Woodstock, May 8, 1889.—43. JACOB VANWART, PROPRIETOR.

Hoetry.

In Memory Of the late Deacon Israel Churchill, who died a Woodstock, Carleton Co., April 26th, 1890. And can it be dear father's gone,

The one we did so love;

Has he exchanged the scenes of earth For brighter ones above? And shall we see his face no more, Nor hear his gentle voice? How glad would we've kept him here

Could we have had our choice. We are very sad and lonely now, And have been since that day, When, to the sad and silent grave, We followed him away.

We are thinking of that solemn hour When, standing 'round his bed, We watched his ebbing tide of life As from earth his spirit fled. How of the warm and gushing tears Flow down our cheek so fast

As we call back unto our minds Scenes of the happy past. And think we ne'er shall meet on earth, Our hearts are pierced with pain, Although we know our earthly loss

Will be his heavenly gain. We know that God has but recalled The soul that he has given, And, though the casket moulders here, Our father is in heaven.

And, from that land of untold bliss, Free from all worldly stain, We would not, if we had the power, Recall him back again.

Since he has left a world of toil And free from every care,
Why should we wish him back again
To earthly trouble share?

So we will say "Farewell, dear father, Though hard to give thee up." Help us, Oh Lord, we humbly pray, To bear the bitter cup. Help us, Oh Lord, to do thy will, While we are here below, That, when our work on earth is done, We may with pleasure go.

Go to that land of perfect bliss, Where dearest father's gone, To jain the ransomed of the earth in our eternal home. Bristol, May 25th, 1890.
