I at once came from Nova Scotia and had warrants for his arrest served out. I have one child, a boy, 15 months old."

Three Episcopal conventions have lately been, or are now, in session at New York. One was the annual convention of the colored Episcopalians in the United States; another was the New York diocesan convention, which has come to a close; and the third is the general convention of the Episcopal Church, which meets once in three years and has made great advances in the city of New York during the past twenty, and especially during the past ten, years. In fact, every other Protestant body in New York is either remaining stationary or else losing ground. The Episcopalians alone are gaining. This fact was brought out through some statistics gathered by the New York Evening Post and has never been disputed.

Righteousness Demanded.
Principal Grant, in an address at Kingston, Ont., recently, thus touched upon the doctrine of political expediency that end justifies the means. He deplored the tendency of all parties of the present day to accept this policy. He hoped that the time was not far distant when they would awake to a realization of the fact that political, as well as church parties, demanded righteousness, and that the moral and material welfare of the country depended on placing in power only such men as looked on party organization merely as a means to the highest welfare of the nation.

The Mayor issued a deed of sale for the purchase of a farm, for stand pipe, had been prepared, but owing to some inaccuracies in former deeds of the same land, the execution of the same was delayed. A lengthy informal discussion of the subject, showed that Councilors Lindsay, Murphy, Orr and his Worship, inclined to the opinion that it would be better to defer the laying of the foundation of the stand pipe until next spring, and in this opinion, we think, a large majority of the rate-payers will agree.

Be sure and call at R. B. Porter & Co.'s this week and see their new dress materials. They have marked them at astonishing low prices. The sale is going on.
