

Rich and Poor.

There is a vast difference between the rich and the poor. The rich are the few, the poor are the many. The rich are the ones who have the power, the poor are the ones who are oppressed. The rich are the ones who have the money, the poor are the ones who are hungry. The rich are the ones who have the education, the poor are the ones who are ignorant. The rich are the ones who have the respect, the poor are the ones who are despised. The rich are the ones who have the life, the poor are the ones who are struggling for existence.

I have been afflicted with rheumatism for many years. It has been a constant pain, a constant suffering. I have tried many remedies, but none have given me any relief. I have been told that I should try Ayer's Pills, and I have done so. I have found that they have given me the relief that I have been seeking for so long. I am now able to move about freely, and I am no longer in pain.

Mr. Nixon's Complaint.

To the Editors of the Carleton Sentinel.

I have just had an experience of the benefit of a comfortable shed to protect persons from the weather at the siding, called Nixon's siding, on my flat. A year ago last summer we gave the N. B. railway Co. an acre of our best land on the flat, and also the right of way from the main road to the siding, on condition that they would put in a proper shed and platform, and also a building to protect passengers who wished to board the train before the weather, while waiting for the train. This the company positively agreed to do. Well, we have a mobile platform consisting of about half a dozen planks laid down loosely, and we have the whole flat for a waiting room, and the sky for a roof. On yesterday I had a crew of men going to the woods, and we waited two long hours standing in the pelting storm for the train, not getting a word from the company. It was no small damage to me, as I wished to get to Perth station that night to intercept the teams going across the portage to my camp. And I was also expecting a car load of flour, which would be waiting for my arrival. But all the conduct of the N. B. Railway Co. towards us in this place goes to prove the truth of the old adage that Corporations have no souls.

Yours, most respectfully,

D. H. NIXON.

Mr. Charles Jackson, one of our most respected citizens is lying very ill, and but slight hopes are entertained of his recovery. His sons and daughters are around him, and he is surrounded by those who could possibly have come to his aid, but he is alone.

Mrs. G. T. Bartley had her arm broken Tuesday last week. While in the house she tripped and fell, and striking her arm against a chair, had one bone broken near the wrist. Dr. Colter rendered surgical aid.

On Thursday last week Mr. W. B. Wright, foreman of the furniture factory, met with a serious accident. He was attending to some repairs on the roof of the boiler house, and when he was about halfway up, the boiler blew off, and a quantity of water collected in the pipe was thrown against his head, and he was badly injured. He is now in the hospital, and his condition is serious.

A matrimonial boom struck the village last week. The little old reformed rich hearted man, for a while the bachelors' heaven, and the women's hell, was suddenly transformed into a place of peace and harmony. The old man, who had been a bachelor for many years, had finally found a wife. The new wife, who had been a widow for many years, had finally found a husband. The old man, who had been a bachelor for many years, had finally found a wife. The new wife, who had been a widow for many years, had finally found a husband.

The concert last Friday evening was well attended, and the numbers were promptly brought out—not a hitch or a wait in the whole. Notwithstanding the rather unfavorable time of the year, there was a very good audience, and the concert was a great success. The receipts amounted to about $15.50.

Programme:

Chorus, Gay and Happy. Dialogue, "Will come." Herbie Jones, Roy Patterson, Will Handy, Charlie Jones; Recitation, "Up and Doing." Glad Brown, Dialogue, "Eh, David Palmer." There's work enough to do: Violin Duet, Misses Millie and Jessie Baird; Recitation, "The Boy's Speech." Sandra Young; Dialogue, "The Rural Orator." Fred Patterson, John Jackson; Recitation, "The Pet of the House." Freddie Handy; Dialogue, "The Figures." Nine Little Girls; Recitation, "Tory Talk." Annie Hyslop; Solo, "Hose Underneath the Snow." Miss Hattie Burpee; Recitation, "Two Little Tootles." Miss Ketchum, Edna Hays; Dialogue, "Who's There?" Herbie Jones, Willie Handy, Clara Brewer; Dialogue with Tableau, Minnie's Xmas sermon. Ada Smith, Maggie Brewer, Miss Hattie Burpee; Recitation, "A Formal Call." Alice Fitzsimmons; Dialogue, "The Irish Servant." Clara Brewer, John Jackson; Dialogue, "Who on Earth is He?" Grace Phillips, Maud Burpee, Ethel Crilley; Recitation, "The Last Hour." Anna Phillips; Solo, "The Last Hour." Miss Hattie Burpee; Recitation, "The Little Treasure." Rowena Ketchum; Chorus, "And Love Sprang." Miss Jones, teacher of the primary school, played the accompaniment. The Misses Baird had responded to a rapturous encore; Miss Henderson was also encored. The stage with drop curtain and dressing room were well arranged. The tableau at the finale of Minnie's Xmas sermon, was beautifully illustrated with red light and was much admired. The receipts amounted to about $15.50.

Baby One Solid Rash

Ugly, painful, blotched, malicious. No rest by day, no peace by night. Doctor and all remedies failed. Tried CUTICURA. Effect marvellous. Saved his life.

Cured by CUTICURA

Our oldest child, now six years of age, when an infant six months old was attacked with a violent, malignant skin disease. All ordinary remedies failed. We called our family physician, who attempted to cure it, but it spread with almost incredible rapidity, until the lower portion of the little fellow's person, from the middle of his back down to his knees, was one solid rash, ugly, painful, blotched, and malicious. We had no rest by night, no peace by day. Finally, we were advised to try the CUTICURA. The effect was simply marvellous. In three or four weeks a complete cure was wrought, leaving the little fellow's person as white and healthy as though he had never been attacked. In my opinion, your valuable remedy saved his life, and today he is a strong, healthy child, perfectly well, no repetition of the disease having ever occurred.

Boy Covered with Scabs

My boy, aged nine years, has been troubled all his life with a very bad humor, which appeared all over his body in small red blotches, with a dry white scale on them. Using CUTICURA, he was cured. Being covered with scabs from the top of his head to his feet, and continually growing worse, although he had been treated by a physician. As a last resort, I determined to try the CUTICURA. He was cured. He is now a healthy boy, and his skin is as white and healthy as ever. The CUTICURA REMEDY is all you claim for them. They are worth their weight in gold. GEO. F.
