A goodly delegation is expected from Houlton, Fredericton, Presque Isle, etc. The Grand March, led by Mayor Dibblee, will be played by Robinson's orchesta; James Brown will act as prompter; and we have no hesitation is predicting that the second annual ball of the O, R. T. will be a grand success. Tickets can be obtained at Garden Bros Drug Store.

I had pursued a well defined policy on the stumpage. Neither this house nor this stumpage question, and then within ten days had abandoned the policy, I think that it would now come with a very poor grace from me to get up and assail almost, if not quite—certainly quite in sentiment—half the membership of this house as a lot of hypocrites. Look at the position in which the leader of the Government stands to day as
