Brocklyn, Saturday, has become a fact.
With the exception of a small portion the city is supplied by Prospect park reservoir.
There was not enough water this morning for people to wash in and make coffee for breakfast. They dare not build fires in ranges for fear of explosions. Citizens have had no such experience since the establishment of the water supply system in 1856.

Thousands of people are thrown out of work for the time being, the order to close factories being strictly enforced.

Littell's Living Age.

AS THE LIVING AGE approaches its jub-ilee, it is interesting to recall the prophecy made concerning it by Mr. JUSTICE STORY upon reading the prospectus in April, 1844. He then "I entirely approve the plan If it can obtain the public patronage long enough, it will contribute in an eminent degree to give a healthy tone not only to our literature, but to public opinion. It will enable us to possess, in a moderate compass, a select library of the best productions of the age"

S.500 IN REWARDS.

That The Living Age has fully justified this forecast is proved by the constant praises which, during all the years of its publication, have been bestowed upon it by the press, some of the more recent of which are given below.

An Exceptional Year.

THE Year 1891 has been marked by a greater advance than any similar period since the Magazine was established. Not only has the literary and artistic excellence been maintained and increased, but a corresponding gain has been made in the sale and it fill ence of the Magazine. At the end of 1891 had circulation has risen to more than 140,000. It may justly be promised that the further improve needs for the coming year will be proportionate to these largety increased opportunities.
