Positively Cures

Catarrh.

A Cold in the Head may be aptly termed a danger signal warning you that if neglected that danger ous and disagreeable disease. Catarrh is sure to follow, perhaps leading to Consumption and the grave. At no season of the year is Cold in the Head more prevaled than during the Spring months, and at no other season do the people of this country suffer more generally from Catarrh, with all its disagreeable and armoying effects. Do not for an instant neglect either of these troubles, but apply NASAL BALM, the only remedy that will give instant relief and effect a thorough cure. The following testimories from a month beyond in our possession hear granters to the starting marity. - VICE-PRESIDENT Head Office, - Halifax, N. S.

Wm L. Lucas, Dempsey Corners, N. S., writing for a second supply of Nasal Balm says: On Sept. Mr. Alex. Moore, Mechanies' Settlement,
New Brunswick, says: I am going on 75 years of age, and had very little hopes of anything to relieve my Catarrh. Seeing Nasal Balm advertised, I sent to you for a package. It has done me a great deal of good. I enclose you $2 for a further supply, part of which I intend giving to an afflicted friend. I advise all sufferers from Catarrh to use Nasal Balm.

Hanford Wolhsup'er, Bloomfield, N B., writer:
I wish to inform you that I have been a sufferer from Catarrh for a long time, and have continually tried so-called Remedies and Catarrh 'Oures, but all to no purpose At lest I heard of Nasal Balm and was induced to try that. To my aston ishment I found relief from first aplication, and now after two weeks use feel myself PERFECTLY and THOROUGHLY cured.

D. S. McDonald, Mabou, C. B., writes: Nasal Balm has helped my Catarrh very much. It is the best remedy I ever used.

Abram Grant, Grant P. O., Westmoreland, N. B. writes: My daughter has used one Bottle of Nasal Balm, and it helped her Catarrh, wonderfully. It gives general satisfaction in this reighborhood.

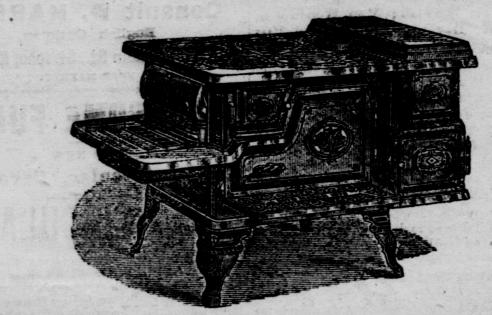

James H. McLeod, Mink River Road, N. S. says: I have tried other remedies for Catarrh, but received no good for them. Your Nasal Balm is certainly the best remedy I have tried and all you claim for it. The fact that it is pleasant and convenient to use adds greatly to its value, but i's chief we there we have a certain cure for that unpleasant disease—Catar h. D. S. McDonald, Mabou, C. I wonder if one of the inner rooms would not be inner rooms would the inner rooms would not be more cheerful?'

Cassy!' cried Harmon Dupont; and then silence fell.

At last he turned to Vera ghastly pale but with a fine sneer upon his lips; he knew there was not the ghost of a chance for him.

Your ability for dramatic effect is worthy of praise,' he said. 'I congratulate you both.'

All in a Heap.

Malarial fever left me in a terrible state, with boils breaking out on my head and face. I was too weak to work or even walk, but after taking a bettle of Burdock Blood Bitters I was able to work. The boils all went away in a ble to work. The boils all went away in a bear I give will be without a scar.

Suddenly she was startled by a voice, a man's voice, born on the air from the outer room.

'Come in, Cassy, and don't be a fool! You're drenched now. What do you think I would do to you? You act as if you were afraid of me.'

Vera's heart stood still. Surely the Vera's heart stood still. Surely the voice, a man's voice, born on the air from the outer room.

Vera's heart stood still. Surely the voice was familiar, but not the cold scorn and contempt with which it was intoned. It—could Harmon Dupont speak thus?

A woman's plaintive voice replied:

'It's so dark and ghostly looking, Harmon! I don't see why you brought me would have been tippling again this week. I had some good news from Florida, where I have a little property. I heard that it had increased 500 per cent in value, and I was so glad over the news that I felt I must take a little drop to celebrate the auspicious event, as it were.
