quenchless love on the dark and thorny pathe Florenceville Items. JOTTINGS TRAVELLER'S GUIDE. Good News if True this Association was organized; 1878- | last report. I have also taken the year lowing nominations for the respective offices :-Aug. 25, 1891. President, John Scott, Lower Woodstock; Haying is about finished in this vicinity and "O sleep, O gentle sleep, harvest begun. The warm moist weather of the Nature's soft nurse, how have I frighted thee?" On and after Monday next, June 1st, passen-ger trains leave Woodstock for McAdam, the Mr. Blackallder occupied the Baptist the year in which we began the work of 1886 as being midway between the years The New York Herald has a despatch from Secretary, J. T Fietcher. Waterville; pulpit morning and evening, Sunday. collecting statistics of the schools of the last previously mentioned-a year in est. St. Stephen, St. John, Fredericton and Rec Scc . Jomes Watts, Woodstock. Ottawa, as follows: past few days is causing the rust to appear | Well, if any one of our readers whines thus, let County; 1881-the year in which I first which George L. Holyoke was secretary. Additional Members of the Executive Com-Houlton, at 7.30 a. m., 11.40 a. m., and 8.10 p. m. The Carleton County W.C.T.U. Conna solemnly assure him, there is nothing so of-Returning from above, arrive here at 5.35 a. m., "It is stated here that it is the intention of among the potatoes, beans, etc. mitter-S J Parsons, G W. Hovey, James H. published a report of the statistics col- The records of those years shew the folfective in wooing that same "nature's sweet re-Sir John Thompson, Minister of Justice, to vention meets at Benton on the 3rd and .25 p. m. and 12.45 p. m. Cossiderable sickness exists just now. Forrest, C. W. Dickinson and A. D. Hartley. Leave for Presque Isle and intermediate points at 5.50 a. m. and 12.55 p. m., arriving here storer" as the harmonious "treadle" and harindict for public robbery and conspiracy, all 4th of September. lected, and 1891-the present year and lowing:-Jesse Longstaff is suffering from a severe attack We recommend that the oppointment of Vice ness squesking, and thud thud thumping of Penelope's bluenose loom, the charming lullaby from above at 7.23 a m., 7.50 p. m. Trains for Grand Falls and Edmundston of Peritonitis. Under the skillful treatment of ; the members of the McGreevy boodle gang reeidents be left with the Executive Committee The date of the Kent election is as Respectfully submitted, and the officials they bribed, provided he is Drs. Hagerman and Atkinson she is slightly betfollows: Nomination, September 8th, ter and hopes are entertained of her recovery. of a warping machine and the sift music 12.55 p.m.; leave Edmundston, on return, at convinced he can obtain a jury above the in-Nominating Committee. For Gibson, leave at 12.40 p. m.; leave Gibson at 6.55 a. m., arrive at Woodstock at 11.05 a. m. All standard time. JAMES BOYD, whirrings of half a dozen spinning wheels, soaud polling the 15th. fluence of the boodlers." Rev. A. H Hayward returned yesterday from A D HARTLEY, companied by the melting strains of "Rest for Owing to the absence of the pastor, stiending the Baptist Convention at Monoton. H. T. LONDON, the Weary," warbled from the lips of the lovely We don't suppose the chennel, through J T. FLETCHER, A horse and wazgon containing Mr. William Hebes, filing the warp, the bobbins and the there was no service in the F. C. PARISH. which this intelligence comes, is the Herris, Wm L McCain and Miss Ein Long . M. C. ATKINSON, TERMS OF THE SENTINEL. quills-strains that with "a dying fall" come Church, Sunday evening. reliable, but the people generally, irrespec-The Finance Committee reported the Secsteff, went over the Buttermilk Creek bridge the on the ear "like the sweet south, that breathes Services will be held at Royalton. Subscription $1.00 a year in advance; $1.50 if other day. Except a waggon badly broken, no upon a bank of violets," and almost impercentretary Treasurer's report correct, which was tive of party prejudices or affiliations, will 'e not paid in advance. day, Sunday next, attended by Revs. B. injury was done This bridge is quite high and ibly "weigh the eyelids down, and steep the adopted greatly pleased if it is correct. Short notices not exceeding 6 lines, 25 cents The reports of Vice Presidents being called senses in forgetfulness" Colpitts and G. T. Hartley. hould have a railing. 1876 first insertion; 10 cts. each subsequent insertion. "Ob, sleep ! it is a blessed thing. for was responded to as tollows :---1878 Hardly An Answer. Sharp's Plums are now ready for de-Transient Advertisements should be accom-For the lowest prices in Boots, Shoes and Beloved from pole to pole, Parish & T. Woodstock by John Scott 1881 TOWN OF WOODSTOCK. panied by the money to insure insertion. livery. As the plum season is brief, it Rubbers you want to go to B. B. Manzar's. To Mary, Queen, the praise be given-Richmond do E W. Flewelling The St. Croix Courser says :do 1886 MR. J. H. BATES, Newspaper Advertising She sent the gentle sleep from heaven. will be necessary to send in your orders (lor V P.) 1891 "The CARLETON SENTINEL wants the rea-Agent, 41 Park Row, (Times Building), New Kirkland Items. That alid into my soul.' Northampton do G. W Hoves; sons why Charlotte County has claims to a early York, is also authorized to contract for adver-August 24. do J. T. G. Carr; Brighton isements in the SENTINEL, at our best rates. Senator superior to those of any other portion Found on the street, Friday morning. For Room Paper, Ceiling Papers, Corners and PARISH OF WOODSTOCK, Your correspondent was absent on a blue. do Msj A D Hartley Pesl a pocket book. The owner can have the berry excursion last week, consequently no Centres, call at Hugh Hay's. This paper may be found on file at GEO. P. of the Province. Limited space prevents a 1881 do H. Biggar; ROWELE & CO.'s Newspaper Advertising Bureau full enumeration of them, but we may sug-(10 Spruce street), where advertising contracts gest the variety of our resources and indus-Aberdeen (Exclusive of Town.) 1886 same by calling at G. Y. Dow's, Park items appeared from this section ; out we are do J. W. Sherwood. Kent 1891 all over the effects of camping-out now, and The newly elected President was now constreet. may be made for it in New York. tries, the farming, fishing and mining inter-The burning out of the chimney in the will resume the pen for a time. ducted to the obsir by the retiring President. ests of the county all requiring the watchful 1878 President Soott thanked the Convention for On the morning of the 14th inst., about 40 residence of Rev. Thos. Connor, Rich-Vatchmaker, Jeweller and Issuer of Marriag care of the Legislature; and the delicate po-The Garleton Sentinel sition we occupy by reason of our proximity mond street, caused an alarm of fire. of the young people of this and Esi River 1881 the honor done him and promised, with the Licenses, keeps Wedding Rings of every size. RICHMOND. 1886 aid of his assistant officers, to serve the body district went on a blueberry excursion to Se-14 and 18 karat, guaranteed as stamped U. S. to the United States and the necessity for No damage done. 9 1891 cond Lake. A part of them encamped on SATURDAY, AUGUST 29, 1891. to the best of his ability. ssay. Hay's Block; Main street. intelligent advice and knowledge of locality The C. P. Railway announce a cheap the plain at the southern end of the lake for-1876 Invitations to hold the next session of Conin connection with international disputes 2 10 the night, while the rest enjoyed themselves 1878 vention were presented from Jacksontown SENTINEL Office, in Vanwart's Brick that may arise, such as that which cropped excursion to Montreal. Tickets for round up in connection with the recent seizure of trip $10. Good, going, Aug. 28th to dancing in Mr. Varney's new house. In the 1881 WOODSTOCK and Benton, respectively, and on motion the Building, King Street, up stairs. WAKEFIELD 1886 morning everybody repaired to the plain to first named was accepted fishing boats. The Government should de 31; returning, to September 21st 1891. 6 14 1891 pick berries, and beside plenty of berries they After collection of the offerings, questions Consult the Direction Label on eide that the western section of this province got very wet by the falling rain in the afterand singing, Field Secretary Lucas delivered The Board of Directors of the C. C. Your Paper or Wrapper, and if is entitled to representation in the Senate Woodworking Factory. a stirring address, calling attention to various valuable lesson help publications, and giving Agricultural Society meets at the county noon. A few caught cold, but it did not 1878 in Arrears please Pay up at once. and, that conclusion reached, there can be no building this (Saturday) afternoon, at 3 amcunt to much, and everybody voted it a 1881 doubt that Charlotte is entitled to the seat." SIMONDS. an interesting illustration of chart teaching o'clock. Every member is asked to at- jolly good time, and hoped it would come 1886 What the SENTINEL wanted was the su-Next year will be the centenary of again next summer. On motion of J. Watts, seconded by J. T 1891 0 Fletcher, the sum of $25 was donated to the Baptist missions, William Carey having perior claims of Charlotte over Carleton. We tend. DOORS. We have been having quite a wet spell this funds of the Prov. S. S. Association. sailed for India in 1792. did not suggest any lack of claims on the There has been quite a rise of water week which brought the rust with it, and 1878 WINDOWS, in the river, and the Corporation drive we are sorry to see so many potato fielde A portion of the questions was answered 0 1881 part of the Western portions of the Province PINE- SEASONED, WILMOT. y S. J. Parsons and J. Watts. By a fire in New York, on the 23rd is again in motion with the prospect that | turning brown. and, accepting the Courier's resume as set-SPRUCE Offerings amounted to $9.58. 1891 0 there was a large loss of property and a it will reach the boom limits in a few 1 0 Farmers have already begun harvesting, tling this latter point, it is as strongly an The minutes of the present session were read and approved, and the session closed BUTTERNUT " large number of lives, estimated by some and some have considerable grain housed. days. argument in favor of a Senator for Carleton BASSWOOD 1878 as high as 80. The business outfit of C. S. Woodling Mr. Murchie has sold one of his fine black with singing, the benediction being proas for Charlotte, for, except in the matter 1881 BIRCH horses to Mr. Grant, of Canterbury, who is WICKLOW. nounced by Rev. D. Fiske, to meet again at has been purchased by Fewer Bros. The 1886 It seems to have been decided that fish, their interests are identical, the balance to return for its mate in the fall. ASH new firm will, no doubt, do a good busi-1891 1 1 0 there will be an agricultural exhibition in of claims as represented by the farming in Wedding bells were heard ringing on Fri-EVENING SESSION. ness in the plumbing line, as they are We keep a stock of the above in the rough for Fredericton, this Fall. The Govern- tcrest being greatly in favor of Carleton. As day evening, and on enquiry we found that At 7.30 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Barker conductordered work, as well as a stock manufactured good workmen and popular young men. 1878 ment have agreed to grant $1,000 in aid to proximity to the United States, they oc-Mr. Atkinson and Miss Towers had entered into Sheathing, Flooring, etc. 1881 ed a devotional service. The recent high wind and heavy rains the matrimonial state, the nuptial knot hav-We can furnish everything in the line of Finish-KENT. At 8 o'clock ex-president J. W. Sherwood of the affair. cupy precisely the same positico. 1886 ing Woodwork necessary in building. This gives have prostrated a good deal of the grain, ing been tied by Rev. Mr. Murray. took the chair, the work of the convention 1891 us an advantage over smaller dealers. Before the public accounts committee, which, under the influence of the ex- Mr. Dykeman is doing a large and prefitwas resumed, and Rev. D. Fiske proceeded to Town Council. 1876 0 P K TONES P.

| | enswer the balance of the questions that had at | t Ottawa, on the 25th, questionable | Town Council. | cessively hot and damp weather, is rust- | able blacksmith business here. He is a first- | R. K. JONES, Prop. |
|--|--|---|---|--|--|--|
| 1881 0 0 0 0 1 0. 0 4 5 0 | been collected at the afternoon session. m | noney transactions in connection with | Aug. 24, 1891. | ing badly. The potatoes also, in many | claes workman and attends promptly to his | Those Requiring Spectacles |
| ABERDEEN. 1886 0 0 0 0 0 3 0 0 6 9 2 | Rev. J J. Barnes delivered an earnest ad- dress, in which he dwelt particularly on the | | His Worship in the chair; absent, Coun. | sections, are badly rusting. | Customers. | Those nequiring spectation |
| | importance of Sunday School work, ite rapid | vere exposed. | A bill of G. W. Slipp's, for $150, for | At the shooting of the Provincial Rifle | Miss Dean, of Boston, and Miss Buchapan of St. John, paid a visit this week to Mr. T. | |
| | growth and marvellous development. | The death of Rev. George Johnston. | damages to his horse through falling through | Association, at Sussex, on Tuesday, Sergt. | Slater. They only remained a few days. | |
| | Rev. A. Lucas delivered an excellent ad- | and 83 accurred at Grand Pro N S | a culvert, was read, Mr. Gibson was heard on | Appleby, of the 67th Batt., was the | however, and returned to-day, | |
| PEEL 1886 1 1 0 0 0 0 0 4 6 1 | dress, in which he reviewed the work, the lines of progress from the past to the present, | in the 21st. For over 60 years. Mr. | the matter, and on motion Smith, seconded | | | |
| | and the urgent necessity there is for greater J | ohnston has labored as a Methodist | Gallagher, the bill was referred to a special | match, he was also the winner of a prize | Upper Woodstock Items. | |
| | activity in the opportunities continually in | ninister in New Brunswick and Nova | Committee consisting of the mayor and Coude. | in the Prince of Wales match. | Aug, 26th 1891. | Consult D. HARRIS, |
| | | leatin | Sunt Munro's report of the completion of | Among other specimens of the pro- | Mr. G. G. Hamilton who has been in the | ENGLISH OPTICIAN. |
| RIGHTON. 1881 1 3 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0 2 0 2 8 11 4 | J. T. Fletcher and M. A. Smith were | | the Stand Pipe was received and placed on | ducts of his vegetable garden, which U. L. | employ of W. R Wright Esq. as clerk in | 3 Germain Street, St. John, N. B., Near Market |
| | | It is estimated that Cauada will have | fola | S Raymond brought to market on Wed- | bis store has resigned his post there and ac- | AT IN A PROPERTY AND A PROPERTY A PROPERTY AND A PROPERTY A PROPER |
| | | surplus of wheat for exportation of 30,- | The Supt. of Water Works was instructed | nesday, was a cabbage, weighing 181 lbs. | cepted a good situation as clerk for G. R. | BIRTHS. |
| | | 00,000 bushels. At the same time the | | He also had some fine ripe tomstoes of | Ketchum M. P. P. Mr. Ketchum is carrying on an extensive business at Ashland Me. | |
| RTHAMPTON. 1881 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 4 5 5 | It Mine I have for her any light corriging at 1 | | On motion Hanson, seconded Henderson, | the new Ruby, an early and very fine | and My Hamilton good there as his confi- | On the 22nd inst., to the wife of Chas H Bull, |
| 1886 0 1 0 0 0 0 4 5 5 | the organ during the session of the conven-1 | which will command for our surplus an | the Poor Committee was authorized to put up | kind. Thanks to Mr. Raymond for | dential clerk. Jubilee Division of which Mr. | a son. |
| | e tion. | extra good price. | an ell and board it in and shingle the same, | vegetable favors. | Hamilton was a prominent member, will | SAND-D-C-CORRECTOR BLAMERATE AND A TEACHING WE UP COMPANY AND |
| | On motion of Rev. A. Lucas, seconded by | The and approaches as magarda the | and shingle the roof of main building, at | A fire was discovered in a bedroom in | miss him greatly. "It never rains but it | MARRIED. |
| NARY OF THE WHOLE 1881 10 15 0 0 5 6 1 1 15 53 23 | Bevelai memosis, a Ante ni mange Mas ten lu | Carte-McGreevy investigations. Mr. | Poor House farm. Tenders to be asked for | the ell of J. C. Winslow's residence, on | pours" is an old saying. Jubilee Dviision | |
| | | McGreevy's counsel has addressed the | the work, to be received at the clerk's office. | Monday afternoon, but fortunately was | seems to find it too true, not only, has this hard working little temperance society lost | August 21st, at the Manse, Kicklant, Carleton |
| COUNTY. 1886 14 19 0 0 11 8 1 1 40 96 48 | vided for the comfort of delegates and visitors co | | Personals | extinguished without much further dam- | one of its most enthusiastic members by Mr. | Co., by Kev F. W. Blurray, Bir. W. W. Atsin- |
| | to the convention. | rnment have submitted their factum. | | ago vian view bustantou nout the mater | Inamitton s removal to Asurana, out hassus- | Car. Co. |
| A careful study of those reports, con- Oct. 4 do G. L. Holyoke for 1000 sheets correspondence | The Secretary Treasurer made the follow- T | The committee will then report, after | Hon, G. W. White, Centreville, was in | thrown. The fire occurred from sparks. | tained a loss of two other good members. | At the Manse Woodstock Ane 94th hy Rev. |
| a careful study of those reports, con sheets correspondence paper and 1,500 envel- | ing supplementary report:- | which a stormy debate over it muy he | I GWD I UCEDBV. | from an uncovered stove pipe hole in the | Mr. C. S. Woodling and Miss Woodling have | James Ross, Mr Mauzer A Jones, to Miss Hester |
| | Supplementary Report of the Secretary Treas- | ooked for in the Commons. | Mrs. Samuel Wade, of Cambridgeport, | chimney, falling upon a bed. The fire- | belonged to the Division for some time and have greatly aided in making the meetings | J. mckay, both of Southampton, for co. |
| what whatever differences those voucher 2, 020 | 5 uter for monies received and expended during | | Mass., is visiting friends here. | men acted promptly. | Listangeting and nu ftable My Warding in | DIED |
| about respecting the denomi- Dec. 9 up for one upon house is | the sessions of the convention: | The Scottish American Journal thus | Miss Jesse Munro, returned Wednesdsy | Smith English was brought before the | obliged to leave Woodstock, to op in a plumb- | DIED. |
| tional features of that work, those diff- der and postage, 8 13 | 3 To amount received from the following m | interity pures it. Anti- intering accorrooty, | from a pleasant visit to Nova Scotia. | Police Magistrate again on Friday, and | ing establishment in Halifax. This necessi- | At Canterbury Station, Aug. 21st, after a |
| ences have been effected through na- 1891 | schools: a | Member of the Dominion Parliament, | E C. Freeze, Inspector of Weights and | was, on the charge of larceny from R.K. | tates his withdrawal from the Division | lingering illness, Mary E., beloved and aldest |
| rel and local causes, and not through Feb. 24 do Prov. Association for | I III | as tendered his resignation, 'preferring | Measures, is here on an official visit. | Jones' residence, committed for trial at | greatly to the regret of its members who | daughter of Cornelius and Catherine Greaney, |
| settled policy of the Executive Com- | Questille Contra Dana 99 00 | o lose his seat rather than implicate | I. H. Stoddard, New Haven, Conn., is spending his summer vacation here. | the County Court. On Saturday the | have only the most kindly remembrances of | rest in peace. |
| ttee. In one feature of the work and it may rougher 4 21 30 | Deben Union 1 00 01 | the parties by answering questions re- | Maine P W Other of Sugar well known | prisoner was again before the Court on | A union picoic is to be held Saturday 29th | |
| vealed through these reports, the Ex- do do Stationery. 24 | 4 Good's Corner, do 25 1a | ating to his own private affairs" before | in military circles, died of apoplexy on Mon- | the charge of B. B. Manzer, as stated | at Mr. Jas. T. Smith's Intervale. The Di- | |
| utive Committee has had a fixed policy do do Postage to date, 5 24 | 4 East Florenceville, Meth 1 00 th West Glassville. Union 32 | he Investigating Committee. | dav. | last week and, pleading guilty, subtice | vision, Sunday and Day schools will unite | ter of the late Elisha and Mary Ana Shaw, in the |
| d that committee must feel a strong | Tabasilla da 50 | There are published very conflicting | Mr. Charles Dickinson and Mrs. Dickin- | Dibblee sentenced him to one month in | in having a regular village picnic. If the | fifty-seventh year of her age, leaving a husband, six daughters, and two sons one of whom is in |
| gree of thankfulness in the knowledge Belance a hand | 8 Lower Brighton, FCB 100 | incre are provisited very connecting | son left on Monday for a vacation trip to Boston. | the common jan. | weather smiles propitiously, a very pleasant | the Far West, to mourn their loss. She was a lov- |
| the results of this policy. I refer to | Greenfield, Pres 1 00 re | eports about the nearth of Fremer Mer- | Boston. | The picnic held by the R. C. friends | , time may be confidently counted on. | ing wife, a kind and affectionate mother, and a true friend, esteemed by all who knew her. Abont |
| e efforts that have been made year after $84.64 | The second secon | probably, be called to meet soon and | H, P. Timmerman, Gen. Supt. of the U. | near Newburg Junction, Tuesday. was | Call and see the new Gilt Silver and Steel | 17 years ago she had the great misfortane to lose |
| ar to so far as possible, make our Sun-! Report was referred to Finance Commit | Bovalton, do 50 + | hen there will be some explanation of | | patronized by a very large crowd and | Trimmings at B. B. Manzer's. | her sight, which she never recovered, but this, as |
| y Schools evergreen. At the time this tee. | Wicklow. Union 1 00 | he Bay de Chaleur railway scandal. It | | everything in connection therewith pas- | | tience and died in the hope of a glorious resurrec- |
| | Beekim Settlement, Meth 53 | rould appear to be the duty of Mr. | J. F. Snow, Mayor of Bangor, spent a few | sed off in the most pleasant and satisfac- | Knowlesville Items. | tion. Her remains were removed to her home in |
| | D Oak Mountain Pres 1 04 | Mercier not to delay in exculpating him- | days in Woodstock last week. He was the | tory manner. The usual sports had been | Aug. 26, 1891. The crops here are looking first class-both | Simonds, which she had left only a few weeks previous in good health, to spend a short time |
| that kept open all the year, and those considered section by section, and adopted in | | elf and colleagues from the damaging | guess of his relative, w. It. Duow. | provided for and were enthusiastically | cereals and roots-and promise an abundant | with some of her children here. The funeral ser- |
| 1 - 1 confined to the town and | 1 M. 1 M. 1 D 001 | | | indulged in. The Woodstock Brass | | vices, which were largely attended, were conduct- ed in the Baotist Church, by Elder John Hutchin- |
| the Executive Report of committee on Secretary heport | | Ottawa | official visit to the greamerics and cheese fac- | Band was present. Father Bradley was | harvest. With the single exception of hay, they are all superior to last year's returns, and speak well for the intelligent husbandry of our agri- | son, who delivered an impressive discourse from |
| rong efforts to remedy the evil, and rong so successful in those efforts, 1 We consider the Beport evidences ver | F- $14.25 | | | | | the words, "There shall be no more death." The |
| rong efforts to remedy the evil, and ing: | Amount of collection at afternoon session, 9 58 | It reads strange, altho' we suppose it | Dr. D. P. Wolhaupter and Mrs. Wolhaup- | friends to enjoyment. Rain came about | culturists. The "fitful fever," with its short- lived spasmodic intromissions, having altogether | remains were interred in the old family burying |
| | | s parliamentary, the statement of the | ter. Washington, spent a few days with their | 5 o'clock to cut short the merry making | · subsided, we have now leisure to turn our at- | "Though we sleep, 'tis not forever, |
| t as far as I can glean from the re- thorough acquaintance on the part of our Secre | | Speaker of the Commons, when asked as | friends at Richmond and Woodstock, and | The receipts netted the bandsome sum of | t tention to the arts of industry and peace. | Ther will be a glorious dawn; |
| rts of this year, I am able to report tary with the condition and needs of the S | | to the issue of a writ for Kingston, that he | | $300 00. | Our esteemed friend, Dr. Phelps, who takes a | We shall meet to part. No! never! - On the resurrection morn." |
| ergreen schools in every parish of the 1976 thein 2. To the following points in the Report w | By cash naid Proy. Association as per | was not officially aware of the death of | R. Barry Smith, a brother of Dr. S. Smith, | I. H. Stoddard, the well known pho- | deep interest in the secular and sacred instruc- tion of the young, is at present making flying | |
| unty. From eight, in 18/6, their would draw special attention: We regret very | V note of convention of new youcher 25 00 15 | Sir John A. Macdonald, after the various | while engaged in court at Monoton, on the | tographer will be at Campbell's studio | Fille of the young, is at present maning aying | Shaw, of Mars Hill, departed this early life June |
| mber has increased to 55, reported to much that there are many districts yet unpro | | peeches and proceedings in the nouse | Lott, had a bricke or paraljere, which cer | the whole of next week. Those desiring | pupils, and treating the professors of Pedagogics | 13th, 1891, aged of years mirs. Shaw was daugh |
| we kept open all last year. While we wided with S. Schools, and would suggest that | | n connection with the Premier's death, | ously emoted him poysiosity and monsuity. | his services will have to call during that | pharmaceutically. His far famed pills are a | ter of the late William McClintock. and was born at White's Cove, New Brunswick. While only a |
| be deeply thankful for those very grati- true missionary spirit do what they can to estable | h Balance on hand before reported, 10 98 an | and the final passage of a resolution ac- | Carleton Co. Rifle Association. | time. | great success, while his world-renowned lini- ments, he says, can't be best. The little "un- | child she moved to Centreville, Car.Co. In 1853 she |
| ng results, we remember that there is lish schools in such districts | Total balance, $14 51 C | eording the romains a public funeral. | | The school trustees have been forced | "lessentness" shout one of our schools hes | was united in marriage to Mr. E. W Shaw of that |
| Il a very large room for improvement 3. We are glad to learn from the Report that | 11 On motion the report was received and | | The weather on Thursday and Friday of | from the large number of pupils in at- | - "vampoosed " The money has been raised-the | where, with the exception of a short period, she |
| that line of work. visitation of schools has been to a specially larg extent carried on during the year, and it is very | adopted. | The Provincial Government have ap- | I ISSE WARK WAS VARY DANTCALLIOUS FOR LOR BA- | I do a state a data a second to area | renair are providenting repluy -and an crut | continued to live until her death. Mr and Mrs S. |
| | | pointed Charles Burpee, ex-M. P. of Sun- | nual meeting of the above association which | Mr. Steeves an assistant. Mr. Creed | friends of education are greatly rejoicing in spirit Selah. | A pioneer's life and work was have and noble |
| 0 0.1.1. | - I Committee that the sensions of the convention I U | oury, James E. Fairweather of Hampton | I was held on those days A good deal of rain | has been transferred to that position, | | she did her work. In 1854 she beca ne a christian. |
| In the financial report that will be submit- to you, you will perceive that the ex- but we find deep regret that in some school there was witnessed abuse of the Lesson Helpers | and been attended by 9 clergymen, represent- a | and John A. Campbell of Kingsclear, | fell and a very high wind prevailed nearly all | and Mr. Frank Hovey has been engaged | missionary here are crowded. With the excep- | christian conversation ; her codly life ; her her |
| nees during the year have been heavier than | | commissioners to purchase the proposed | the time, thus rendering good shooting al- | to teach the school vacated by Mr. Creed. | tion of his predecessors, Mr. Bayley and Mr, | evolent works, are testimohials to her devotion |
| they being used in the schoold in one or more they being used in the schoold in the schoold in one or more they being used in the schoold in the schoo | at Oa motion the report was adouted. | mportation of stock. They will leave in | most impossible Below are the scores of the | Sportsmen should not fail to look at the | Howard, no clergyman for many years has taken | and sincarity. At one time the only prayer meet- |
| oft in my hands at the close of the last con. reading from them the Questions Denly and | The convention adjourned by singing "God a | bout a week or ten days, probably the | most impositio. Dolow are the bootes of the | shot comen enourd not ran to took at or | such a hold on the affections of our people, or | ing in the place was held in her home. Of this |

reading from them the Questions. Deeply sug- | The convention adjourned by singing "Go

```
Sportsmen should not fail to took at the fine assortment of guns and rifles that are now being offered for sale by W. F.
Dibblee & Son. They also have in stock a full assortment of gun loading implemetns, brass and paper shells.
The rain interfered with the Wood-
The rain interfered with the Wood-1st of September. The stock to be pur- prize winner :-- rention did not cover all the expenses incurred.
                                                                  gestive is the incident recorded of one teacher's be with us till we meet again." and a praver chased will consist of 150 cattle, some 1st .- Nursery Match-400 and 500 yards.
   I think it scarcely necessary to inform you confidence that every pupil in her class had been and benediction by Roy. A. Lucas.
                                                                                                                                                                                            each of Holstein, Shorthorn, Jersey and Pie O Miller Pts. Pts Tl. Prize.
   that no unnecessary expense was incurred,
                                                                   rought to Jesus.
                                                                                                                                                                JAS WATTS.
   and, that in all the expenditures that were Ayrshire, and the same number of sheep. G S White, 24 17 41
                                                                   4 We regret that in so few districts teachers'
                                                                                                                                                                   Rec. Secretary,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              18 17 35
   made the strictest coonomy was exercised.
                                                                  meetings are held, and would urge that wherever
                                                                                                                                                                                              The stock will be bought chieffy in Oa- W H Carvell, 16 14 30
                                                                   racticable such meetings be established, as we $8,000 GIVEN AWAY.
                         CONCLUSION.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              18 12 30
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 2 00
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           Lieut Bell,
                                                                 are confident that such are a great help to suc-
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          stock Brass Band picnic, Thursday, and Bayley left.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      had been here. The flower is gone and yet the 14 15 29
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           Sergt Major Brewer,
                                                                  cessful work.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          there was but few attended. The Band Our esteemed friends Mr. and Mrs. John tragrance remains long after.
     The thore I see of Sunday School work :
                                                                                                                              Great Fourth Half-Yearly Midsummer
                                                                                                                                                                                                 There can not be much satisfaction de- Gr Peabody, 15 13 28
                                                                  5. The best effisiency of our 8. 8 work dethe more experience I gather from partici-
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        boys had made excellent arrangements for a good time.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Sister, though thy life has passed Literary Competition
                                                                                                                                                                                               ived from a discussion of the question Pte G E Perkins, 16 12 28
 notice a point the more thoroughly pating in that work, the more thoroughly is am convinced of the great opportunities it affords for accomplishing great results for good, and the vast is dividual responsibilities it imposes upon every follower of Christ, in
it imposes upon every follower of Christ, in mands the establishing to a much greater ex-
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          To the world above so bright, whether or not the United States has developed more corrupt contract jobbery than Capt Harding, 16 11 27
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Though thickly gathers lowering clouds.
Yet dying' thou hast left a light.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              17 5 22
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            C. S. Woodling, with his family, are Henry Barns, his sister Mrs. Spier with her 10 10 20
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         The faith that kept thy life below about leaving for Halifax, N. S., where young niece Hannah Spier, and his cousin and brother-in-law and wife Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Has taken hold our lives upon;
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               9 5 14
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               be intends taking up a permanent residence. On Monday evening he was se oo
4 oo
4 oo
be intends taking up a permanent residence. On Monday evening he was presented by Woodstock Lodge I. O.
600 July a permanent residence. On Monday evening he was presented by Woodstock Lodge I. O.
600 July a permanent residence. On Monday evening he was presented by Woodstock Lodge I. O.
600 July a permanent resi-brother-in-law and wife Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hemphill. After spending a delightful day at Mr. John Hemphill's, they proceeded to the Squire's (there has always been a Squire in the Hemphill family), where they remained over the following day visiting old acquaintances, and taking stock of things in general. They ex-
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          By thy example, we shall walk connection with so improving those opportanities that the greatest good may result.
In scanning the field I find almost unlimited whom for the work, we think it would be hard Magazine."
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           Nearer the path of God's dear son-the frauds upon the public treasuries in 2nd -Association Match-200, 500 and 600 yds
                                                                                                                                  First reward, $1,500 in gold: 2nd, $1 000
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Pte. Pte. Pte. Tl. Prize.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         The flower has drooped; yes, it is gone,
                                                                                                                                                                                             the United States, in recent years, have rd, $500; 4th, $750 Grand Piano; 5th, $500
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          It blooms upon a fairer shore.
                                                                                                                                Organ; 6th. $300 Team of Ponics and Carriage; no parallel in Canada or the world; but Capt Perkins, 28 29 22 79
   opportunities for faithful and zealous work. to fied.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         But round the spot, we feel it now.
                                                                                                                                 th, $150 Gent's Gold Watch: 8th, $100 Ladies' that greater wrongs have been done Lieut Carvell,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              (and Irvine Cup)
  The incoming year is before us. Shall we enter upon the discharge of its duties with the funds of the Prov. Association, we think,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          An influence growing more and more.
                                                                                                                               Gold Watch; 50 prizes $25 each, China Tea Set, there, don't diminish the extent or ren. Major Dibblee, Good-by" we shall not say, just now.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    30 with a flattering address. And on the pressed themselves much pleased with the ap 50 Hunting Case Silver Watches, 100 Boy's der more palatable the flavor of the Can- Corp B Crandlemire, 27 24 Silver Watches (all fully warranted), 25 prizes der more palatable the flavor of the Can- Res H Tracer 28 21
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         "Good night," thou loving, serving life;
A little while and we shall say:
   renewed energy and increased love for God 3 00 same evening he was presented with an pearance of our farms-the luxuriance of our remewed energy and increased love for God and thankfuluess for opportunities to express that love by devoted service to Him?
Or shall we allow these opportunities to pass
Or shall we allow these opportunities to pass
. We would draw the attention of the Con-
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           Pte H Tracey,
                                                                                                                              $10 each, 100 prizes $2 each, and 200 at $1
each, making a total of 569 spleadid rewards, ranging from $1 up to $1,500. All prizes deadian boodling.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  3 00 same evening he was presented with an point or ops, our facty graded stock, and indeed every-

3 00 address, and entertained at a supper at 2 50 Budden's restaurant, by Hose Co. No. 1, no wonder that the Knowlesville farmers took "Good morning" mother, sister, wife

                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           Capt Kirkpatrick.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        26 21
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         After a your's suffering from internal cancer.
                                                                                                                                                                                                A few days ago, George Jones, pro- Lieut Bell, Mcs. Shaw passed over, leaving a hurband, five daughters, three sons, two sisters, and one brother, prietor of the New York Times, died. Sergt Appleby, Pte G E Perkins,
  away unimproved, or not so fully as we livered free in U. S and Canada.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        of which he was one of the most active such a high standing at the Ab. Agr. Soc's vention to the new enterprise the starting of the 24 17 17
                                                                                                                                                                                             He was distinctively in all creditable re- Gr Peabody, might, and have the conviction that while S S. Helper
                                                                                                                                  The words must be constructed only from le shows. At the same time they remarked that Geo. E. M.Clintocz, of Centreville, together with 2 00 and highly esteemed members.
the "Fields are ready for the harvest," we have not done all we could to assist in the work of the ingathering of that harvest?—
That God may so direct us in all our work 19 25 12
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            W. R. Snow has been placing new they did not know, but they should like to mea-words with these same farmers. Well The services were attended by Rev. Mr. Charlton, ters contained in the words "Home Magazine.
                                                                                                                                                                                              spects one of the foremost publishers of Pte R Jones, 24 15 15
                                                                                                                                  Foreign or obsolete words not allowed ; neither and improved machinery in his laundry sure swords with these same farmers. Well the day. In connection with the overthrow of Tweed and the corrupt ring which at the time corruption controlled W H Carvell, 19 21 14
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        f Knoxford. There was a's) present Revs F. H will singular and plurals of same word be allow-the 7th of Oct. and have a "bout?" We are of Houlton. The fineral was the largest ever J. E. G.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      Bubar, C. H. Orser, of Blains, and J. E Gosline.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         53
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        16 17
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 20
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  1 50 establishment.
 that all we do may be done with an eye single to his bonor and glory, is my earnest helper.
                                                                                                                                                                                            which at the time corruptly controlled Bte Q Miller.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       51
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        19 16
                                                                                                                                  The words must be numbered 1, 2, 3, and so willing to take them up at "quarterstaff," "singlestick," "booljack" or any other bucolic 10 51
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        29 12
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        Jacksonville Items.
                                                                                                                                on, to facilitate the awarding of prizes.
                                                                                                                                                                                            New York, and which overthrow was the Lieut Col Baird
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      Aug. 26.
A number of our young people had a pleasant drive and picnic, down at Hay's Falls, on Wedneeday last.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        21 22
18 21
                                                                                                                                 The list containing the largest number of word pastime. Come on and perhaps by some unpre
                                                                   10. Is reference to statistics we would urge
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             New Advertisements.
                                                                                                                                                                                               esult of the honest efforts and fearless Capt Baymond, ill get first prize, the next second and so on.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         cedented, multir cestite concatenation offortuitous that the Superintendents to whom blanks are Sergt Jackson,
Pte J Crandlemire,
            Respectfully submitted.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        15 14 15
                                                                                                                                  Each list must be accompanied by $1 for six exposures made by the Times, it is told ircumstantial eventualities, you may carry of sent should be prompt in alling as correctly as 20 14 9
                     J. T. FLETCHER, Secretary.
                                                                                                                                 nonth's subscription to THE CANADIAN AGRI- that Mr. Jones was offered $5,000,000 possible, and returning them, as this has so much to do with our having an intelligent knowledge of the condition of S. S. work in our nesday last.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        a twenty five cents prize. Now don't any we GULTURIST, one of the best illustrated Home Mag- if he would withold the publication of Pte S Crandlemire,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             18
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      26
      Bristol, N. B, Aug. 18th, 1891.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            The financial meeting of the Fredericton Meth- have been swallowing a Webster, and are now
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          BOY WANTED
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      3rd .- Extra Series-400 yards.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           dist District was held here on Tuesday and bringing it up and chewing the cud.
                                                                                                                                                                                             certain papers which would incriminate
      A motion to refer this report to a commit
                                                                                                                                 This is NO LOTTERY __merit only will count.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    A SMART intelligent Boy, desirous of learning
the Printing trade, may faid a good opportunity at the SENTINEL Office, if Amediate appli-Wednesday of last week. A large number of Points.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Our readers all know Longfellow's beautiful
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               $2 50 ministers were present from the various sections lines
                                                                                                                                 The reputation for fairness gained by THE AGRI- the ring, which he refused. This was a see passed, and the President named as said
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            Capt Kirkpatrick,
                                                                  11. We think it regrettable that our Secretary CULTURIST in the past is ample guarantee that this Competition will be conducted in like man-practical triumph of personal independ- | Corp B Crandlemire, committee, Rev. D. Fieke, J. T. G. Carr and after use of economy in performing his duties,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               "Lives of great men all ramind us cation is made.
                                                                  hould be out of pocket, as his office makes very 22
                                                                                                                                                                                              ence not to be forgotten.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           Sergt P Appleby,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 We can make our lives sublime."

      4th—Extra Series—500 yards.
      A missionary meeting was held in the Metho-Boints.
      We can make out interaction.

      4th—Extra Series—500 yards.
      Points.
      Prize.

      Points.
      Prize.

      Sergt P Appleby,
      23
      $6 00

      19
      200
      St. John, Cor. Sec. for the province.
      Miss

      Path Raymond,
      19
      100 Palmer gave a very interesting address on foreign missionary work, and was followed by Rev.
      Miss

      No. 5th—Company Match.
      No. 5th—Company Pitcher with Miss Palmer appea'ed for organisation, meeting, Miss Palmer appea'ed for organisation, and was successful in organizing a Woman's No 'sour or two's profitable recreaign missionary work. and was followed by Rev.

                                                                                                                              ner. Send 3c. stamp for full particulars, to
THE CANADIAN AGBICULTURIST, Peterborough,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            A missionary meeting was held in the Metho
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        Woodstock, Aug. 20, 1891.
                                                                large draughts upon his time and efforts.
12. We are glad at the explanation given by our Secretary as to the attitude of our conven-D. V. Boyer.
     The Tressurer then submitted his report; --
                                                                                                                                Canada 30-13 ing.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                    That's So.
   Carleton County Sunday School Convention in
                                                                                                                                                                                                The people-honest patriotic people-will, Sergt P Appleby, Pte H Tracey, tion towards Denominational S. Schools, so as to account with J. T. Flatcher, Treasurer :-- Parliamentary.
                                                                  help to remove the misunderstanding that has Capt Raymond.
                                                                  existed in many minds relative to this matter.
                                                                                                                                  In the House of Commons, on the 19th, in view of the rascalities which have been
                                                                   We believe it to be the sim of the Prov. Asso-the Speaker appounded that he had issued a uncarthed and are being investigated a 2 By balance on hand,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          No 9 Company won the Company Fitcher with meeting, Miss Palmer appeared for organization, there," but pretty considerably "out." But NACES in the Broadway School building. The offer mile is and was successful in organizing a Woman's there, " but pretty considerably "out." But contractor to utilize, so far as possible, the old mire, the highest score in the winning team. Missionary Society here of which Mrs. Combea sistion in cases where Denominational Schools do contribution from Florence-warrant for a new election for Quebeo West, Ottawa, most beartily respond in accord with 1 08 are impracticable to establish Union Schools.
                     ville Baptist S. S., but that where Denominational Schools exist and Thomas McGreevy, the member for that con-this utterance of the Toronto Globe: - mire, the highest score in the winning team. Missionary Society here of which wirs. Connora ought to be reckoned among the "Illusions of iron in the old turnaces. No 8 Company, 2nd, with 156 points. W. F. is President; Mrs. James Simonson, Treasurer; History." However that may be, we have a Aug. 17 do sales of 6 Record Books durare doing effective work, to endeavor is such stituency, having resigned.
                                                                                                                                                                                                 "In Heaven's name let us be honest now.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     A. B. CONNELL.
                                                                                                                                 Mr. Amyot pointed out that there was a Let us unite to save the country no matter Battery, 3rd, with 146 points.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           Rev. B. H Thomas went to Monoton on Wed- young farmer here, past his majority, one of Mrs. H. Herper, Cor. Sec.
                                                                 cases to strengthen in every way such Denomina-
                  ing year,
contributions from the fol-tional Bohcols. All of which is respectfully Woodstock, Aug. 26, 1891 -11.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         needay to attend the convention held there.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        our most intelligent young men, quite a reader,
                                                                                                                                protest against McGreevy's election.
                                                                                                                                                                                             what party may go to pieces, or what polilowing Sunday Schools to ubmitted.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       and the very reverse of a loafing disciple of Cin-
                                                                                                                                  Sir John Thompson said that though the tician may go down in the ruin, and let us
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              "The Life of Sir John Macdonald."
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     FOR SALE!
                    date as follows:-
                                                                                              D. FISKE,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            Benton Items.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        cinatus, who yet, like the emperor aforesaid peaker might issue his warrant it did not treat as a common enemy that man or jour-
 Upper Knoxford,
Tracy's Mills,
McKenzie Corner,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              The Earle Publishing House of St John, I
                               Bapt
FCB
                                              $1 00
                                                                                              J. T. G. CARR, Com.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       does not scors, as sailors say, to "take his trick
                                                                                                                                 ollow that a new election would be held at nal, who, in this hour of national distress.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                Aug. 26. 1891.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       SHE undersigned offers for sale her FARM in B, inform us that they are now ready to ap.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           Is your Benton correspondent dead, or only at the wheel." The other day, being prevented
                                                2 00
                                                                                              D. V. BOYER, )
                                                                                                                              once.

Hon. Mr. Laurier asked why the writ was not issued for a new election in Kingston.

Mad to curb the riging revolt against jobbery
                                Pres
Union
                                                1 00
                                                                    On motion of J. T. Fletcher, seconded by Egypt,
Weston,
                                                                 Colin King, the Executize Committee was diem," he resolved to devote his manly energies the The whole will be sold at a great bargain if Rumors were in the sir of an expedition being authorized to purchase the copies of "Teaching and Teachers" in hands of Bros. Farsons
                                                                                                                                  The speaker replied that he had never been and uncleanness in the administration of the steel plate engravings of the late Premier, is the fitted out from here, to make a raid on the to some useful and profitable occupation. His immediate application is male Bept
Meth
                                                1 00
   Florenceville
                                                                                                                               omoisly notified of Sir John Macdonald's affairs of the country."
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          only one written with Sir John's concurrence United States and these rumors proved true. much esteemed sister, who is a well known home
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      MRS. ZEBULON INGRAHAM.
   Jackson ville,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         and approval. Before his death the late Premier The objective pciat was Houlton, and the invad.
revised the Manuscript in part. The book was ers wore the uniform of the Beaton B: E. Club. for members of the family of what is grateful to Newbridge, Aug. 26, 1891 .- 4i-35.
                                                                and Fletober.
  Bloomfield,
Gordoneville
                                                                    On motion of J. T. Fletcher, seconded by 1 00
                                                                                                                                                                                                                  The Census,
                                 Union
                                                                                                                                 Hon Mr. Lurier said surely the motion to The population of Provinces was announced in the Commons, on Wednesday. Acbrding to this, New Brunswick will loose is now writing the final chapters. The book was and candid good fellowship of the Yankees. A Meth
                                               1 00
                                                                  . Watte, Field Scoretary, Rev. A. Lucas.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           SHARP'S PLUMS
                                                                J. Watte, Field Scoretary, Rev. A. Lucas, pay the late premier's funeral expences was was made an honorary member of the Con-sufficient notice of his death.
  McKenzie Corner.
                                 Union
   Waterville,
                                   do
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         RE READY FOR MARKET .--
                                                                                                                                  Hon. Mr Mills argued that the report of the ed in the Commons, on Wednesday. Ac-
   Lindsay,
Woodstock
                                 Meth
                                               2 10
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      All orders left at Mrs Loane's Book Store;
                                                                                                                              commistee investigating McGreevy's case cording to this, New Brunswick will loose is now writing the final chapters.
shold not be anticipated by the acceptance one, perhaps two representatives. The total The fame of Sir John is so great in Canada return match is hoped for.
                                                                   Benediction pronounced by Rov. D. D.
                                                                  AFTERNOON SESSION.

At 1 30 a half-hoar's devotional service, led y Ber. A. Lucas, was entered upon, at the molasion of which the President took the air and opened the session.

Minutes of presides to preside the unfortunate that the speaker had we also presed to resignation.

Minutes of presides to preside the was unfortunate that the speaker had

we also presed to resign at an or the speaker had

we also presed to resign at an or the speaker had

we also presed to resign at an or the speaker had

we also presed to resign at an or the speaker had

we also presed to resign at an or the speaker had

we also presed to resign at the speaker had

we also presed to resign at the speaker had

we also presed to resign at the speaker had

we also presed to resign at the speaker had

we also presed to resign at the speaker had

we also presed to resign at the speaker had

we also presed to resign at the speaker had

we also presed to resign at the speaker had

we also presed to resign at the speaker had

we also presed to resign at the speaker had

we also presed to resign at the speaker had

we also presed to resign at the speaker had

we also presed to resign at the speaker had

we also presed to resign at the speaker had

we also presed to resign at the speaker had

we also presed to resign at the speaker had

we also presed to resign at the speaker had

we also presed to resign at the speaker had

we also presed to resign at the speaker had issued his warrant authorizing a writ for a filled quills. There now, my spruce, dapper set

we also presed to resident to the spinning wheel, and filled quills. There now, my spruce, dapper set

we also presed to resident to the spinning wheel, and filled quills. There now, my spruce, dapper set

we also presed to resident to the spinning wheel, and filled quills. There now, my spruce, dapper set

we also presed to resident to the spinning wheel, and filled quills. There now, my spruce, dapper set

we also presed to resident to the spinning wheel to resident to the spinni Ref Ba
                                               1 00
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     with the ageat, Jas. Mercer, or at the Orcha rd.
                                                                 Page and adjourned till 1,80.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Upper Woodstock, will receive prompt attention
Woodstock, Aug. 27, 1891.-11
                                 Pres
  Kirkland,
                                 Union
                                                1 00
  Lower Woodstock.
 Rosedale,
Woodstock Albert St., 83000 teachany fairly intelligent person of either sex, who can read and write, and who, after instruction, will work industrial 1 50
                                Bapt
                                                                by Rev. A. Lucas, was entered upon, at the ter of resignation.
  Bristol.
```

have been placed upon the market. For the most part there will be what are vulgarly called "maker," intended only as catch-pennies and neceessrily defective, because their authors have not had access to the original sources of infor-metion. We think the public have been suffici-ently warned against the trashy and wholly un-reliable character of those so called biographies. Hugh John Macdonald, who has carefully read part of the Manuactivity of Cel. Macpherson's part of the Manuactivity of Cel. Macpherson's carefully example. This going to the wordering if some one else may not be influenced upon the supcess of your work."" who how to earn Three Thousand Dollars chair and opened the session. Bumfrau, Argyle, new election, and it should, be recalled. proved. East Florenceville, The Nominating Committee submitted they Unior Hon. Mr. Kirkpatrick agreed with Mr Dav-New Brunswick increased 61 persons or Windsor. following report, which was, on motion, re-ceived, the names of the parties recommended speaker ought to withdraw his announce. P. E. Islan Aberdeen Parish Convention. FCB Woodstock, P. E. Island increased 197 persons, 0.18 for the several offices, voted on separately and ment before it was entered upon the min- per cent. each one cleoted; the recommendation con- utes. Ontario increased 186,067, or 9.65 per cerning the appointment of Vice Presidents On motion of Mr. Davies McGreevy's letter 0608 DR. 1890 was also adopted :--Quebee increased 129,559, or 9.53 per cent. of resignation was referred to the committee Sept. 2 To cash pd telegrams to conven-Canvassers desiring territory should write the down if the water falls much more. " vide for all our wants-to cheer us in all our prising man. Possession given when desired. on privileges and elections to inquire whe-Manitoba increased 92,182, or 1.48 pr. ct, Bristol, Aug. 18th, 1881. tions at Kent & Kings-MR PRESIDENT,-Your Nominating Com. they his election was lawfully con tested, and Earle Publishing House, St. John, N. B., for Grops in this region have not been better in difficulties-to soothe us in all our sorrows-British Columbia gained 43,408, or 87 per GEO. W. ROSS. mittee report they have attended to the duties to report as to whether a warrant for a new and to pour the unclouded sunshine of their | Vanceboro, Me., Aug. 18, 1891. -tf-31. cent. do Prov. Association as per The Territories gained 37,209, or 140 pr. ct. their liberal terms. twenty years. 35 00 assigned them, and respectfully submit the fol- election should light;" voucher 1,