To the Editors of the Carleton Sentinel:

Please allow me space in your valuable ceptable. paper to respectfully ask "Non Resident New Brunswicker" to come out from behind his Monday morning for British Columbia where manfully explain what meaning he intended they will permanently take up their abode.

The Central Railway survey has now that noted sentence to convey in which he reached Gibson. conveyed his humble and wandering thanks to "A. H. S.," for his verses entitled, "To our Country's Traducer"? It reads word for word as follows: "for his manly defence can get it at such a low price it will astonish of the entirely uncalled for, and untruthful you attack made upon the climate, etc., of N. B., only of a "Non Resident's" exalted consideration. The author of that wonderful sentence (which might be described in the words of Milton as: "The palpable obscure"), apof Milton as: "The palpable obscure"), appears to be in great need of the past three years weather's training which N. B. afforded. And also a few months at some of her public schools, where the dreadful woes arising from that composition crime of ambiguity are explained to her pupils.

As one who wants to see fair play on both As one who wants to see fair play on both sides, I wish to say I fail to see where Stead made any defence, as his verses entitled "To our country's traducer" consisted chiefly in personal abuse of Benn's character.

As a resident of New Brunswick and not a foreigner Benn's first verses appear to be a fair but rather extreme description of "New Brunswick weather" up to his date of writing. I do not for one moment question writing. I do not for one moment question A. H. Stead's right to answer traducers of his country, but if he attempts to style any of his fellow-men as such, I at least require him to show on the grounds of reason and not of rude personalities the foundation of his

FREDERICTON TOPICS. Fredericton, April 10.

At the annual auction sale of the St. John River Log Driving Company, last week, Mr. George Tedlie of Hartland, obtained the privilege of driving the logs from up river to within the Fredericton Boom Company's limits at the following rates per thousand feet: From Grand Falls, 15 cents; Salmon River, 3½ cents; Aroostook River, 14 cents; Tobique, 6 cents; Presque Isle ½ cent. The anticipations entertained by the promoters of the Sacred Concert, which was given in the City Hall on Thursday evening given in the City Hall on Thursday evening last, were fully realized as an immense audience was present to bear the excellent programme which was rendered in a manner that well displayed the superior talent of the several performers. The programme consisted of recitatives, solos, trios, quartettes and sextettes, in which the following persons participated: Mrs. John Black, Miss A. L. Lugrin, Miss Stanger, Mrs. Cameron, Mr. W. E. Smith, Mr. Hedley Bridges, Prof. Stokley, Mr. Brist we, Mr. Cadwallader (violin) and the Fredericton Brass Band; the selections of which were a conted in the usual excellent.

Jack Mulheren, the ventrilequist from Woodstock, Allison Cock, the musician and Billy Robson the danger and slugger, have started off on a theatrical tour. They are now giving performances on the North Shore and it is reported are drawing good houses. The last hour on Friday in the Normal School, which is usually devoted to recitations, was occupied last week by additional interesting features consisting of solos, duets, choruses, etc.; the most preminent among choruses, etc.; the most preminent among which were the following: An humorous reading by Mr. W. C. Creed; "Hamlet's Soliloquy," by Mr. Geodwin of the senior class; "a trip to London," by Miss Galt, and a selection from Longfellow's "Evangeline" The sporting men of this city are seriously considering the advisabily of forming an athletic association with a vi-w of organizing a first-class base ball team. Mr. Hawthorne, the chief promoter, has written to "Mike" McLaughlin and Larrebee with ref. rence to procuring an efficient battery and daily expects to hear from them. The Frederictonians are ju'ilant over the announcement made by Sir J bn McDonald

The Frederictonians are paramouncement made by Sir J bn McDonald in the House of Commone, last Friday, to the effect that the government had come to an agreement with the C. P. R. by which the road from Harvey to Salisbury would be built. If that company refuse to build or operate the same, the prospect is that the government will construct and work it in connection with the Intercolonial. Possibly the expectations of the citizens of this city may yet be realized.

J. A. Eiwards of the Queen Hotel, and F. B. Coleman of the Barker House, have been adjudged guilty of the third violation of the Scott Act and sentenced to two months imprisonment in the county jail. This nominally ends the Scott Act trials, all persons having been convicted. Mr. Vanwart applied before the supreme court Tuesday, for rules nisi for certiorari in the cases of Grieves Manzer, Smiler and Crangle.

The grounds taken were 1st, relationship between Police Magistrate and Wesley Nichol, claiming that Wesley Nichol was one of the substantial prosecutors though Policeman Wright was the nominal prose-cutor; 2 1d, that since the amendment of the act in the session of 1888 no prior convictions can be used to make a third offence since the amendment; 3rd, that the magistrate had no power to adjourn his court for more than one day at a time after the first adjournment; 4th, that there could be no conviction in third offence unless the defendants were personally present in court. The court granted rule nisi stating that they would mention hereafter on what grounds. The rules are returnable in June, but will probably not be reached for argument before October and then, perhaps, judgment will be indefinitely postponed. In the meantime defendants will remain at lib.
