Dec. 18th, 1889 The re-election on Tuesday resulted in the reurn of the old councillors Paradise Lodge is arranging fer a Christmas tree on Christmas evening, and a jubilee tem-perance meeting on New Year's eve.

Mr. Harry Rogers has returned from Atkin, Minn., to visit his mother Mrs Nathan Rogers, who is or was dangerously ill. Mr. Rogers was accompanied by his winsome western wife. We trust they will make their permanent home here. That New Brunswick girls are still ahead is evidenced by the fact that young men will yet travel the length and breadth of the continent travel the length and breadth of the continent to enter into a matrimonial contract with them. We congratulate Mr. Chas. Connell upon his late safe trip from California to Woodstock, and the success in its happy supplemental termination at Florenceville on Tuesday. Our only regret is that Mr. Connell does not intend to settle down here with his fair young bride. Thanks, anyway, for a slice of the cake.

Death of Mr. John Babbit.

The community was surprised and deeply pained this morning to learn of the death of Mr. John Babbit, which occurred at his home, Charlotte street, at half-past seven o'clock. Deceased had been lying ill for some months past, but his death was not thought to be so near at hand. Mr. Babbit was in the 44th year of his age and the second son of the late Samuel W. Babbit. For ten or twelve years he carried on a jewellry business in this city, selling out in 1882 to Mr.

Lames D. Fowler. Since that time he has been engaged in the lumbering business, op. PLOYMENT. Write at once for terms, and secure erating on the Tob:que river. In all his busi-ness transactions Mr. Babbit was most hon-ERS, Nurserymen, Rochester, N. Y.--si 46. orable. He was highly respected by everyone with whom he came in contact, and his death, in the very prime of his life, will cause pro-found regret. Mr. Babbit represented King's Ward at the Council Board for two or three terms in the seventies. Two children, a boy and a girl, aged respectively 13 and 15, survive him. Mrs. Babbit, as will be rememhered, lost her life by drowning several years ago, which makes the bereavement still harder to bear .- Gleaner, 10th inst.

My boy, aged nine years, has been troubled all his lite with a very bad humor, which appeared all over his body in small red blotches, with a dry white scab on them. Last year he was worse than ever, being covered with scabs from the top of his head to his feet, and continually growing werse, although he had been treated by two physicians. As a last resort, I determined to try the CUTICURA.
