credential and also a Nominating Committee were appointed, the former consisting of Mesers.

A number of persons appallingly large has, since the commencement of this century, suffered not only an unjust death, but like-suffered not only an unjust death, but like-wise the agony of a branded life. Alive to shame, they have writhed under the infamy to which guilt is callous. Alive to the noble enterprises of life, they have clung in vain to the sphere of honorable exertion, in which guilt has lost its interest. Alive to the warm affections of life, when the vital tendrils of guilt can never know. Their virtue has ag-
