Mr. Ryan's Sad Death.

Many in Fredericton heard with surprise and sorrow yesterday of the death of Mr. M. la grippe. Sunday he ielt well enough to resums work on Monday. But he remained bone that day and in the morning was attacked with epiloptic fits which continued throughout the day with great violence. Tuesday he quieted down somewhat but remained unconscious. He slowly sank and had scarcely ever been ill in his life,

Mr. Rvan was born at Carlow, Ireland, and would be 39 years old on July 12th nex'. His parents came out to Upper Canada when he was yet very young. Then he lived in St. Stephen and then Bath. He removed to Millyille where he spent seventeen years of his life and finally came to Fredericton. He conducted extensive milling operations at Millville and was prominent in business circles in this city.

His death just at the prime of manhood, in the vigor of the good health which he enjoyed and after so short a sickness is rendered the more appalling to his numerous relatives and friends here and elsewhere. He leaves behind a loving wife and five children, two girls and three boys. Besides these there are his mother and several brothers and sisters to mourn his loss. His brothers are Hugh, Patrick, Lawrence and Thomas, of Johnville; John, of Arthurette, and his sis ters, Mrs. Cummins, of Johnville, and Mrs. Maddex, of Wicklow. Mr. Ryan will be remembered as a thorough, prompt business of their last year's crop.
