What Am I to Do?

The symptoms of Biliousness are unhappily but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhœa or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hemorphoids or even loss of blood. There may be gid diness and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure try Green's August Flower, it costs but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.

A MISTAKEN COMPLIMENT. - Mr. Blunderhed [to fond mother and father] -What remarkable children yours are! Where did they get so much beauty and leverness?

And Blunderhed can't understand why the parents of the remarkable children are cool to him. Most people love to have their children praised.

"Gift Enterprises" seem to be all the rage in the Soap Business, Solicitor to Bank owing to the idea of some manufacturers of geting something out of nothing, if possible. Grocers get 6 boxes for 5 of some kinds, and are offered all sorts of "Nick Nacks" with others, as an inducement to recommend such scaps to
