Old Gotrox—Look here, to come right down to the solid truth, aren't you just a little ashamed of your old daddy? Honest now

Young Gotrox — Why, guv'nor, I cawn't say ashamed exactly, but you know you are not always in good fawm, ye know.

Old Gotrox—Well, I don't blame you for being ashamed of me. Every time I look at you and think what a job I made of your bringing up I am ashamed of myself.

They tell a story of Mrs. Jones, of Chicago, who visited Rome and, while there, was shown some of the great marble masterpieces of the world, among others the Apollo Belvidere. They pointed it out to her as being the most perfect form of man that had ever been conceived by the brain of an artist, and the old woman walked all around it, looked at it from every point of view, and she says:—

"That's the Apollo Belvidere, is it?"

"Yes."

"Well, give me Jones."

His Honor—Napoleon Bonaparte, you are charged with killing this man's chicken. What have you got to say to the charge?

Napoleon—Well, boss, I wus jis' shootin' it off de fence.

His Honor—What did you shoo it with?

Nap—Wid—wid—wid a ole shoe, ob course.

For Over Fifty Years.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used by millions of mothers for their children while teething. If disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of Cutting Teeth send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children Teething. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it It cures Diarrhœa, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Gums, reduces Inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system "Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Price twenty five cents a bottle. Sold by all druggists throughout the world. Be sure and ask for "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.

It costs $3 to go to Philadelphia, $6 to Boston, $33 to Savannah, but, by the purchase of a bad paper for five cents, you can get a through ticket to ruin, by express, with few stopping places, and the final halting, like the tumbling of the lightning train from the bridge at Ashtabula—sudden, terrific, deathful, never to rise.—Talmage.

C. C. RICHARDS & Co.,
I had the muscles of my hand so contracted that I could not use it for two years, MINARD'S LINIMENT cured me, and I now have the use of my hand as well as ever.

C. C. RICHARDS & Co.,
I had a valuable colt so bad with mange that I feared I would lose him. MINARD'S LINIMENT cured him like magic.
Dalhousie. CHRISTOPHER SAUNDERS.

A minister of a colliery village tells an anecdote of one of his parishioners, ludicrous yet very pathetic. He called on a rough pitman to condole with him on the death of a fine baby boy.

"Ah," said the poor, sorrow-stricken fellow, with tears in his eyes, "I'd a had the little beggar stoofied if it hadn't a been again the law of the land."

What Am I to Do?

The symptoms of Biliousness are unhappily but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhœa or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure try Green's August Flower, it costs but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.

Mrs. Prentice—How do you always manage to have such delicious beef?

Mrs. Bywell—I select a good butcher, and then stand by him.

Mrs. Prentice—You mean that you give him all your trade?

Mrs. Bywell—No; I mean that I stand by him while he is cutting off the meat.

To Consumptives.

The undersigned having been restored to health by simple means, after suffering for several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease CONSUMPTION, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure To those who desire it, he will cheerfully send (free of charge) a copy of the prescription used, which they will find a sure cure for CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, CATARRH, BRONCHITIS and all throat and lung Maladies. He hopes all sufferers will try his Remedy, as it is invaluable. Those desiring the prescription, which will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing, will please address, Rev. Edward A. Wilson, Williamsburg, Kings County, New York.—1y-46

A doctor, who was visiting a sick man in a poor neighborhood, ordered him to take some brandy. When the doctor called next day he asked the patient if he had taken the brandy, the patient said he had not, and the doctor asking why he had not taken it, the patient said, "Sure, and I didn't want to be going to heaven with the smell of drink on me.'

"Gift Enterprises"

seem to be all the rage in the Soap Business, owing to the idea of some manufacturers of getting something out of nothing, if possible. Grocers get 6 boxes for 5 of some kinds, and are offered all sorts of "Nick Nacks" with others, as an inducement to recommend such soaps to their trade.

It is a well known fact, however, that a genuine article in this day of competition pays no fancy profits. WELCOME SOAP represents this class of goods, and demonstrates the value of quality in manufacture, which is the only guarantee of a pure and legitimate washing quality.

"I love you so,
I love you so,"
He whispered low to Carrie;
'And that is why,
Dear one, that I
Am disinclined to marry."

An Offensive Breath

is most distressing, not only to the person afflicted if he have any pride, but to those with whom he comes in contact. It is a delicate matter to speak of, but it has parted not only friends but lovers. Bad breath and catarrh are inseparable. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases in thousands can testify.

He—Well, we won't quarrel about it any more, but just let it go as it is, eh?

She—Yes; but, George, dear, for the sake of the future—and a harmonious future—I think you would better acknowledge, before we drop it altogether, that you were wrong. Don't you, dear?

Baby Was Sick.

My baby was very sick with diarrhœa and after everything else failed I tried Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry; the first dose gave relief, and a perfect cure soon resulted."—Mrs. John Clark, Bloomfield, Ont.

"You talk a good deal in your sleep, John," said Mrs. Henpeck.

"It's the only chance I get," said John meekly.

Minard's Liniment is the Best.

Maud—Jack, let us osculate.

Jack—With all my heart.

Maud—Oh, you wretch!

Jack—You said: Let us osculate," and I had to do so, precious.

Maud—But I meant osculate

Jack—Well, I thank you kindly for the mistake

"I wonder why the car doesn't start!" exclaimed an impatient passenger.

"There are not enough people on board yet to make the cargo," replied another, who understood the situation.

Hunstville Happenings.

"I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in my family and can highly recommend it for summer complaint, diarrhœa, etc"—Mrs Geo West, Huntsville, Ont.

Farmer Gilson came down from the country, the other day, and brought his boy along to let him see the sights.

"Paw," said the lad, amazed at seeing hearse horses trot, "that ain't a funer'l, is it?"

"Yes, 'tis; these city folks hev to hurry like sixty to get a man buried 'fore the mourners forgit 'im."

Can Not Compete.

Miss Maud Grant, of Mountain, Ont., writes: "I can recommend Dr. Fowlers' Extract of Wild Strawberry for summer complaints and diarrhœa There is nothing to compete with it as it succeeds even in the severest cases"

The head master of a school recently put up a notice that, on an early date, he would lecture on the following subject: "Our eyes, and how we see through them." Shortly afterwards he was astonished to find an alternative title written underneath: "Our pupils, and how they see through us."

Inventions of the 19th Century.

"Alas!" said the tramp, "I am hungry and sore;
Is there no one to pity my plight?"
"Oh, yes," cried the dog, as he sharpened his teeth,
"Come in, and I'll give you a bite."

The telegraph's click speeds like lightning released,
Then the telephone comes to excel it;

Is the famed little Purgative Pellet
Last but not least is Dr Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellet, because it relieves human suffering, adds to the sum of human comfort, and enables the relieved sufferer to enjoy all the blessings and luxuries of the age we live in.

Widower (to his little daughter, aged 10)—Dora, do you know that Susanne, our housekeeper, is going to be married?

Dora—Oh, I'm so glad we are getting rid of the old pelican? Won't it be jolly? But who is going to marry her?

Father—Well, I am!

Hugh Hay's is headquarters for Opaque Blinds.

Snooks went home, the other night, afflicted with double vision. He sat for some time with his sleepy gaze riveted on Mrs. Snooks, and then complacently remarked: "Well, I declare, if you don't look 'nough alike to be twins.'
