

Fire Assurance and Collecting Agency.

The subscriber has been appointed agent for the undersigned First Class Fire Assurance Co., viz:—
The Atlas Assurance Co. of London, England; Established 1803.
Capital.....$500,000 00
THE WESTERN ASSURANCE CO. OF TORONTO.
Net Cash Assets.....$1,240,391 00 Unpaid Capital.....600,000 00 $1,840,391 00
Farms and mercantile risks taken at lowest rates. Losses promptly paid.

WILLIAM DIBBLEE,
AGENT FOR COUNTY OF CARLETON.
As Police Magistrate, I will collect accounts and notes to amount of $50 and under without cost.

W. D.
Woodstock, April 2, 1891—14

A Novelty at Hartland!
For the consideration of the Travelling Public.

THE "EXCHANGE HOTEL,"

LATLY OPENED BY
S. HAYDEN.
Its commodiousness, its proximity to the Station, its attractive tables, well prepared Refreshments, clean, comfortable, and cheap. A STABLE with first-class stalls. The Post Office is in the same building.
July 19, 1883—6m-21.

QUEEN HOTEL.

FREDERICKTON, N. B.
J. EDWARDS, PROPRIETOR.
First-class family table in connection.

ROYAL HOTEL,

45 King street,
SAINT JOHN, N. B.
T. F. RAYMOND, PROPRIETOR.

W. FRED. KERTSON,

Barrister, Notary Public, &c.
GRAND FALLS, N. B.

J. C. HARTLEY,

Attorney-at-Law,
CONVEYANCER, &c.
Money to Loan on Real Estate.

ALLEN & FERGUSON,

Barristers-at-Law,
SOLICITORS,
NOTARIES PUBLIC, &c.
ST. JOHN, N. B.

THOS. LAWSON,

Barrister, Attorney-at-Law, NOTARY PUBLIC,
ANDOVER, VICTORIA CO.

J. R. MURPHY,

BARRISTER, ATTORNEY,
Notary Public, &c.
Also Issuer of Marriage Licences.

DR. W. H. HAY,

Office and Residence—At Turner's New House, Chapel St., Woodstock, N. B.
6m-41

DR. M. F. BRUCE,

Ophthalmic and Aural Surgeon to St. John Gen. Public Hospital.
—PRACTICE LIMITED TO—
EYE, EAR, THROAT AND NOSE.
OFFICE, 40 Colborne St., St. John.

D. S. ROGERS, D.D.S.,

SURGEON DENTIST,
(Successor to H. M. Jewett) Chemically Pure Gas for Extracting.
Two Doors Below Town Hall, MAIN STREET, WOODSTOCK, N. B.
(6m-1)

DR. J. E. GRIFFITH,

DENTIST
Office—Next door to Dr. Smith's Drug Store.

W. D. GAMBER,

DENTIST.
NITROUS OXIDE GAS used for the PAINLESS EXTRACTION OF TEETH.
Office—in Connell's Wooden Block, Queen Street.

HERBERT DIBBLEE,

Gold, Silver, Nickel, Oroides, Brass and Copper
PLATER.

Manufacturers of all kinds of HARNESS TRIMMINGS
and COMPOSITION SLEIGH HANDLES.

Carriage and Sleigh Work fitted at short notice.
Also, Harness, Collars, Spurs, Cuffs, Cakes, Bells, Watch Cases, Jewellery, &c., repaired.
Call or send for Price List for fitting.
All work warranted to wear and look as good as new.
Light Articles such as Watch Cases, Jewellery, &c., can be sent by mail.

The Carleton Sentinel.

SAMUEL & JAMES WATTS.

Our Queen and Constitution.

[Editors & Proprietors.]

XLI.—3

WOODSTOCK, N. B., SATURDAY, JANUARY 19, 1899.

WHOLE NO.—2181

I can and will save you money; try and see?

I have the following Goods in stock, and will not be undersold:—

400 Bbls. FLOUR!

100 Barrels Oil; 600 Dozen Canned Goods; 100 Cases Evaporated Apples; 25 Barrels Dried Apples.

Molasses, Sugar, Beans, Pork, Lard, Raisins, Currants, English SPICES OF ALL KINDS.

I will sell above Goods Low for Cash. I WILL PAY TWENTY CENTS PER DOZEN FOR FRESH EGGS.

Woodstock, Nov. 17, 1888.
JOHN GRAHAM.

GENERAL INSURANCE AGENCY.

I AM prepared to insure all kinds of Insurable Property in Town and County, at the Lowest current rates, in any of the following old and MOST RELIABLE Companies:—

The NORTH BRITISH & MERCANTILE, of London, England;
The NORTHERN, of London, England;
The PHENIX, of London, England;
The BRITISH AMERICA, of Toronto, Canada;
The STANDARD LIFE, of Edinburgh, Scotland.

Representing in Capital and Assets upwards of $100,000,000.
Detached Dwellings in Town and Country insured on the THREE YEARS plan. Losses by lightning paid whether fire cause or not. In case of loss a fair and satisfactory adjustment guaranteed and the amount promptly paid.

J. NORMAN W. WINSLOW, Agent.
On Real Estate security at low rates of interest.
J. NORMAN W. WINSLOW, Attorney, Solicitor, &c.
Woodstock, March 27, 1883—13.

MONEY TO LOAN

On Real Estate security at low rates of interest.
J. NORMAN W. WINSLOW, Attorney, Solicitor, &c.
Woodstock, March 27, 1883—13.

ATTENTION!

Keep Warm!

Fur Coats,
Fur Collars & Cuffs,
Fur Caps!

We are prepared to offer the BEST TRADE in any of the above Goods ever offered.

UNDERCLOTHING,

GLOVES & MITTENS
In endless variety, and hosts of GENTS' FURNISHINGS too numerous to mention, at prices that will suit you

Jones & Nicholson, MANCHESTER HOUSE, - - MAIN STREET.
Woodstock, Oct. 24, 1888

SAWING MACHINES!

A FULL STOCK OF Drag and Circular
SAWING MACHINES,
NOW READY!

ALL THE LATEST PATTERNS.
Also two second-hand Horse Powers, suitable for running Sawing Machines, which we will sell cheap.

Woodstock, Nov. 2, 1888.
SMALL & FISHER.

WOODSTOCK UNDERTAKING ESTABLISHMENT.

ONE OF THE CHEAPEST, OLDEST AND MOST RELIABLE HOUSES IN THE PROVINCE.

MANUFACTURERS OF AND DEALERS IN CASKETS AND COFFINS of every Design and Finish.
BOTH IN WOOD AND IN METAL.

Orders by Telegraph receive immediate attention. We guarantee satisfaction in every particular.
We also have in stock a full line of FURNITURE, embracing PARLOR and CHAMBER SETS, CHAIRS, TABLES, &c., which for durability, workmanship and finish are unequalled.
Remember the place—MAIN STREET, NEAR RAILWAY DEPOT.

JACOB VANWART, PROPRIETOR.
Woodstock, Nov. 1, 1888—41.

J. R. TUPPER,

COFFINS & CASKETS, ALL PRICES.

A Fine Assortment of BURIAL ROBES, including the BROWN HABIT SHOP OPPOSITE QUEEN HOTEL.

Orders by day or night can be left at Store, or Tupper's Livery Stable, and will receive prompt attention. Telephone communication with Residence Railway Station, Upper and Lower Woodstock, and other parts of the Town. A Fine HEARSE and HACK in connection.

J. R. TUPPER.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

When I say CURE I do not mean merely to stop them for a time, and then have them return again. I MEAN A RADICAL CURE.
I have made the discovery of Dr. H. G. ROY, 27 Yonge St., Toronto, Ont.

FITS, EPILEPSY or FALLING SICKNESS.
A lifetime cure. I WARRANT my remedy to cure the worst cases. Because others have failed to do so, I have made a special study of the disease, and have discovered a new and powerful remedy. I have made the discovery of Dr. H. G. ROY, 27 Yonge St., Toronto, Ont.

THE BRIDGE.
The smallest personage at his own
wedding is distinctly the bridegroom.
Nobody troubles a job about him; no
one is anxious to get him out of the way.
He is the center of attraction, the focus of the patterns of his unmentionables, and
no society paper cares a fig how he looks,
or concerns itself about his department generally. The fact is the unfortunate
creature is regarded merely as a nonentity, wanted only for the purpose of
turning the tide of conversation, and otherwise not of the smallest consequence.
His future wife begins by making him
wait a very bad little quarter of an hour
—he catches it later on, you may be sure, when the balance of authority is
properly adjusted—and, do what he will,
he cannot escape the expression of
contempt that pleases everybody.
How he gets through the service he never knows; but his friends do, and he hears of it afterwards. Then, to crown
his misery, he is forced to get on his feet, just when most off his head, in order to convince his wife and mother-in-
law that if there is any situation he is
peculiarly fitted for, it is that of an inpatient at a lunatic asylum.—Judy.

HER APOLOGY.
A little girl, who had a foolish habit of
plain speaking, was taken to the sewing circle with her mother. On entering the room, after exchanging greetings and such
several matrons of her acquaintance, Miss Truthful walked up to another lady
and, in the confidence of one of those
guaranteed to a self-evident case, she said, loudly enough for every one present
to hear:—
"Why, Mrs. Handley, how homely you are!"
While the victim was hiding her confusion
as best she might, and the rest were
trying hard to conceal their amusement,
the young lady herself was hastily
taken from the room.
Her master, however, continued to
push him back, but as the dog persevered he lost his patience and striking
at him with his hair, lost his footing
and fell into the water himself. He was unable to swim, but the dog seeing
him in the water, succeeded in bringing
him to the land after having been washed away by the current. The dog's life
was spared we are happy to say. Hall's Journal of Health.

THREE VERY EXCELLENT
REASONS.
A person and his parish at Adelaide,
Australia, recently parted with mutual
willingness, and in his farewell discourse
the minister freed his mind as follows:
"I do not regret our separation, dear
brethren, for three good and valid reasons. The first is that you don't love me, the second that you don't love one another, and the third that God does not love you. You don't love me—my salary is several months in arrears; you would
not love one another, or there would not be such a dearth of marriages among
you; and God does not seem to love you
as you ought to be loved, because there
have been no funerals among you lately."

OUR ENTERPRISING BUSINESS MEN
Edward Shaughnessy.
One of the most popular of our young
and enterprising business men is Mr.
Edward Shaughnessy, who has lately purchased from Mr. John Whelan the large and profitable meat trade possessed
by that gentleman. That Ed. will succeed in his new venture is beyond a doubt. That jovial and affable disposition which is the prime element of his
constitution will no doubt prove a boon
to him in his new enterprise. A man engaged in the meat business must be a shrewd purchaser of cattle in order to compete with his competitors. That
"Ed." is qualified in this respect is beyond a doubt. He has been with Mr.
Whelan for a number of years and has
learned the most minute details of the business and keeps on hand some of the best Meats to be found in town. He has
for his patrons some of our best families. As a judge of good poultry weight, plum, or phosphate powder. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 176 Wall Street, New York. —53-45

THE BRIDGE.
The smallest personage at his own
wedding is distinctly the bridegroom.
Nobody troubles a job about him; no
one is anxious to get him out of the way.
He is the center of attraction, the focus
of the patterns of his unmentionables, and
no society paper cares a fig how he looks,
or concerns itself about his department
generally. The fact is the unfortunate
creature is regarded merely as a nonentity,
wanted only for the purpose of
turning the tide of conversation, and other-
wise not of the smallest consequence.
His future wife begins by making him
wait a very bad little quarter of an hour
—he catches it later on, you may be
sure, when the balance of authority is
properly adjusted—and, do what he will,
he cannot escape the expression of
contempt that pleases everybody.
How he gets through the service he
never knows; but his friends do, and he
hears of it afterwards. Then, to crown
his misery, he is forced to get on his
feet, just when most off his head, in
order to convince his wife and mother-in-
law that if there is any situation he is
peculiarly fitted for, it is that of an in-
patient at a lunatic asylum.—Judy.

HER APOLOGY.
A little girl, who had a foolish habit of
plain speaking, was taken to the sewing
circle with her mother. On entering the
room, after exchanging greetings and such
several matrons of her acquaintance,
Miss Truthful walked up to another lady
and, in the confidence of one of those
guaranteed to a self-evident case, she
said, loudly enough for every one present
to hear:—
"Why, Mrs. Handley, how homely you
are!"
While the victim was hiding her confusion
as best she might, and the rest were
trying hard to conceal their amusement,
the young lady herself was hastily
taken from the room.
Her master, however, continued to
push him back, but as the dog per-
severed he lost his patience and striking
at him with his hair, lost his footing
and fell into the water himself. He
was unable to swim, but the dog seeing
him in the water, succeeded in bringing
him to the land after having been washed away by the current. The dog's life
was spared we are happy to say. Hall's Journal of Health.

THREE VERY EXCELLENT
REASONS.
A person and his parish at Adelaide,
Australia, recently parted with mutual
willingness, and in his farewell discourse
the minister freed his mind as follows:
"I do not regret our separation, dear
brethren, for three good and valid reasons. The first is that you don't love
me, the second that you don't love one another, and the third that God does not
love you. You don't love me—my salary
is several months in arrears; you would
not love one another, or there would
not be such a dearth of marriages among
you; and God does not seem to love you
as you ought to be loved, because there
have been no funerals among you lately."

OUR ENTERPRISING BUSINESS MEN
Edward Shaughnessy.
One of the most popular of our young
and enterprising business men is Mr.
Edward Shaughnessy, who has lately
purchased from Mr. John Whelan the
large and profitable meat trade possessed
by that gentleman. That Ed. will succeed in his new venture is beyond a
doubt. That jovial and affable disposition which is the prime element of his
constitution will no doubt prove a boon
to him in his new enterprise. A man
engaged in the meat business must be a
shrewd purchaser of cattle in order to
compete with his competitors. That
"Ed." is qualified in this respect is beyond a doubt. He has been with Mr.
Whelan for a number of years and has
learned the most minute details of the
business and keeps on hand some of the
best Meats to be found in town. He has
for his patrons some of our best families. As a judge of good poultry weight, plum, or phosphate powder. Sold only in
cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 176 Wall
Street, New York. —53-45

THE BRIDGE.
The smallest personage at his own
wedding is distinctly the bridegroom.
Nobody troubles a job about him; no
one is anxious to get him out of the way.
He is the center of attraction, the focus
of the patterns of his unmentionables, and
no society paper cares a fig how he looks,
or concerns itself about his department
generally. The fact is the unfortunate
creature is regarded merely as a nonentity,
wanted only for the purpose of
turning the tide of conversation, and other-
wise not of the smallest consequence.
His future wife begins by making him
wait a very bad little quarter of an hour
—he catches it later on, you may be
sure, when the balance of authority is
properly adjusted—and, do what he will,
he cannot escape the expression of
contempt that pleases everybody.
How he gets through the service he
never knows; but his friends do, and he
hears of it afterwards. Then, to crown
his misery, he is forced to get on his
feet, just when most off his head, in
order to convince his wife and mother-in-
law that if there is any situation he is
peculiarly fitted for, it is that of an in-
patient at a lunatic asylum.—Judy.

HER APOLOGY.
A little girl, who had a foolish habit of
plain speaking, was taken to the sewing
circle with her mother. On entering the
room, after exchanging greetings and such
several matrons of her acquaintance,
Miss Truthful walked up to another lady
and, in the confidence of one of those
guaranteed to a self-evident case, she
said, loudly enough for every one present
to hear:—
"Why, Mrs. Handley, how homely you
are!"
While the victim was hiding her confusion
as best she might, and the rest were
trying hard to conceal their amusement,
the young lady herself was hastily
taken from the room.
Her master, however, continued to
push him back, but as the dog per-
severed he lost his patience and striking
at him with his hair, lost his footing
and fell into the water himself. He
was unable to swim, but the dog seeing
him in the water, succeeded in bringing
him to the land after having been washed away by the current. The dog's life
was spared we are happy to say. Hall's Journal of Health.

THREE VERY EXCELLENT
REASONS.
A person and his parish at Adelaide,
Australia, recently parted with mutual
willingness, and in his farewell discourse
the minister freed his mind as follows:
"I do not regret our separation, dear
brethren, for three good and valid reasons. The first is that you don't love
me, the second that you don't love one another, and the third that God does not
love you. You don't love me—my salary
is several months in arrears; you would
not love one another, or there would
not be such a dearth of marriages among
you; and God does not seem to love you
as you ought to be loved, because there
have been no funerals among you lately."

OUR ENTERPRISING BUSINESS MEN
Edward Shaughnessy.
One of the most popular of our young
and enterprising business men is Mr.
Edward Shaughnessy, who has lately
purchased from Mr. John Whelan the
large and profitable meat trade possessed
by that gentleman. That Ed. will succeed in his new venture is beyond a
doubt. That jovial and affable disposition which is the prime element of his
constitution will no doubt prove a boon
to him in his new enterprise. A man
engaged in the meat business must be a
shrewd purchaser of cattle in order to
compete with his competitors. That
"Ed." is qualified in this respect is beyond a doubt. He has been with Mr.
Whelan for a number of years and has
learned the most minute details of the
business and keeps on hand some of the
best Meats to be found in town. He has
for his patrons some of our best families. As a judge of good poultry weight, plum, or phosphate powder. Sold only in
cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 176 Wall
Street, New York. —53-45

THE BRIDGE.
The smallest personage at his own
wedding is distinctly the bridegroom.
Nobody troubles a job about him; no
one is anxious to get him out of the way.
He is the center of attraction, the focus
of the patterns of his unmentionables, and
no society paper cares a fig how he looks,
or concerns itself about his department
generally. The fact is the unfortunate
creature is regarded merely as a nonentity,
wanted only for the purpose of
turning the tide of conversation, and other-
wise not of the smallest consequence.
His future wife begins by making him
wait a very bad little quarter of an hour
—he catches it later on, you may be
sure, when the balance of authority is
properly adjusted—and, do what he will,
he cannot escape the expression of
contempt that pleases everybody.
How he gets through the service he
never knows; but his friends do, and he
hears of it afterwards. Then, to crown
his misery, he is forced to get on his
feet, just when most off his head, in
order to convince his wife and mother-in-
law that if there is any situation he is
peculiarly fitted for, it is that of an in-
patient at a lunatic asylum.—Judy.

HER APOLOGY.
A little girl, who had a foolish habit of
plain speaking, was taken to the sewing
circle with her mother. On entering the
room, after exchanging greetings and such
several matrons of her acquaintance,
Miss Truthful walked up to another lady
and, in the confidence of one of those
guaranteed to a self-evident case, she
said, loudly enough for every one present
to hear:—
"Why, Mrs. Handley, how homely you
are!"
While the victim was hiding her confusion
as best she might, and the rest were
trying hard to conceal their amusement,
the young lady herself was hastily
taken from the room.
Her master, however, continued to
push him back, but as the dog per-
severed he lost his patience and striking
at him with his hair, lost his footing
and fell into the water himself. He
was unable to swim, but the dog seeing
him in the water, succeeded in bringing
him to the land after having been washed away by the current. The dog's life
was spared we are happy to say. Hall's Journal of Health.

THREE VERY EXCELLENT
REASONS.
A person and his parish at Adelaide,
Australia, recently parted with mutual
willingness, and in his farewell discourse
the minister freed his mind as follows:
"I do not regret our separation, dear
brethren, for three good and valid reasons. The first is that you don't love
me, the second that you don't love one another, and the third that God does not
love you. You don't love me—my salary
is several months in arrears; you would
not love one another, or there would
not be such a dearth of marriages among
you; and God does not seem to love you
as you ought to be loved, because there
have been no funerals among you lately."

OUR ENTERPRISING BUSINESS MEN
Edward Shaughnessy.
One of the most popular of our young
and enterprising business men is Mr.
Edward Shaughnessy, who has lately
purchased from Mr. John Whelan the
large and profitable meat trade possessed
by that gentleman. That Ed. will succeed in his new venture is beyond a
doubt. That jovial and affable disposition which is the prime element of his
constitution will no doubt prove a boon
to him in his new enterprise. A man
engaged in the meat business must be a
shrewd purchaser of cattle in order to
compete with his competitors. That
"Ed." is qualified in this respect is beyond a doubt. He has been with Mr.
Whelan for a number of years and has
learned the most minute details of the
business and keeps on hand some of the
best Meats to be found in town. He has
for his patrons some of our best families. As a judge of good poultry weight, plum, or phosphate powder. Sold only in
cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 176 Wall
Street, New York. —53-45

THE BRIDGE.
The smallest personage at his own
wedding is distinctly the bridegroom.
Nobody troubles a job about him; no
one is anxious to get him out of the way.
He is the center of attraction, the focus
of the patterns of his unmentionables, and
no society paper cares a fig how he looks,
or concerns itself about his department
generally. The fact is the unfortunate
creature is regarded merely as a nonentity,
wanted only for the purpose of
turning the tide of conversation, and other-
wise not of the smallest consequence.
His future wife begins by making him
wait a very bad little quarter of an hour
—he catches it later on, you may be
sure, when the balance of authority is
properly adjusted—and, do what he will,
he cannot escape the expression of
contempt that pleases everybody.
How he gets through the service he
never knows; but his friends do, and he
hears of it afterwards. Then, to crown
his misery, he is forced to get on his
feet, just when most off his head, in
order to convince his wife and mother-in-
law that if there is any situation he is
peculiarly fitted for, it is that of an in-
patient at a lunatic asylum.—Judy.

HER APOLOGY.
A little girl, who had a foolish habit of
plain speaking, was taken to the sewing
circle with her mother. On entering the
room, after exchanging greetings and such
several matrons of her acquaintance,
Miss Truthful walked up to another lady
and, in the confidence of one of those
guaranteed to a self-evident case, she
said, loudly enough for every one present
to hear:—
"Why, Mrs. Handley, how homely you
are!"
While the victim was hiding her confusion
as best she might, and the rest were
trying hard to conceal their amusement,
the young lady herself was hastily
taken from the room.
Her master, however, continued to
push him back, but as the dog per-
severed he lost his patience and striking
at him with his hair, lost his footing
and fell into the water himself. He
was unable to swim, but the dog seeing
him in the water, succeeded in bringing
him to the land after having been washed away by the current. The dog's life
was spared we are happy to say. Hall's Journal of Health.

THREE VERY EXCELLENT
REASONS.
A person and his parish at Adelaide,
Australia, recently parted with mutual
willingness, and in his farewell discourse
the minister freed his mind as follows:
"I do not regret our separation, dear
brethren, for three good and valid reasons. The first is that you don't love
me, the second that you don't love one another, and the third that God does not
love you. You don't love me—my salary
is several months in arrears; you would
not love one another, or there would
not be such a dearth of marriages among
you; and God does not seem to love you
as you ought to be loved, because there
have been no funerals among you lately."

OUR ENTERPRISING BUSINESS MEN
Edward Shaughnessy.
One of the most popular of our young
and enterprising business men is Mr.
Edward Shaughnessy, who has lately
purchased from Mr. John Whelan the
large and profitable meat trade possessed
by that gentleman. That Ed. will succeed in his new venture is beyond a
doubt. That jovial and affable disposition which is the prime element of his
constitution will no doubt prove a boon
to him in his new enterprise. A man
engaged in the meat business must be a
shrewd purchaser of cattle in order to
compete with his competitors. That
"Ed." is qualified in this respect is beyond a doubt. He has been with Mr.
Whelan for a number of years and has
learned the most minute details of the
business and keeps on hand some of the
best Meats to be found in town. He has
for his patrons some of our best families. As a judge of good poultry weight, plum, or phosphate powder. Sold only in
cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 176 Wall
Street, New York. —53-45

THE BRIDGE.
The smallest personage at his own
wedding is distinctly the bridegroom.
Nobody troubles a job about him; no
one is anxious to get him out of the way.
He is the center of attraction, the focus
of the patterns of his unmentionables, and
no society paper cares a fig how he looks,
or concerns itself about his department
generally. The fact is the unfortunate
creature is regarded merely as a nonentity,
wanted only for the purpose of
turning the tide of conversation, and other-
wise not of the smallest consequence.
His future wife begins by making him
wait a very bad little quarter of an hour
—he catches it later on, you may be
sure, when the balance of authority is
properly adjusted—and, do what he will,
he cannot escape the expression of
contempt that pleases everybody.
How he gets through the service he
never knows; but his friends do, and he
hears of it afterwards. Then, to crown
his misery, he is forced to get on his
feet, just when most off his head, in
order to convince his wife and mother-in-
law that if there is any situation he is
peculiarly fitted for, it is that of an in-
patient at a lunatic asylum.—Judy.

HER APOLOGY.
A little girl, who had a foolish habit of
plain speaking, was taken to the sewing
circle with her mother. On entering the
room, after exchanging greetings and such
several matrons of her acquaintance,
Miss Truthful walked up to another lady
and, in the confidence of one of those
guaranteed to a self-evident case, she
said, loudly enough for every one present
to hear:—
"Why, Mrs. Handley, how homely you
are!"
While the victim was hiding her confusion
as best she might, and the rest were
trying hard to conceal their amusement,
the young lady herself was hastily
taken from the room.
Her master, however, continued to
push him back, but as the dog per-
severed he lost his patience and striking
at him with his hair, lost his footing
and fell into the water himself. He
was unable to swim, but the dog seeing
him in the water, succeeded in bringing
him to the land after having been washed away by the current. The dog's life
was spared we are happy to say. Hall's Journal of Health.

THREE VERY EXCELLENT
REASONS.
A person and his parish at Adelaide,
Australia, recently parted with mutual
willingness, and in his farewell discourse
the minister freed his mind as follows:
"I do not regret our separation, dear
brethren, for three good and valid reasons. The first is that you don't love
me, the second that you don't love one another, and the third that God does not
love you. You don't love me—my salary
is several months in arrears; you would
not love one another, or there would
not be such a dearth of marriages among
you; and God does not seem to love you
as you ought to be loved, because there
have been no funerals among you lately."

OUR ENTERPRISING BUSINESS MEN
Edward Shaughnessy.
One of the most popular of our young
and enterprising business men is Mr.
Edward Shaughnessy, who has lately
purchased from Mr. John Whelan the
large and profitable meat trade possessed
by that gentleman. That Ed. will succeed in his new venture is beyond a
doubt. That jovial and affable disposition which is the prime element of his
constitution will no doubt prove a boon
to him in his new enterprise. A man
engaged in the meat business must be a
shrewd purchaser of cattle in order to
compete with his competitors. That
"Ed." is qualified in this respect is beyond a doubt. He has been with Mr.
Whelan for a number of years and has
learned the most minute details of the
business and keeps on hand some of the best Meats to be found in town. He has