"Give me health," is the increasing cry, and with each reiteration new diseases are appearing, and a greater number of ills are baffling the power of drugs. God has met every need of his creatures. Man has but to place himeelf in a receptive attitude. It may be clearly life. Says Whittier: seen in the present condition of mortal man how a way is being made for the recognition of the God power in healing; for man is getting where he is driven, by sheer necessity to look for something higher than matter in the realm of healing.

Mrs. Mary B. G. Eddy is the discoverer to this age of Metaphysical healing. Very spiritual from childhood, a homoerpathic physician for years, she was being prepared for this work. Having met with an accident. and being sick unto death, she was enabled by God's spirit to so apprehend his healing power that her health was instantly restored. ·How did you heal yourself?" said her friends. She could not tell them, but the thought grew in intensity. Why could not this Science of healing through the Godpower be understood and demonstrated as in days of o'd? For three years Mrs. Eddy gave herself up to the study of the problem These years were spent in searching the "Peepling the shadows,"
