Poetry.

(For the Carleton Sentinel) In Memory of Mrs. Clara Colonny.

(Lines written on the death of Mrs. Clara Colomy, who died at her residence at South leton County, N. B.)

Dear Clara's sufferings are all o'er, Her gentle voice is stili; A place is vacant in our bearts That never can be filled.

The messenger of death bas come And bore her home to God; We feel it hard to say "Thy will," And bow beneath the rod.

She knew the end was drawing near, She knew she would happy be; Her Saviour will meet her with a smile Beyond the crystal sea. Farewell then. our darling Clara, If wit the work of life is o'er.

I wen we all shall meet together

Over on the golden shore.
