The Liver

When out of order, involves every organ of the body. Remedies for some other derangement are frequently taken without the least effect, because it is the liver which is the real source of the trouble, and until that is set right there can be no health, strength, or comfort in any part of the system. Mercury, in some form, is a common specific for a sluggish liver; but a far safer and more effective medicine is Ayer's Pills.

For loss of appetite, bilious troubles, constipation, indigestion, and sick headache, these Pills are unsurpassed.

"For a long time I was a sufferer from stomach, liver, and kidney troubles, experiencing much difficulty in digestion, with severe pains in the lumbar region and other parts of the body. Having tried a variety of remedies, including warm baths, with only temporary relief, about three months ago I began the use of Ayer's Pills, and my health is so much improved that I gladly testify to the superior merits of this medicine."—Manoel Jorge Pereira, Porto, Portugal.

"For the cure of headache, Ayer's Cathartic Pills are the most effective medicine I ever used."—R. K. James, Dorchester, Mass.

"When I feel the need of a cathartic, I take Ayer's Pills, and find them to be more effective than any other pill I ever took."—Mrs. B. C. Grubb, Burwellville, Va.

"I have found in Ayer's Pills, an invaluable remedy for constipation, biliousness, and kindred disorders, peculiar to miasmatic localities. Taken in small and frequent doses, these Pills on the liver, restoring its natural powers, and aiding it in throwing off malarial poisons."—C. F. Alston, Quitman, Texas.

Act Well

"Whenever I am troubled with constipation, or suffer from loss of appetite, Ayer's Pills set me right again."—A. J. Kiser, Jr., Rock House, Va.

"In 1858, by the advice of a friend, I began the use of Ayer's Pills as a remedy for biliousness, constipation, high fevers, and colds. They served me better than anything I had previously tried, and I have used them in attacks of that sort ever since."—H. W. Hersh, Judsonia, Ark.

Miscellaneous.

"Yes," said the dear girl, "poor mamma is getting so feeble!"

"Indeed!" said he.

"Yes, really! Why, this morning I had to pause right in the midst of my piano lesson and go down cellar to help her build up the furnace fire. And, do you know, it actually tired her to carry the attic stove up from the kitchen this noon! Poor mamma, and she is only sixty-five years old, too!

Amy—I see that there is a female minister in Cincinnati. Now, would you call her a clergyman or a clergywoman.

Jack—Oh! a clergyman. There's no such word as clergywoman. The term "man," you know, embraces "woman," too.

Amy—Does it really, Jack? How nice!

Little Johnny (to his father)—I told ma what you said to our Sunday School class to-day about knowing everything in the next world after we are dead.

Pa (uneasily)—What did she say?

Johnny—She said she wished you would try and know a little in this world while you're alive.

Foreman (newspaper office)—Want a job as compositor, eh? Are you a good speller?

Printer—Well, not very, but—

Foreman—You won't do. A printer who doesn't know enough to correct the mistakes of the editors has no business in a newspaper office.

Wibble—Did you ever know any one's hair to turn gray from sorrow?

Wabble—Can't say that I did. I have often seen an old widower's hair turn from gray to black about seven or eight months after burying the partner of his joys and troubles.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP" for children teething. Its value is inestimable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP" for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle Be sure and ask for "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP" and take no other kind.

Mrs. A.—How do you like our new neighbor.

Mrs. B.—I never met such an ignorant woman as she is. She can't talk about anything but paintings, books and music. She doesn't know a word of gossip about anybody.

She—How beautiful the autumn leaves are, George.

He [seeing a chance for a compliment]—You are like the autumn leaves, Clara.

She—You never pressed any autumn leaves, did you, George?

What Am I to Do?

The symptoms of Biliousness are unhappily but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhœa or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure try Green's August Flower, it costs but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.

Only five persons turned out to hear a discourse on 'How to Hold the Boys.' 'How to hold the girls' would have been a more attractive subject, although it is doubtful if any new light could have been shed upon the matter.

Father—Did you break this vase?

Johnny—Yes, father; I can't lie.

Father—Indeed! Well, you won't be able to sit either when I am done with you. Come along to the woodshed.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 820 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y. 26t-e o w-6

The "Sweet Singer of Michigan" in an idle moment dashed off these touching lines: "If you feel a little pale think of Joner and the whale and the frightened phace of Joner when he thought himself a goner."

You Were Once Beautiful, Madam,

but your glass tells you that you are no longer. Why is this? It is because you are suffering from functional derangement. You may "paint an inch think," as Hamlet says, but you cannot conceal the ravages of disease. No wonder you are low-spirited. But why suffer any longer? Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will restore the bloom to your cheek, the sparkle to your eyes, the old-time lightness to your step. It will make a happy woman of you again. It cures all those weaknesses, backaching, bearing-down pains peculiar to your sex. The only medicine sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case or money refunded. See guarantee on bottle wrapper.

It cheers the old maids to be taken for girls,
They like it to last all their lives,
But there is something that pleases them better, and that
Is just to be taken for wives.

To Consumptives.

The undersigned having been restored to health by simple means, after suffering for several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease CONSUMPTION, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure. To those who desire it, he will cheerfully send (free of charge) a copy of the prescription used, which they will find a sure cure for CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, CATARRH, BRONCHITIS and all throat and lung Maladies. He hopes all sufferers will try his Remedy, as it is invaluable. Those desiring the prescription, which will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing, will please address, Rev. Edward A. Wilson, Williamsburg, Kings County, New York.—1y-46

He—To live by your side, mein fraulein, I forsake everything—parents, honors, titles, fortune—

She (innocently)—Then, pray, what is there left for me?

"Gift Enterprises"

seem to be all the rage in the Soap Business, owing to the idea of some manufacturers of getting something out of nothing, if possible. Grocers get 6 boxes for 5 of some kinds, and are offered all sorts of "Nick Nacks" with others, as an inducement to recommend such soaps to their trade.

It is a well known fact, however, that a genuine article in this day of competition pays no fancy profits. WELCOME SOAP represents this class of goods, and demonstrates the value of quality in manufacture, which is the only guarantee of a pure and legitimate washing quality.

The following written definition of the word "bachelor" was handed in by a fifth grade boy: "A bachelor is a man who has no wife, nor wants no wife, nor can't get no wife."

Are you in want of a Fur Coat? If so be sure and call on Hugh Hay,

Sam Jones says: "Next to a pretty woman, I love a fast horse."

We don't. When we are next to a pretty woman we want a slow horse—one of them kind that you have to build a fire under to start him.

Old Gentleman (at head of stairs)—Sallie ain't it time to go to bed?

Sallie—Yes, father, dear, don't put it off another minute; your health, you know, is not very robust.

Mrs. McCrackle—How can Mr. Jimson be suffering from sunstroke this time of the year.

McCrackle—He was hit by his unfilial boy, Dick.

The Sewers of Paris

are one of the modern wonders of the world. That marvelous network of underground streams over which the tourist can travel by rail and in boats, constitutes the bowels of the gay capital This labyrinth of streams is kept with scrupulous care; for any obstruction in the flow of the sewerage would be attended with serious results to the health of the inhabitants of the city above The sewers of the human system are the liver and bowels, and in order to keep disease out of the wonderful city of which they are a part, they must be kept always free and unobstructed. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets are the best laxative and cathartic known for the purpose. Tiny, sugar coated granules, in vials. always fresh.

"Marie is a widow now, isn't she?"

"No. Her husband is living. He's lost all his money."

"That's what I mean. She married that."

Mother and Babe.

GENTLEMEN,—I have used Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam for a bad cough, and was cured by one bottle. My babe only two months old also had a cold and cough and on giving him some it helped him very much.

MRS. E. J. GORDIER, Florence, Ont.

A gentleman, advertising for a wife, said: "It would be well if the lady were possessed of a competency sufficient to secure her against excessive grief, in case of accident occurring to her companion."

A Wonderful Flesh Producer.

This is the title given to Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil by many thousands who have taken it. It not only gives flesh and strength by virtue of its own nutritious properties, but creates an appetite for food. Use it and try your weight. Scott's Emulsion is perfectly palatable. Sold by all Druggists, at 50c and $1 00.

Commercial Traveller—it seems to take you a great while to shave me.

Johnnie—Pa, what kind of ships require the most coal?

Pa (with a meaning look at his grown up daughters)—Courtships.

A Successful Mission.

The medical mission of Burdock Blood Bitters in curing constipation, has been markedly successful. No other remedy possesses such peculiar power over this disease.

Was very bad with costiveness, and one bottle of B. B. B. cured me, would not be without it, says

MRS. WM. FINLEY, JR, of Bobcaygeon, Ont.

If a man serves him faithfully six days in the week, the devil doesn't care much whether he goes to church on Sunday or not.

Just why so many people suffer pain when a remedy of known and certain effect like Hagyard's Yellow Oil may be had at every drug store, is not very clear. This peerless pain soothing remedy is a prompt and pleasant cure for sore throat, croup, colds, rheumatism, lame back, etc. Price 25 cents.

Attendant (in railway waiting room)—Say, mister, no going to sleep here. This ain't no church.
