The Puritan was built last summer, and is allowed to be the finest coast steamer in the United States; she is 410 feet long, and furnished in the greatest possible style, having oost about a million and a half. On arriving in New York, or rather in Brooklyn, I met my son and Seth Milbury E q., and family, with whom I spent a most comfortable and pleasant week and had the satisfaction of hearing Dr. Talmage in his new taborick structure, extending clear acroses a block. The outside is only a plain brick building devoid of any particular ornamention, but the interior is most elegant though not at all gaudy.
