The exhibition to be held here on the 6th, 7th and 8th of October, promises to be a great success. The Government have contributed the sum of $1,000, and the citizens have responded liberally. The amount now raised is in the vicinity of $2,000, to which will be added the $250 that, it is expected, the city council will vote at their meeting next Tuesday. One of the attractions of the exhibition will be the celebrated stallion "Linus," owned by C. H. Eaton of Calais, Me., whose mane and tail are of such enormous proportions. The sale of the Government stock will attract hundreds from the rural districts and this combined with horse racing and other interesting features of the
