What Am I to Do? The symptoms of Biliousness are unhappily but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Bilious man is seldom a breakfast exter. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events. The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhees or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hemor-rhoids or even loss of blood. There may be gid-diness and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach.
