Miscellaneous.

OH, HOW NICE.—Old Mr. Widower has been sitting silently alone with Miss Autumn for about 15 minutes. Finally he spoke:—

"Miss Autumn, you are pretty—"

"Oh, Mr. Widower!"

"You are pret—"

"How can you, Mr. Widower?"

"I started to say that you are pretty—"

"Oh, you horrid man, stop!"

"Hang it all, woman," shouted Mr. Widower, rising and breaking for the door, "I wanted to say that you are pretty near as old as I am. Now, I think you're twice as old."

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHING.—"Why, Johnny, are you fighting?"

"Yes'm."

"I am astonished! Have you forgotten all our Sunday School lessons so soon?"

"No, ma'am, I haven't. That's why I'm givin' him a lickin'."

"What do you mean?"

"Didn't you tell us last Sunday somethin' 'bout it's being more blessed to give than to receive."

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP" for children teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP" for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle Be sure and ask for "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP" and take no other kind.

PLAYING WITH POWDER.—He [about to ask for a kiss]—I have an important question to ask you.

She [playfully]—I know what it is, George. You want me to be your wife. Well, take me.

He [rather taken aback]—This is somewhat sudden, isn't it?

She [tenderly]—I don't know, George, whether it is sudden for you or not, but I have waited for it for three years

MESSRS. C. C. RICHARDS & Co.

Dear Sirs—I took a severe cold in February last which settled in my back and kidneys, causing excruciating pain. After using several other preparations and being without sleep four nights through intense suffering, I tried your MINARD'S LINIMENT. After the first application I was so much relieved that I fell into a deep sleep and complete recovery shortly followed.

JOHN S. MCLEOD.

Lawrencetown.

American traveller (on his first visit to European city)—Who is that man in the carriage that everybody's running to see?

Native (proudly)—That is the King.

American traveller (disappointed)—Shucks! Is that all he is? I thought may be that he was some fellow that had just hung a jury.

Don't

let that cold of youre run on. You think it is a light thing. But it may run into catarrh Or into pneumonia, Or consumption

Catarrh is disgusting. Pneumonia is dangerous. Consumption is death itself

The breathing apparatus must be kept clear of all obstructions and offensive matter. Otherwise there is trouble ahead.

All the diseases of these parts, head, nose, throat, bronchial tubes and lungs, can be delightfully and entirely cured by the use of Boschee's German Syrup. If you don't know this already, thousands and thousands of people can tell you. They have been cured by it, and "know how it is themselves." Bottle only 75 cents. Ask any druggist.

A Rochester woman came very near starving to death last week. She had plenty of money in her purse, but in an unlucky moment she put her wallet in her dress pocket, and when she went to look for it to pay for some groceries she couldn't find it. It was several days before she came across it.—

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 820 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y. 26t-e o w-6

Colored Gentleman—Permit me, Miss Simberly, de extreme felicity of presenting my seat.

Miss S—Thanks, kindly, Mr. Johnsing, but don't deprive yourself.

Mr. J—No depravity, ma'am, no depravity at all, I assure you.

"Gift Enterprises"

seem to be all the rage in the Soap Business, owing to the idea of some manufacturers of getting something out of nothing, if possible. Grocers get 6 boxes for 5 of some kinds, and are offered all sorts of "Nick Nacks" with others, as an inducement to recommend such soaps to their trade

It is a well known fact, however, that a genuine article in this day of competition pays no fancy profits. WELCOME SOAP represents this class of goods, and demonstrates the value of quality in manufacture, which is the only guarantee of a pure and legitimate washing quality.

Mrs. Flynn—An' did you get the insurance on yer husband's life, Mrs. McGinty?

Mrs. McGinty—Yis, Mrs. Flynn, but just to think poor Dan had to die just when we would have enjoyed spending it so.

Life Was a Burden,

Until lately I suffered from headache, always preceded by constipation, making my life a burden. A friend advised Burdock Blood Bitters. I took three bottles, and now feel myself a new man, and my headaches are things of the past. A. R. JULIEN, Ottawa, Ont.

Winks—Has your wife a cheerful disposition?

Minks—Oh, yes; very cheerful. Last night when I was dancing around the room on one foot, after having stepped on a tack, she laughed till her sides ached.

Be sure and call at R. B. Porter & Co.'s this week and see their new dress materials. They have marked them at astonishing low prices. The sale is going on.

Soaker—I say, old man, do you suppose they'll have good dinners in the other world.

Poker—I haven't a doubt that you'll get your deserts.

New Satteens and Saccarappa Cloths, Just opened, at R. B. Belyea & Co's.

The Rev. Dr. Primrose—Are you not ashamed to be in a class with boys so much smaller than yourself?

Little Johnnie—Not much, I ain't. I can lick every mother's son of them.—

If you want a custom made suit or overcoat don't fail to call on Hugh Hay.

Dignified Mama—When that young man left you last night, I heard something which sounded like a kiss.

Dignified Daughter—Did you? How does a kiss sound, mama.

Teacher—James, spell weather.

James—W-e-t-h-e-r.

Teacher—Sit down, that will do, for it's the worst spell of weather we have had since last Christmas.

A Pleasing Discovery.

I suffered with neuralgia and obtained no relief until advised to try Hagyard's Yellow Oil Since then I have found it to be an admirable remedy also for burns, sore throat and rheumatism.

MRS F. CAMERON.

"What do you know of the character of this man?" was asked of a witness at a police court the other day.

"I know it to be unbleachable;" was the emphatic reply.

Warns us of approaching danger, a hacking cough warns us of coming consumption. Take time by the forelock and use Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, the surest, safest and best cure for coughs, colds, asthma, hoarseness, bronchitis, and all throat and lung troubles.

"Dr. Brown's position at the hospital is no sinecure," said Jobson.

"You're right; there's been no sign o' cure since he went there, responded Dobson.

GENERATION AFTER GENERATION HAVE USED AND BLESSED IT.

Coughs, Colds, Croup.

Allen's Lung Balsam was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the Lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; cnanges the secretions and purifies the blood; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Allen's Lung Balsam will prevent it if only taken in time. For Consumption, and all diseases that lead to it, such as Coughs, neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma and all diseases of the Lungs. ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup and Whooping Cough it is almost a specific. It is an old standard remedy, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced COUGH CURE. If you have not tried the Balsam, call for a 25-cent bottle to test it.
