The second session was held at Central Southampton, Dec. 27th, and a large delegation was present, notwithstanding the pouring rain and bad roads. President C. W. Taylor and wife and others from Temperance Vale, Campbell Settlement, Maple Ridge, Clark's Corner, Upper and Lower Southampton, and nearly every part of the Parish were represented. S. J. Parsons, of Benton, was with us, and with fresh S. publications, blackboard work, question answering and asking, helped to make the meeting a success. We don't like to boast ourselves, but the visitors say we have one of the best choirs in the County, Miss Grant at the organ. The excellent music contributed to the success of the Convention. The reports from the Sunday Schools of the Parish were most encouraging; no less than five schools reported as keeping open this Winter for the first time, as the direct result of the meeting at Temperance Vale, and most of them meeting at Temperance Vale, and most of them

Southampton Parish S. S. Convention.

Knowing you and your many readers are interested in Sunday School work, I thought to send an item in reference to our Parish Convention. This association was organized last Fall at Temperance Vale, and quite anumber of us went out to the meeting. The Prov. S. S. Secretary, S. J. Parsons, of Benton, and also the Treasurer, W. G. The second session was held at Central Southunder twenty years of age for a murder at murder twenty years of age for a murder at murder which fills the newspapers and forms the most frequent topic of conversation. The frightful murder and mutilation of a little boy at Bradford, last week, with attendant atrocities, copied from the Whitechapel fiend, and which will certainly be fastened upon a local milk-man, was followed by the news of the terrible murder of a little girl in a field close to a village road in Somersetshire with much the same general details. In the same paper which gives two columns to these is another column narrating the hanging of two lads under twenty years of age for a murder at with a gruesome epidemic of murder which Good Reading.—At this time of year when everyone is endeavoring to provide amusing and instructive reading for the fireside, Toronto Saturday Night should be remembered as one of the best written, cleanest and most elaborate ly illustrated papers published in the Dominion. It contains twelve pages of reading matter and pictures, many of which are reproductions of the finest works of art in Europe, while its pages of humorous selections are direct reproductions of the choicest pictures and paragraphs of the English and American comic papers. The publishers challenge the world for an equally attractive illustrated five-cent newspaper. It contains the Family Herald stories which appear simultanequally with their original publication in England, and throughout it is a paper for which every father of a family should subscribe. By special arrangements with the publishers we are Good READING .- At this time of year when Young Ladies if you want a handsome Dress or Jacket, call at R. B.
