Only Wait. When the spirit worn and weary, With life's daily load of care, Finds the pathway long and dreary And the burden hard to bear-Tired of hoping, faint with fearing, Sighs to rest at Heaven's gate-Then in tones sweet, soft, yet cheering,

Patience whispers: "Only wait! For a brighter day is dawning! Sunlight beameth with the morning, Gladness cometh with the morning-Only wait! Oh, sad hearts, whose soundless sorrow Dares not let a murmur fall. only wait and trust the morrow;

God's great heart beats over all, Only wait, oh wounded spirit, By life's beavy cross weighed down; Thou shalt surely heaven inherit-Bear the cross and win the crown, Win and wear it in the dawning, In the beauty of the morning-In the glory of the morning— Only Wait!

Wait and hope! If life distrusts us. Joys will be more sweet above. Where the light of love shall bless us. Love is heaven, and heaven is love! Courage, then! His hand will guide us Gently to that "golden gate," Where no ill can e'er betide us,

Bliss forever-only wait. Even now the day is dawning; With the sunlight breaks the morning Lovely light of heaven's morning! Only wait! Only wait!

"Is it another fake?" is a question the friends of the Dominion Illustrated have frequently to answer with regard to the prize competition in augurated by the publishers of that Journal for the current six months. The publishers have themselves given the best answer to that by publishing the list of prizes. There are 100, aggregating in value over $3,000. The first is $750 in gold and the smallest is valued at $5. The competition consists finding in current numbers of the Journal the answers to thirty-six questions, six of which are published each month. On receipt of 12 cents in stamps, the publishers (the Sabiston Litho & Pub. Co., Montreal will send sample copy with full particu-"Is it another fake?" is a question the friends

Great Little Men Some of the greatest men that ever lived were of small stature and ingignificant appearance. The reader will readily recall many instances. The exports of cheese from Canada, for the season now about closing, from May 1, 1890, to April 11, 1891, amounted to 98,400,000 pounds, whereas the exports from the United States for the same period were only 77,287,-000 pounds, showing that Canada leads by 21,113,000 pounds.

The reader will readily recall many instances. Very small are Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, but they are far more effective than the huge, old-fashioned pills which are so difficult to awallow and so harsh in their action. The "Pellets' are gentle and never cause constiption. For the liver, atomach and bowel derangements they have no equal.

Literary Notices. Kidney complaint, dropsy and similar troubles depend directly on wrong action of the kidneys and indirectly on bad blood. Burdook Blood Bitters regulates the action of the kidneys and cleanses the blood from all impurities, in this way curing kidney complaint, dropsy, etc.
