Inspector McClinteck, Carleton Co SIR, -I see from the reports of the proseedings of the Municipal Council that you have been appointed lospector under the Scott Act. The attention of the public has likewise been called to the upper part of the County, as a district demanding immediate sttention by all friends of the temperance sause. It seems to be a sort of paradise for law breakers-3 place where every man liquor vender and snebeen keeper, does that which is right in his own eyes.

The people of the upper districts are no whit behind their neighbors. At the present moment they are tolerating, and many of them openly countenancing numerous rum helle, unblushingly driving their nefarious traffic, altogether heedless of the ruin that traffic is bringing on the rising generation especially. This has been going on for some time, and no one-Jew, Turk or Infidelseems to care a snap of his finger whether this part of the County is going post haste to the devil or not. Violations of the law are continual and systematic-outrages or public decency incessant-scenes, etc., in our illage streets and on our public roads often disgraceful-while old men and young boys are wasting their means, destroying their health and pursuing that downward grade of diegrace that leads to infamy and a drunk ard's grave.
