Far over some mist-hidden river,

Their magical sweetness renew,

By mystical symbols and tokens, We know of that beautiful land;

And only in sleep we remember

But also! on the threshold of girlhood,

The frail clue slipped out of our hand!

The white gates are hidden from view,

The land where our dreams come true!

We shall find the lost treasure we seek for,

All the sime and the dreams of the bygone,

In the land where our dreams come true

Where the moth and the rust cannot come

There are garnered the prayers of our mothers,

Their dear hands shall reach us the clue.
That leads through the "Valley of Shadow,"
To the land where our dreams come true!

Though we know, in our hearts, we shall
