Merchants of Fredericton Dealt an Unexpected Blow-Queen Hotel and Barker House close their Doors to the Public-Retaliation for the Enforcement of the Scott Act-"Hotel de Scott Act" now the Only First Class Hotel in the City-Four Liquor Dealers in the County Jail-The Apartments Luxuriously Furnished-Feasting Like Lords-Election Protest Papers Serv ed on Messrs. Blair and Wilson-No Truth in the Rumor that they will Resign. Frderieton, May 14, 1890.

Raining hard to day. The rain descended in torrents last night amid heavy peals of thunder. It is rumored that Clara Louise Kellogg will visit this city in a few weeks. Several parties advocate the opening of an hotel at Government House, which has ceased to be an official residence. Miss Clark of the Normal School staff, has been confined to the house through illness occur about that time.

The election to fill the aldermanic vacancy Ald, McKay, will take place on Monday. Send for "How to Cure Skin Diseases," 64 The names of Geo. N. Babbitt, Alex. Black and John Bebbington are mentioned for can-

The Fisk Jubilee Singers were greeted with an immense audience in the City Hall last evening; nearly every available seat was utilized. The entertainment was creditable in every particular.

The particulars in the York election protest proceedings were served upon Messrs.

Boys' White Shirts,

Miss Creighton of St. John, who was taken suddenly ill in her class at Normal School last week, is in a much improved condition. Principal Mullin has advised that she give up her school duties for the remainder of the Hats and Caps,

Mr. Edwards of the Queen Hotel, who was convicted, with Messrs. Manzer, Crangle, Smith, Coleman and Grieves, for a third violation of the Scott Act, all of whom were sentenced to jail for two months, surrendered Cor. Main & Queen Streets. nimself to the authorities on Saturday and is new comfortably esconced in the county jail or rather the "Hotel de Scott Act," as the prisoners have named their apartments. The rooms are elegantly furnished, especially Mr. Edwards, whose apartment is as tastefully fitted up as the best room in the Queen. He has easy chairs, etc., and a telephone to com-municate with his friends in the outside world. The meals served are of a sumptuous harseter, in fact as good as the Queen Hotel could furnish. When the proprietors of the Queen and Barker some time ago an-nounced that the hotels would close to the public this week, but few believed that the threats would be executed. All doubts were nowever dispelled yesterday when permanent the public this morning and will remain so until the proprietors are released from jail. Notices are conspicuously placed in the windows announcing this fact, the blinds are lown and the doors locked. Messrs Coleman and Grieves are still absent from the city and will in all probability remain away. Mr. Edwards denies the statement that the closing of his house is simply in retaliation of the enforcement of the Scott Act. He says the without which the hotel could not be run taneous Process uccessfully. The rush of visitors to the jail is still kept up, the average being nearly a hundred a day, including many ladies and prominent and wealthy citizens. A register, headed "Hotel de Scott Act," has been opened where all visitors record their names, and an usher is in attendance at the door of the prison whose duty it is to show vrsitors to the apartments o' the prisoners. In fact everything is done in first class style and the York County jail might well be termed at present a "firet-clase prison." About fifty employees of the two only first class botels of this city, will be thrown out of employment. The present state of affairs must afford considerable amusement to outsiders us to say the truth, it really is a poor vindication of the Scott Act in this city. l'emperance men ere suprised at the result of this action, and are seking themselves the question "would it not have been better to have if need be repeatedly fined the Scott Act offenders, instead of allowing the jail to practically become a pleasure resort?

I used such preparations for restoring it as my physicians ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists. and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The last remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks, I think I used eight bottles in two years; more than was necessary as a restorative, but I liked it as a dressing, and have continued to use it for that purpose.
