Spring Bed?

BECAUSE one-third of his life is spent in bed, Because feather beds absorb the poisonous exhalations of the body and are a fruitful source of disease, especially in summer.

Because they have a perfectly elastic surface.

Because they will adapt themselves to every Because they have a spring and brace coupling, which holds every spring in position.

Because they are comfortable, healthful and Because they are the best beds in the world.

T. L. ESTEY

How Lost, How Restored! Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure of SPERMATORRHEA or incapacity induced by excess or early indiscretion.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alaiming consequences of early error may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically
