Cough medicines, Ayer's Cherry Peo-toral is in greater demand than ever. No preparation for Throat and Lung Troubles is so prompt in its effects, so agreeable to the taste, and so widely known, as this. It is the family medicine in thousands of households.

"I have suffered for years from a bronchial trouble that, whenever I take cold or am exposed to inclement weather, shows itself by a very annoying tickling sensation in the throat and by difficulty in breathing. I have tried a great many remedies, but none does so well as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which always gives prompt relief in returns of my old complaint."—Ernest A. Hepler, Inspector of Public Roads, Parish Terre Bonne, La. "I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a most important remedy

For Home Use.

I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and have never known it to fail. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lungs, whether in children or adults."—Mrs. E. G. Edgerly, Council Bluffs, Iowa. "Twenty years ago I was troubled with a disease of the lungs. Doctors afforded me no relief and considered afforded me no relief and considered my case hopeless. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and, before I had finited one bottle, found relief. I continue take this medicine until a cure was fected. I believe that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life."—Samuel Griggs, Waukegan, Ill. "Six years ago I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and soon developed all the alarming symptoms of Consumption. I had a cough, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs, pains in chest and sides, and was so prostrated as to be confined to my bed most of the time. After trying various prescriptions, without benefit, my physician finally determined to give Secretaries of Parish Sunday School Conventions should send a notice of the proposed meetings of their Convention to James Watts, County Secretary Woodstock, and notice of the meeting will be given in the S. S. Calendar in the SENTINEL and Press.

Wicklow Parish Convention. The Wicklow, S. S. Parieh Convention will hold its annual session, in the Presbyterian Church, Lower Greenfield, on the 31st inst., opening at 6.30 o'clock, p. m. LAMBERT S. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

Wilmot Parish S. S. Convention. The fifteenth session of the Wilmot Parish S . Convention was held in the Baptist Ghurch, Upper Bloomfield, on Wednesday, the 17th inst. The afternoon session which was fairly attended, opened at 2.30, p. m., with devotional exercises, led by H. T. London, Miss Blanche Briggs at the organ. The President being absent, the chair was occupied by the Vice President, H. T. London, and at 3 o'clock the Convention was declared open for the transaction of business. clared open for the transaction of business. After reading the minutes of last session, the Vice President called upon Superintendents and Delegate to report the state of their schools, which was responded to by I. S. Carvill, John A. Carpenter, Robert Gray, S. E. Briggs, Mrs. S. E. Briggs and J. W. Plummer. The Vice President also gave a very interesting report of his visit to the schools at Weston, Beckim Settlement, Bloomfield Corner, Charleston, Lakeville, and the Methodist school at Centreville. The reports from the delegates were encouraging. There are ten schools now in operation in the Parish, and seven of these are evergreen; all do-

Parish, and seven of these are evergreen; all doing good work. After a few remarks by the Secretary, referring to the progress of S school work during the past twelve years, the Vice President appointed C King, I. S. Carvill and S. E. Mr. Young, Methodist minister, then gave a highly interesting address in connection with S. school work, advocating the necessity of home training for the children; spoke of the training he had received at the home circle, and believed it was a good place to train children and teach them ruths contained in the Word of God. Short addresses were also delivered by I S. Carvill, S. E. Briggs, C. King and the Vice President, some of the speakers advancing the idea that, although home training should not be lost sight of or neglected, yet it is the duty of those engaged in S. school work to teach the children who have not the benefit of a Christian home training; bring them into the S. school and endeavor to teach them from the Word of God,

Southampton Parish Convention. meeting of Sabbath School workers took place at Temperance Vale, York Co., on Tuesday last which was attended by representa-tives from nearly all the S. S. in the parish, and resulted in the organization of a Parish Convention for Southampton under most enouraging circumstances.

Two public meetings, one in the afternoon and one in the evening, were held at which C. W. Taylor presided. S. J. Parsons and W. G. Gaunce were present, and by the blackboard lesson of the former, and address of the latter, as well as in other ways rendered valuable assistance. The other speakdered valuable assistance. The other speakers were C. W. Taylor, J. A. Grant, G. Blaney, Mrs. Parent and Messrs. Draper and Miller. There was some unusually fine singing, Miss Grant at the organ. The following were elected officers of the convention: C. W. Taylor, P.; Frank Brown, V. P.; J. N. Grant and G. Blaney, members of the execution.

The next session is to be held at Central Southampton on Thursday, 27th Dec. next. Have you seen the double-width Ulster Cloth, only $1.00, all wool, former price $1.50, at Hugh Hay's.
