A beggar died last night; his soul Went up to God, and said:
"I came uncalled; forgive it Lord;
I died for want of bread."

Then answered him the Lord of Heaven: "Son how can this thing be? Are not my saints on earth and they Had surely succoured thee "

"Thy saints, O Lord," the beggar said,
"Live holy lives of prayer;
How shall they know of such as we! Who perish unaware. "They strive to save our wicked souls, And fit them for the sky; Meanwhile, not having bread to eat,-
