I cannot see, with my small human eight, Why God should lead this way or that for me, I only know He saith, "Child follow Me"; But I can trust.

Wm Chas Harley postmaster, Spry Bay N. I find no answer, often, when beset And often have but strength to faintly parry;

> If ripened fruit for God will there be found; But I can trust. I cannot know why suddenly the storm Should rage so fiercely round me in its wrath; But this I know, God watches all my path, And I can trust.

I often wonder, as with trembling hand

I cast the seed along the furrowed ground,

I may not draw aside the mystic veil That hides the unknown future from my sight, Nor know if for me waits the dark or light, But I can trust.

I have no power to look across the tide, To know, while here, the land beyond the river; But this I know, I shall be God's for ever; So I can truet.
