Naughty Fredericton.

We fear Fredericton must be becoming eadly demoralized when such an event as the following, recorded by the Gleaner, could cour on a principal street at midday. It is bad that the party named should perpetrate the outrage; worse that any witness-"A gust of wind crossed the corner of York | them. and Queen streets, at about 1 o'clock to day, and caught in its grasp two young ladies of ROWELL & Co.'s Newspaper Advertising Bureau | the Normal School who had just left the disorganized.
