1. Your committee would recommend that the Grand Lodge indorse the expression of P. G. C. T. Baskin in his report on this question, viz:

"The failure to secure a prohibit ory law during the present session of the federal parliament was a great disappointenant to many of our members.

2. Your committee are desirous of expressing their hearty approval of the zealous efforts of Jamisson, Flint and others, in bringing the question of prohibition before the House of Commons at Ottawa, at the present session, and beging to assure them that their efforts in this direction will always be heartily supported by the I. O. G. T. of this Province.

3. That the Grand Lodge heartily supported by the I. O. G. T. of this Province.

4. Though our expectations were disappointed, your committee still cherish the hope that we are nearer to victory at the present moment than we realize. We desire to reaffirm that nothing short of a prohibitory law, pure and simple, will satisfy us as a Temperance organization."
