To be sure-so it is-and I'm going to sing, Not the tunes that the regular poets rehearse In ridiculous verse. I've nothing of winds aromatic to say, Nor pansies, nor tulips, nor hyacinthe gay. I live in the city, And discover no pretty Green leaflet or bud

Sticking out of the mud; Nor do I hear warble of black bird or blue; Yet I know it is Spring just as well as you do. Ay, I know it too well, for it's all spring for me From long before breakfast till long after tea. I spring with the mate and the rug out-of-doors spring to the carpets-drag them from the floors; I spring to the carpets—drag them from the hoors;
I spring up step ladders and wash down the walls;
I spring to the windows, I spring to the halls;
I spring to each corner, each closet, each nook;
I spring to each dust-laden picture and book;
I spring to the garret, where cobwebs abound; I spring to the garret, where cooweds abound;

spring (if I may be allowed the expression) to the cellar, half-way underground;

I spring—but, good gracious! to tell everything
I spring at would take me the whole of the Spring.

Mr. Alex. Moore, Mechanics' Settlement, New Brunswick, says: I am going on 75 years of age, and had very little hopes of anything to relieve my Catarrh. Seeing Nasal Balm advertised, I sent to you for a package. It has done me a great deal of good. I enclose you $2 for a further supply, part of which I intend giving to an afflicted friend. I advise all sufferers from Catarrh to use Nasal Balm.

Hanford Welhampter, Bloomfield, N B., writer: I wish to inform you that I have been a sufferer from Catarrh for a long time, and have continually tried so-called Remedies and Catarrh Curest but all to no purpose At last I heard of Nasa Balm and was induced to try that. To my astonishment I found relief from first aplication, and now after two weeks use feel myself PERFECTLY and THOROUGHLY cured.

Abram Grant, Grant P. O., Westmoreland, N. is certainly the best remedy I have tried and all B., writes: My daughter has used one Bettle of you claim for it. The fact that it is pleasant and Nasal Balm, and it helped her Catarrh, wonderfully. It gives general satisfaction in this reighthorhood.
