Medicine for Throat and Lung Difficulties has long been, and still is, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It cures Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and Asthma; soothes irritation of the Larynx and Fauces; strengthens the Vocal Organs; always cures the Croup of Infants; prevents Consumption, and even in advanced stages of that disease, relieves Coughing and induces Sleep. There is no other preparation for diseases of the throat and lungs to be compared with this remedy.

"My wife had a distressing cough, with pain in the side and breast. We tried various medicines, but none did her any good until I got a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has cured her. A neighbor, Mrs. Glenn, had the same, and the cough was relieved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have no hesitation in recommending this Cough Medicine."

"To every one afflicted,"—Robert Horton, Foreman Hendricks, Meriden, Ark. "I have been afflicted with asthma for forty years. Last spring I was taken with a violent cough, which threatened to terminate my days. Every one pronounced me in consumption. I determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Its effects were magical. I was immediately relieved and continued to improve until I was completely recovered."—J. H. Bullard, Guilford, Conn.

"For children afflicted with colds, coughs, sore throat, or croup, I do not know of any remedy which will give more speedy relief than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have found it also invaluable in cases of Whooping Cough."—Ann Lovejoy, 1237 Washington Street, Boston, Mass.

Reformed Baptists.

(Official Report)

The "Reformed Baptists" held their first yearly meeting or "Alliance" as they have named it, in this town.

It began on Wednesday afternoon June 26th, at 2 1/2 p. m.

There were present of ministers in connection with the denomination, Revs. Wm. Kinghorn,

G. T. Hartley, G. W. McDonald,

B. Collette, J. H. Coy, Jno. Gravinor, G. B.

Traflet, W. B. Wiggins, A. Hartt, S. A.

Baker, and H. H. Cowan, of N. B. and Rev. A. Kinney, of N. S., and Rev. B.

Noble of Hamilton, Me., Revs. J. N.

Noble and F. H. Babar of Lincoln, Me., and

Rev. G. M. Park of Freque Isle Me., all

Free Will Baptists. And about 50 delegates from various parts of N. B. and N. S., besides others who came to attend the meetings.

The first day was spent in earnest prayer for Divine wisdom to direct in all matters coming before the Alliance; and religious services were held each day as follows:

Early morning prayer at 6, prayer and testimony and altar service at 10 a. m. and 2 30 p. m. except Thursday and Friday afternoons, and preaching at 8 p. m. except Friday evening. Thursday morning, at 8, the Alliance met for business and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, Rev. A. Kinney; vice president,

Rev. W. B. Wiggins; recording sec., Rev.

Jno. Gravinor; asst. sec., Simon McLeod; cor. sec., B. N. Goodspeed; treas., E. H. A.

Cowan. The various committees were then appointed and work began. The most important committee was that having charge of the "Treatise of Faith," "Church Covenant," and "Directory." Constitution, by laws, etc.

They have finished part of their work and will soon publish the "Treatise of Faith,"

Covenant and Directory. Other committees have charge of the hymn book for the use of the denomination,—a denominational paper, mission work, conventions, etc. In the afternoon the Corresponding Secretary,

B. N. Goodspeed of Newburg, read his report which was very cheering and most excellent. Some of the facts brought out were that during the seven months of the denomination's existence there had been organized 18 churches in N. B. and 4 in N. S.—in all

22. That some of the churches had more than doubled their numbers since their organization as when organized they numbered about 40, but now over 80 and one nearly 100. Almost all had Sabbath Schools with attendance of about 700 scholars and 100 teachers. The spiritual state of the churches was real good and all were hopeful of greater blessings the coming year. There were also several new church buildings in course of construction. Rev. G. W. McDonald moved its addition and Rev. J. H. Coy, seconded it in earnest address. Revs. B. Minard, F.

H. Babar and J. N. Noble addressed the meeting.

Friday afternoon was devoted to the hearing of delegates and correspondence from other religious bodies. Revs. F. H. Babar and J. N. Noble represented Hulton Quarterly meeting, and Rev. G. M. Park, Aroostook Quarterly meeting. Greivings were also received from the Presbyterian brethren (Galt, Ont.), who have been lately excluded from their denomination for conscience sake; also communications were received from the West and from Southern California.

Friday evening was given to missions.

Rev. G. W. McDonald presided. Mrs. A. I.

Babar read a very cheering and excellent report of what the ladies were doing on that line after which there were excellent missionary speeches made by Revs. A. Kinney, W.

B. Wiggins and the Misses and Mrs. S. Mc-Leod and Mrs. H. Seely. It was clearly seen that the denomination was permeated with the missionary spirit and they intend to put two or more missionaries into the field soon, in fact they have one now already at work.

The services on Sunday were deeply impressive, and large congregations were present, especially in the evening when the spacious audience room of the Reformed

Baptist Church was almost filled with a very attentive audience of probably 700 or 800.

The order of services for the Sabbath were:

Prayer meeting at 6 a. m., Love feast at 9 a. m., when so prompt were the testimonies that 100 gave witness to the cleansing efficacy of the blood of Christ, in 15 minutes; and at the close of the service a large number stood thus indicating their desire to testify had there been time. At 11 a. m. there was preaching by Rev. G. M. Park of Freque Isle, Me., from 1 John 1:7, together with Heb. 9:22 and Rev. 12:11. It was a very excellent sermon on the necessity and cleansing power of the blood of Christ. He is an earnest and eloquent speaker and was listened to with pleasure.

In the afternoon the Sabbath School had the session when over 200 were present in the classroom after which at 3.30 there was a social service and the communion, when a large number thus remembered their Lord.

In the evening at 7, Rev. F. H. Babar of Linneus, Me., gave an excellent discourse from 1 Thes. 3:25. After which Rev. G.

W. McDonald, pastor of the Woodstock church, gave the right hand of fellowship to two members. Then four ministers coming from other denominations were admitted into the denomination thus becoming "Reformed Baptist ministers." The service was solemn and impressive. Rev. W. B. Wiggins examined in regard to their christian experience, and called to the ministry, and doctrine. Rev. A.

Kinney, president of the Alliance, gave them the bond of fellowship and charge, and Rev.

E. Collette offered prayer.

On Monday the business was concluded when the Alliance adjourned to meet in St.

John on the Wednesday following the 4th Sunday in June, 1890. There was also an all day Holiness meeting, Rev. J. H. Coy preaching the closing sermon in the evening from Isa. 53:11, after which all knelt asking God's wisdom and grace for the ensuing year's work. Thus closed the first and most important yearly gathering of this new denomination. Many important questions were considered and debated but always in a Christian spirit.

The spiritual good of the people was kept prominently in view, and business was secondary. Hence while some were doing business others were offering prayer for wisdom to direct them; testifying of the power of the blood of Jesus to save from all sin; or leading souls to Christ for pardon or full salvation. Many got help and the utmost good feeling and harmony prevailed.

I forgot to mention that the collection on Sunday afternoon before the communion amounted to about $65.
