

Best of All
Cough medicines, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is in greater demand than ever. No preparation for Cough and Lung Troubles is so prompt in its effects, so agreeable to the taste, and so widely known, as this. It is the family medicine in thousands of households.

"I have suffered for years from a bronchial trouble that, whenever I take cold or am exposed to inclement weather, shows itself by a very annoying tickling sensation in the throat and by difficulty in breathing. I have tried a great many remedies, but none does so well as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which I always give prompt relief in return of my old complaint. I am now well and will sell them at cost price. Address him at Benton, La.

"I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a most important remedy."

For Home Use.
I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and it has never failed to cure. It will relieve the most severe attacks of the throat and lungs, whooping cough, croup, and all the ailments of children or adults. Mrs. E. C. Rogers, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

"Twenty years ago I was troubled with a disease of the throat and lungs, which rendered me unable to do my usual work. I tried many remedies, but none did me any good. I then bought a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and after using only three bottles, I was cured. I have since used it in my family, and it has cured many others. I can truly say that it is the best medicine I ever used."—J. H. Johnson, Springfield, Ill.

Dec. 15.—Salomon's Fall. 1 Kings 11: 4-13.

S. J. Parsons, secretary of the N. B. S. S. Association, has just received another lot of reports of the London S. S. Convention, some bound in cloth, others in paper. They cost 75 cents, and 50 cents, respectively, and he will sell them at cost price. Address him at Benton, La.

The December number of Outing is one of the best ever issued. There is a wealth of illustrations of a high grade. Some of Henry Sandham's most striking sketches are shown. The illustrations of Daniel and Hiram, have furnished most beautiful wood engravings. The opening article, "Wabash Among the Y's," is a very interesting and valuable contribution to the knowledge of the Great Lakes, beautifully illustrated. Another very noteworthy article is the "Merits and Demerits of the National Guard," by the eminent authority Lieut. W. R. Hamilton. The criticism will surely call forth much discussion. We note further the "Gleanings of the Year," "The Wheeling through the Land of Emancipation," "Game Protection," a very interesting illustrated article by W. L. Lincoln Adams on "Instantaneous Photography," "Women and their Guns," "The Yule Stroke," "Alligator Shooting in Florida and N. A.," "A Living Sketch," "Our Yule, Snow Sculptor, the Age of Salt," and "A Skating Interlude," are poems of much merit. The editorial department presents a valuable opinion on questions of the day, while the records show what has been accomplished in the various pastimes.

The December Century opens with a series of unpublished letters written by the Duke of Wellington, in his very last days, to a young married lady in England. The letters present the Duke in a very attractive light, and are a most interesting and valuable contribution to the knowledge of the Duke's life. The "Personal Interest" is very strongly continued in Joseph Jefferson's autobiography, which this month covers wide ground and goes into the most interesting details concerning his life.
