The transit of double mercurian by rail through Maine by the C. P. R. Short line was stopped on Saturday by the customs authorities of the United States, as that road had not become a bonded road, the application of the C. P. R. not having been yet acted upon by the United States Government.

Last week a majority of the Fredericton City Council refused to exempt the Fredericton St. Mary's railway bridge from taxation. On Wednesday a special meeting of the council was called to reconsider the motion which was, it was anticipated the motion would carry, but some of the non contents stood away so that there was not a quorum and no business could be done. Mayor Hazen has resigned.

A despatch to the Telegraph, of last Saturday, states that the United States officials in Calais, Me., are enforcing the law in regard to the employment of foreign labor and that some workmen from St. Stephen and other places in New Brunswick had to discontinue work and return to the Province. It is thought the St. Stephen people will retaliate and many persons working in that town who belong to Calais, will be affected.

Wichita, Kansas, was visited on the 7th June by the most severe storm known there for years. The western part of Sedgewick County and the eastern part of Kingman County suffered most, where a space 20 miles long by 5 miles wide was swept over by the cyclone. A farmer named Rogers and all the members of his family were killed. The heavy rain was followed by hail which laid low the grain and fruit crops. In West Sedgewick County many houses and barns and scores of crops were leveled to the ground.

The numerous friends of Mrs. Dowling, wife of the Rev. T. O. Dowling, formerly rector of Douglas, will learn of her death with deep sorrow. Mr. Dowling had lately received an appointment at Algiers from the S. P. C. K. with the hope that the change would benefit his wife's health; but this came too late, as Mrs. Dowling died at Winchester, England, just after the appointment. The deceased was a daughter of the late Sheriff Wells of this city, and was endeared to all who knew her by her sweet-natured disposition. She was buried by the Rev. Edward Medley at St. Dunstons, the Metropolitan at Hursley, England, on the 7th inst.—Fredericton Capital.

Mr. Barker, Mayor of St. John. St. John had an exciting election on Tuesday. The office to be filled that of Mayor—the first of the new and enlarged city. The candidates were C. A. Everett and George A. Barker, both active Conservatives and prominent citizens. The election was precluded by a good deal of newspaper editorial and correspondence in behalf of both gentlemen. The result was that Barker got 2,137 votes and 1,441 Everett, giving the former the place by 686 majority.

Big Gathering Anticipated. The Old Fellows of Fort Fairfield expect to have a grand time on the 25th and 26th of the present month. The lodge in Northern Maine and New Brunswick have been invited and, with the inducement of low rates on the railroad, it is anticipated that there will be a big gathering of members of the order. The different branches, subordinate, encampments and cantons will be represented. Carleton Lodge of Woodstock has been courteously invited, but it is uncertain whether a large delegation from this lodge can go.

Sunlight and Shadow. Great disasters like that at Johnston tend to bring into prominence to the darker and the brighter sides of humanity. Hence upon the one hand is the monstrous selfish disregard for perilous consequences shown by the sporting club of rich men who were proprietors of the badly built and inefficiently protected dam, the breakage of which caused the terrible loss of life and property, and the ghastly kill of the plunders of the dead, on the other hand is to be recorded the heroism of that lady telegraph operator who sacrificed her own life by refusing to leave the instruments until she had conveyed a warning to all the towns on the river which might be in danger; the zeal and promptness and unselfishness with which hundreds became ministers to the needy and bereft ones and searchers for the missing, and then the generous response by individuals, associations and communities, all over the country, to the call for help in money and other necessities.

The Woolen Mill. We are glad to find that our suggestion last week with reference to a woolen mill, meeting with general endorsement. Mr. Harmon writes to the subject and suggests the name of Mr. Henry Connell as a gentleman who is willing to undertake the work if proper encouragement is given him. Mr. Connell would be just the right kind of a man to run such an institution, and we trust he may receive every possible assistance.

Worth a Visit. Now that Mr. Fred. Moore has secured the completion of the "Short Line," his lumber mills are the scene of great activity. As acknowledged to be one of the cleverest of the lumbermen, his remarkable judgment in connection with the getting out of logs and driving them, Mr. Moore seems disposed to deprecate a good name as a manufacturer of the saw. His deal and shingle mills, which we will refer more at large presently, are well worthy a visit.

Weather and Water. As we anticipated last week, the effect of the timely rain fall is seen in reinvigorated vegetation, but the farmers think they have had enough for the present.

The result has not been so conspicuous on the river and streams, the dry and thirsty earth taking the rain as it fell, so that the water has logs in the streams hung up more water. We trust that Providence will gudge the matter so as to suit the best interest of the people.

The big jam at Aroostook Falls has been broken, but the water is so low that the lumber is hung up on the ripe below.

A Successful Carleton Co. Boy. Some 25 years ago Franklin Upton, a son of Col. C. R. Upton, of Florenceville, then a young lad, left his home to seek his fortune abroad. He found his way to Japan and has continued to reside being eminently successful in the successive periods in which he has employed his talent and energy. Yet a young man, only 42 years old, he has still before him presumably many years of active business life. Commanding a fortune he has been an interpreter, a customs appraiser, a trader and a merchant ship owner.

On Saturday last accompanied by his wife and children, Mr. Upton returned to Florenceville, this being the first visit to his old home since he left it a quarter of a century ago. It will have been a happy meeting and a pleasant surprise to all who longed to see him. Mr. Upton will find the aspect of the country in many respects greatly changed since he left, and generally improved. His present residence is in Korea, for which he leaves after a short visit, returning via England and India.

Personal. Mr. J. B. Stevenson, Arthurville, was in town Tuesday.

Father Carney, Debo, made a pleasant call Wednesday.

Miss Emma Raymond, who has been residing in Boston since last November, returned home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Woodworth, of Grandville, N. S., reached here Wednesday, preparing an indefinite visit.

Mr. George Stuckey, Brighton, left on Wednesday evening for an extended trip through several States of the neighboring Union.

S. J. Parsons and B. Kilburn left this morning to take steamer from New York, to attend the world's Sabbath School Convention at London, to which they are delegates. J. W. Byer leaves in a few days on the same mission.

The Sociable. The sociable of the season was held at the residence of Mr. John Fisher on the evening of the 6th inst. The attendance was very large, and all present passed a very enjoyable evening. The house from ground floor to attic, and even to the piazza, was brilliantly illuminated with the incandescents, and presented a fairy like appearance. The refreshments provided, ice cream, etc., were fully appreciated, as was also the musical and literary programme. Your reporter is not a musical critic, but from the evident pleasure the audience derived from the place presented, he concludes that the programme must have been excellently rendered. Particularly noticeable was the quartette, rendered more difficult from being sung without any instrumental accompaniment; the different parts were well sustained and the effect was fine. Mr. W. Saunders performed his part of chairman well, and the proceeds of the sociable, to go to the funds of the A. I. St. Stephen Baptist Church, amounted to $26.

The following was the programme: Piano duet, Overture from Tancréd, Miss Fisher and Mr. Lett; Reading by Mr. Charlton; Song, "Ist him down a crank," Harry Smith; Quartette, Ome where the hills bloom, Misses Shaw and Fisher, Messrs. Barnham and Lett; Song, Art thou near, Miss M. Henderson; Song, "Cried on a Heath," Mr. Harry Smith; Reading, by Mr. Chas. McClellan; Song, "Song that spoke my heart," Mrs. More; Song, "Two roses," Mr. H. R. Roxy; Last, Gales Ajaz, Dr. Hand and Mr. J. O. Hartley.

Woodstock Again Victorious. In response to a challenge issued a couple of weeks ago by the Clippier base ball club of Fredericton, and accepted by the Woodstock base ball club of Woodstock, the former club arrived in town at noon on Wednesday, and the match game took place in the Driving Park, commencing at 2:40, and resulted in favor of the home team by a score of 18 to 10, with an innings to spare. A goodly number of spectators were present, and a large gathering of ladies, which is as it should be, and which encourages the players and adds interest to the contest. From the start it was plain to be seen that Woodstock would have an easy victory, as Mackey, the Fredericton young pitcher, threw a perfectly straight, although pretty swift ball, and one which would be batted easily if it did before the game was ended, his back stop, Joseph Hayes, is a splendid one for that position. Our batter is a good one, and one that did good work; Baker, as catcher, "did himself proud," while his partner, Ganong, threw so many puzzling curves that the Fredericton boys could not strike him, although, as yet, he has not all of his command of the ball, which give the visitors a number of bases on balls and on being struck by ball, with practice, he will be a day or two better to the fifth innings to be a tie score, but, and Woodstock played as they liked and won easily. The following are the players who were in the game: J. O. Hartley, C. Thompson, C. McGinn, W. Miller, J. A. Thompson, C. Jones, H. Neale, J. Lockhart; Catcher, M. Henderson; First base, J. A. Thompson; Second base, J. A. Thompson; Third base, J. A. Thompson; Short stop, J. A. Thompson; Outfield, J. A. Thompson; Pitcher, J. A. Thompson.

The quarterly meeting of the Denary of Woodstock took place at New Brunswick on Wednesday, June 5. There were present a large number of delegates. There was service in St. Andrew's Church at 11 a. m., with morning prayer and a celebration of the Holy Communion. Two interesting features in the service were the instructive address in English, preached by the Rev. N. M. Hansen, from St. Luke X: 20, and the excellent and hearty singing in Danish of the physics and other parts of the service by the choir. The Chapter met for business at the Rectory, at 5 p. m. adjourned to Grand Falls, where a service was held at 7:30 p. m., and a sermon preached by Rev. J. E. Fawcett on the subject of Baptism. In addition to their business sessions, the Rev. Canon Neale was elected as Rural Dean, and Rev. L. A. Hays Denary representative to the Board of Home Missions. The next meeting takes place at Edmundston on September 1st.

Carleton Co. Grammar School. As the time set for the examination of pupils who wish to enter the Grammar School is near at hand, we would call the attention of Carleton Co. pupils to the qualifications necessary for entrance, and to the facilities for obtaining a thorough fundamental education preparatory either for business or college. Pupils who have completed standard VIII in Graded Schools, and those who have advanced beyond Standard IX in ungraded schools, having studied in English, chemistry, will find no difficulty in writing the papers. In teaching candidates will find much more satisfying in preparing themselves at the regular time—18th and 19th inst.—instead of postponing examination till the beginning of next term. Classes will be formed in the various subjects on Standard IX. Business arithmetic is made a special feature of the school. Pupils intending to go to Normal School and teachers desirous of advancing their class of license, will find many advantages. Many pupils from Carleton have in the past sought education in other parts of the Province. This being a county inhabited by people who have to provide at home such advantages as may be obtained elsewhere, and thus retain pupils near home until prepared for college. Last year one pupil from this school matriculated at the University of N. B. This year another candidate presented herself for that examination, besides others who are preparing to enter the regular course of studies. It is to be hoped that a large number from the county will avail themselves of the advantages which this school now offers, and thus be able to complete the regular course of studies. It is to be hoped that many of the county schools are represented at the approaching examinations.
