Scaly Skin Diseases

Psoriasis 3 years, covering face, head, and entire body with white scabs, skin red, itchy, and bleeding. Hair all gone. Spent hundreds of dollars. Pronounced incurable. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

Cured by Cuticura

My disease (psoriasis) first broke out on my left cheek, spreading across my nose, and almost covering my face. It ran into my ears, and the physicians were afraid I would lose my eyesight altogether. It spread all over my head, and my hair all fell out, until I was entirely bald headed; it then broke out on my arms and shoulders, until my arms were just one sore. It covered my entire body, my face, head and shoulders being the worst. The white scabs fell constantly from my head, shoulders, and arms; the skin would thicken and be red and very itchy, and would crack and bleed if scratched. After spending many hundreds of dollars, I was pronounced incurable. I heard of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using two bottles CUTICURA RESOLVENT, I could see a change; and after I had taken four bottles, I was almost cured; and when I had used six bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT and one box of CUTICURA, and two cakes CUTICURA SOAP, I was cured of the dreadful disease from which I had suffered for five years. I thought the disease would leave a very deep scar, but the CUTICURA REMEDIES cured it without any scars. I cannot express with a pen what I suffered before using the CUTICURA REMEDIES. They saved my life, and I feel it my duty to recommend them. My hair is restored as good as ever, and so is my eyesight. I know of others who have received great benefit from their use.

MRS. ROSA KELLY, Rockwell City, Iowa.

Election Matters in Victoria County.

To the Editors of the Carleton Sentinel:

Since Baird's resignation, some four or five names have been mentioned as likely candidates, but we have about narrowed down to the old story of Baird and Porter. After calm and thorough survey of the whole field it is now conceded that no man can poll as large a vote as James E. Porter—that is, outside of G. T. Baird. Those of us who are far from regarding Mr. Porter as infallible and perfect have come to the sure and fixed conclusion that if any man can beat G. T. Baird, that man is James E. Porter. This conclusion was reached only after a searching and honest consideration was given to the prospects of other probable candidates. Porter comes out as a strong opponent of the Elair Government. The intelligent ratepayers of the County are hoping that no "free rum" will be sanctioned by either of our temperance candidates. If it is to play the part it did in the last election, then men of conscience wish to know it.

OBSERVER.

IN MEMORIAM.

From The Aroostook Republican.

Died in Mapleton, May 7th, at the residence of her son, Jerry Bull, Mrs. Eunice Beckwith Bull, aged 89 years, 7 months and 27 days.

Mrs Bull was the oldest of a family of three sisters and one brother. Her parents came from Nova Scotia when young people and settled in Majorfield N. B., where she was born. She was married in Chatham, Mirimichi, when 19 years old making one of a triple wedding,—her two sisters being married at the same time.

She came to Aroostook about 68 years ago and, at that time, her husband's was the only settlement above the Aroostook bridge at Presque Isle. When tired of riding in the boat, she would take her baby in her arms and walk along the rough shores.

For three months she did not hear a woman's voice, then a squaw came down the river, singing as she paddled her canoe, and Mrs. Bull often said that that song was the sweetest music she ever heard. She was a woman of rare forethought and energy. At one time, when her husband was away in the logging camp, a very heavy snow storm came on. The most of the hay was in a barn upon the island, while a newer, stronger structure stood upon the main land. With the aid of two small boys and a yoke of oxen she moved the hay, and, as she came up the bank with the last load, the barn on the island crashed in with the weight of snow.

At the time she came to Aroostook, all trading had to be done at Woodstock, N. B. There were no stores, no mills, no post-office nearer! Once she had very narrow escape in the rips below Aroostook Falls. She was going to Woodstock, with wool to card, and grain to grind, in company with a neighbor. She had a young baby with her, which as it was near evening, she had wrapped in a heavy cloak, and that saved its life when the boat upset, for it kept the child from sinking. Mrs. Bull was wedged between the boat and the rocks, in such a way that the waves kept dashing over her, while the force of the current pushed the boat so hard against her that it required the strength of three men to hold it back, so that she could be pulled out. She was unconscious, but the first words she said on recovering were, "Where is my baby?" That baby was Mrs. Wilder Stratton now living in Presque Isle, and it happened 64 years ago in June. She reached Woodstock safely, but she lost every thing in the boat, and her body was black and blue for days.

Her life has been filled with unselfish, loving acts of kindness, and although she was not in the habit of making frequent visits, those who knew her best will remember her worth and cherish her memory.

The night before she died she prayed for each one of her children calling them all by name.

She had 14 children—8 of whom are still living,—50 grand children and 27 great grand children. She had her senses until the last. When asked if she was ready to go, she said calmly, "I am ready and willing My work is done, and well done. I have always been poor, but I have tried to live a good life."

What more can be said? If she herself could say that her life work was well done, we can add no higher tribute.

Rev. Mr. Park preached from the text which she herself had marked:

"Write, blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth. Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them."

The Angel of death no terror brought,
As with the setting sun,
He came to claim a life that was fraught
With loving deeds well done.
Wealth of the soul is not made by gold.—
That which our Master asks
Is a loving heart, and a faith untold,
To battle with Life's tasks.
Blessed are they who can hear the call,
When this earthly race is run,
With calmness that death cannot appall,
"I'm ready,—my work is done."

"Girls Running Wild"

All the season it has been a wonder where the "Running Wild" Co., secured so many attractive young ladies. Well it was a hard matter but they finally succeeded not only in possessing pretty faces but talented artists. During the past nine months the play has been rendered in all the leading cities of the United States crowding the opera houses nightly, and as the New York World adds —"It was written to make you laugh and its mission has been achieved." The present outlook denotes a crowded house at the Rink to night (Saturday). Seats now on sale at Garden Bros.

Wonders

Are wrought by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor in restoring gray hair to its original color, promoting a new growth, preventing the hair from falling, keeping it soft, silky, and abundant; and the scalp cool, healthy, and free from dandruff or humors. The universal testimony is that this preparation has no equal as a dressing, and is, therefore, indispensable to every well-furnished toilet.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for some time and it has worked wonders for me. I was troubled with dandruff and was rapidly becoming bald; but since using the Vigor my head is perfectly clear of dandruff, the hair has ceased coming out, and I now have a good growth, of the same color as when I was a young woman. I can heartily recommend any one suffering from dandruff or loss of hair to use Ayer's Hair Vigor as a dressing."—Mrs. Lydia O. Moody, East Pittston, Me.

"Some time ago my wife's hair began to come out quite freely.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

not only prevented my wife from becoming bald, but it also caused an entirely new growth of hair. I am ready to certify to this statement before a justice of the peace."—H. Hulsebus, Lewisburgh, Iowa.

"Some years ago, after a severe attack of brain fever, my hair all came out. I used such preparations for restoring it as my physicians ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The last remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think I used eight bottles in two years; more than was necessary as a restorative, but I liked it as a dressing, and have continued to use it for that purpose. I believe Ayer's Hair Vigor possesses virtues far above those of any similar preparation now on the market."—Vincent Jones, Richmond, Ind.

FARMERS BEWARE!

OF the men who wish to take your orders for Western Fruit Trees, as the experience of half a century teaches us that they will not thrive in our climate. You all know that thousands of dollars are sent out of the Country every year for foreign trees, and yet how many of you can point out a good bearing Orchard grown from them. It is a well established fact that the only trees which can be successfully grown here are those which have been raised in some of our local nurseries and are therefore inured to the climate.
