KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

OFFICE OF CHARLES A. SNYDER, BREEDER OF CLEVELAND BAY AND TROTTING BRED HORSES. ELMWOOD, ILL., Nov. 20, 1888.

DR. B. J. KENDALL Co.

Dear Sirs: I have always purchased your Kendall's Spavin Cure by the half dozen bottles, I would like prices in larger quantity. I think it is one of the best liniments on earth. I have used it on my stables for three years.

Yours truly, CHAS. A. SNYDER.

Miscellaneous.

HIS NAME.—Teacher—What is your name, so my?

Boy—Gunn.

"Give me your full name."

"John G. Gunn."

"What is the G. for?"

"Geiyer."

"What do you mean by that?'

"Well, all the boys call me Johnny Getyer gun, anyhow."

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP" for children teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP" for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP" and take no other kind.

A PRESENT.—She—George, you will have to give me $12 00 to pay the grocer's last bill with.

He—Why, how's that, my dear? I thought I always gave you money enough.

She—Well, you see, I had to take the grocer's money to pay for the handsome umbrella I'm going to give you for Xmas.

C. C. RICHARDS & Co.

Gents,—We consider MINARD'S LINIMENT the best in the market and cheerfully recommend its use.

How VERY UNKIND.—"Dear me! Dear me!' said Miss Bostonbred, laying down the paper she had been reading, with a shocked expression. "Here is a low and harrowing account of a party of cannibals who killed and ate several American missionaries! How very, very rude and uncultured those cannibals must be?"

What Am I to Do?

The symptoms of Biliousness are unhappily but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhœa or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure try Green's August Flower, it costs but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.

Peacemaker—I wouldn't fight, my good men.

First Combatant—He called me a liar, sir.

Second C.—And he called me a lazy loafer.

Peacemaker—Well, I wouldn't fight over a difference of opinion; you both may be right.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 149, Powder's Block, Rochester, N. Y.

Mistress—Are these the apples I sent you to get?

Servant—They are that same.

M.—Why have you bitten them all?

S.—Sure, mum, ye told me to get nothin' but good atin' apples, an' I tasted ivery wan iv thim; an what wid the grane wans an' the wormy wans, I'm like to die?

"Gift Enterprises"

seem to be all the rage in the Soap Business, owing to the idea of some manufacturers of getting something out of nothing, if possible. Grocers get 6 boxes for 5 of some kinds, and are offered all sorts of "Nick Nacks" with others, as an inducement to recommend such soaps to their trade.

It is a well known fact, however, that a genuine article in this day of competition pays no fancy profits. WELCOME SOAP represents this class of goods, and demonstrates the value of quality in manufacture, which is the only guarantee of a pure and legitimate washing quality.

OUGHT TO SEE THE OTHER BOY.—Mrs. Smitem—Bobby, you bad boy, have you been fighting with Tommy Slimson again? Dear, dear! I shall have to get you a new suit.

Bobby—That's nothing, ma. You ought to see Tommy Slimson. His ma may have to get a new boy.

Behring Sea

Contains the great seal of the American Republic, and Burdock Blood Bitters contains the virtues of roots, barks and herbs from our fields and forests, making a wonderful remedy for constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness, bad blood, scrofula and all skin diseases.

This is how an Ohio paper prints a marriage notice:—

"Mr. William Jones, of Malta Township, aged 83 passed peacefully away on Tuesday last from single blessedness to matrimonial bliss, after a short, but sudden, attack by Alice Blossom, a blooming widow of 35."

Torments of Toothache.

I can recommend Hagyard's Yellow Oil as a sure cure for toothache. I suffered for several days, then I heated my cheek and rubbed the Yellow Oil on it and was immediately relieved.

MRS DAVID G ARNOTT, Russel, Man.

ABOUT CREDIT.—Mrs. Wickwise—If a woman was given the credit she deserves, I don't think man would be quite so prominent in the world's history.

Mr. Wickwise—I guess you are right. If she could get all the credit she wanted, he'd be in the poorhouse.

Be sure and call at R. B. Porter & Co.'s this week and see their new dress materials. They have marked them at astonishing low prices. The sale is going on.

Little Charlie was eating pie, while his hungry brother Willie was looking on wistfully. After Charlie finished the last piece he burst out crying. "What are you crying for, Charlie?" asked his mother. "'Cause there ain't no pie left for poor dear little Willie."

Don't let prejudice pick your pocket, don't let doubt do you out of a deal. Those who try will always buy of R. B. Belyea & Co.

The 17-year-old daughter of Rev. Sam. P. Jones, the evangelist, has eloped with and married a stenographer.

A lady tells the Christian Advocate that she heard a colored preacher say: "De fo part of de hind quar can be sole for part if de fo part persist in standing befo de hind part, to de great obsclusion of de hind part by de fo part."

The best stock, the newest styles, and the lowest prices in clothing, at Hugh Hay's.

COULD TRY.—He — Now, that you have made me the happiest of mortals, can I kiss you?

She (from Boston)—Never having any personal experience of your osculatory abilities, Mr. Gesner, I do not know if you can but you may.

Department of Railways and Canals.

Mr. L. D Dion, a prominent official of the above department, Ottawa, writes:—I am very glad to give you to-day the testimony that Nasal Balm has completely cured my catarrh, from which I suffered for nearly three years.

Aunt Mabel (to niece)—And did you win any prizes at your school commencement, Clara?

Clara (demurely)—Yes auntie; young Mr. Smith, on our way home, asked me to marry him.

First Help for the Wounded

In all cases of wounds, bruises, sores, cuts and sprains prompt action is necessary and the wisdom of those who keep Hagyard's yellow Oil on hand is demonstrated. It is a prompt, effectual and reliable cure for all injuries, croup, rheumatism, sore throat, etc. Used internally or externally.

Widow Bullion (to young Greathopes, engaged to her daughter)—Oh, his loss is so hard to bear!

Greathopes (who has been studying up consolatory phrases)—Yes; but we must remember that his loss is our eternal gain.

For bargains in Beaver, Bear, Coon, Bison, Wolf, Dog and Goat Coats, go to Hugh Hay's.

"How about the hip pocket?" inquired the tailor.

"I want it large enough for a pocket pistol," said the customer.

"Yes, sir; Kentucky, sir, or Maine?"

R. B. Porter & Co.'s cheap sale is drawing great crowds of purchasers.

Ted—Was it hard to tell Miss Prim you loved her?

Ned—Not very. The hard part came in a month later, when I had to tell her I had made a mistake.

If you want a custom made suit or overcoat don't fail to call on Hugh Hay.

Coughs, Colds, Croup.

Allen's Lung Balsam was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the Lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes the secretions and purifies the blood; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Allen's Lung Balsam will prevent it if only taken in time. For Consumption, and all diseases that lead to it, such as Coughs, neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma and all diseases of the Lungs. ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup and Whooping Cough it is almost a specific. It is an old standard remedy, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced COUGH CURE. If you have not tried the Balsam, call for a 25-cent bottle to test it.

MANHOOD

How Lost, How Restored!

Just published, a new edition of

Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay

on the radical cure of SPERMATORRHŒA or incapacity induced by excess or early indiscretion.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of early error may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.
