It proved rather a "sour pickle," for a more unsuitable appointment could scarcely be imagined. While perhaps, there may possibly be public faces for which Mr. Kay may be specially fitted, that of Road Surveyor is certainly not included in the leth, but is not yet able to leave his number. The appointment proved to be as we all expected it would, a farce. In view of this fact you may imagine our feelings when on reading the report above referred to, we found we were again treated to the same "old pickle." and that too after the matter had been discussed before the whole Board.
