Miscellaneous.

HAD NO DITTO.—A gentleman, who had an Irish servant, having stopped at an inn for several days, desired, previous to his departure, to have his bill, which being brought he found a large quantity of port placed to his servant's account, and questioned him about having had so many bottles of wine.

"Plase your honor," cried Pat, "to read how many they charge me."

The gentleman began, "One bottle port, one ditto, one ditto, one ditto."

"Stop, stop, master!" exclaimed Pat, "they are cheating you. I know I had some bottles of their port, but by jabers I did not taste a drop of their ditto."

Mr. Secondtrial—But, my dear, when Angelina was alive—

Mrs. Secondtrial — Just stop right there. This thing of drawing comparisons between me and your first wife is something I will not permit. You had better make up your mind to that at once.

Mr. Secondtrial—I had no idea of drawing a comparison. I meant to draw a contrast.

"Such men as you,' said the good philanthropist, sadly, "are the raw material out of which the rumseller builds his fortune."

"The raw material?" answered the dilapidated old bummer, shaking his fist at the saloon down whose front steps he had just been kicked: "no shir! I'm—I'm th' finished output, shir!"

For Over Fifty Years.

MRS WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used by millions of mothers for their children while teething. If disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of Cutting Teeth send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children Teething. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures Diarrhœa, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Gums, reduces Inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Sold by all druggists throughout the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.

"The consumption of intoxicating liquors in this country staggers me," exclaimed a temperance orator from the platform.

"Me, too," gurgled a man at the rear of the hall, trying to hold himself up by the plastering.

Saloonkeeper—Have you had any experience in tending bar?

Applicant—Well, I have been an assistant in a Scott Act drug store for three years.

Saloonkeeper—I guess you'll do.

C. C. RICHARDS & Co.,

I had the muscles of my hand so contracted that I could not use it for two years, MINARD'S LINIMENT cured me, and I now have the use of my hand as well as ever.

Dalhousie. MRS RACHEL SAUNDERS.

C. C. RICHARDS & Co.,

I had a valuable colt so bad with mange that I feared I would lose him. MINARD'S LINIMENT cured him like magic.

Dalhousie. CHRISTOPHER SAUNDERS

Sunday School teacher—The prodigal son suffered dreadfully for his wickedness in running away from home, but, when he returned, his father forgave him and killed the fatted calf.

The New Pupil—But what did they kill the fatted calf for? Hadn't he stayed at home right along?

What Am I to Do?

The symptoms of Biliousness are unhappily but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhœa or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure try Green's August Flower, it costs but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.

"Well, my little man," said his grandfather, "why didn't you go out with the sailing party, yesterday?"

"Because," answered the little fellow, "my mamma went along, and I heard papa say to her that there was a spankin' breeze in the bay."

To Consumptives.

The undersigned having been restored to health by simple means, after suffering for several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease CONSUMPTION, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure. To those who desire it, he will cheerfully send (free of charge) a copy of the prescription used, which they will find a sure cure for CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, CATARRH, BRONCHITIS and all throat and lung Maladies. He hopes all sufferers will try his Remedy, as it is invaluable. Those desiring the prescription, which will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing, will please address. Rev. Edward A. Wilson, Williamsburg, Kings County, New York.—1y-46

Mrs. Jaysmith (to grocer)—Ten lbs. of sugar.

Grocer (as customer walks out)—I beg your pardon, but you didn't pay for that sugar.

Mrs. Jaysmith—Of course not. Sugar's free now. I read the papers, I do, and you can't fool me.

"Gift Enterprises"

seem to be all the rage in the Soap Business, owing to the idea of some manufacturers of getting something out of nothing, if possible. Grocers get 6 boxes for 5 of some kinds, and are offered all sorts of "Nick Nacks" with others, as an inducement to recommend such soaps to their trade.

It is a well known fact, however, that a genuine article in this day of competition pays no fancy profits. WELCOME SOAP represents this class of goods, and demonstrates the value of quality in manufacture, which is the only guarantee of a pure and legitimate washing quality.

Little Bennie — Boo-hoo! The bee stung me.

His Big Brother—Never mind, I killed the bee.

Little Bennie—Did you? Boo-hoo! Well, kill him deader.

Mothers and Nurses.

All who have the care of children should know that Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry may be confidently depended on to cure all summer complaints, diarrhœa, dysentery, cramps, colic, cholera infantum, cholera morbus, etc., in children or adults.

Madge—Vera and Bob had quite a falling out last evening.

Mabel—Indeed! How did it happen?

Madge—They were sitting in the hammock and the rope broke.

Hugh Hay's is headquarters for Opaque Blinds.

Soft Head—Do you think your sister would marry me?

Boy—I guess so. She told mother she would rather marry anything than be an old maid.

Minard's Liniment cures Diphtheria.

Mother—I'm afraid you'll catch cold if you sit in that draught.

Little Boy—But, mamma, I'll catch hot if I don't.

CANOEING.—She (admiringly)—What a beautiful shore!

He (boldly)—Yes it reminds me of you.

She (coyly)—The wind is pretty high; don't you think you had better hug the shore?

Katie (aged five years, who doesn't like to say "please")—Papa, pass the bread.

Papa—If—what, my dear?

Katie—If you can reach it.

Forewarned is Forearmed.

Many of the worst attacks of cholera morbus, cramps, dysentery, colic, etc., come suddenly in the night and speedy and prompt means must be used against them. Dr Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the remedy. Keep it at hand for emergencies It never fails to cure or relieve.

Little drops of printer's ink,
A little type displayed,
Make our merchants princes
With all their big parade.

Little bits of stinginess—
Discarding printer's ink—
"Busts" the man of business
And sees his credit sink.

Stick to the Right.

Right actions spring from right principles In cases of diarrhœa, dysentery, cramps, colic, summer complaint, cholera morbus, etc, the right remedy is Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, —an unfailing cure—made on the principle that nature's remedies are best. Never travel without it.

Young Woman—I want "Annie, or the Banks of Dee."

Clerk—Sorry we're out of it, Miss, but we can give you that beautiful new song. "Benny Spanks Baby McKee."

One case Gents' blk. Straw Hats, something new, just opened at B. B. Manzer's.

The hands that rock the cradle
Move the world to do what's done,
But the hands that wield the shingle
Are the hands that move the son.

Minard's Liniment is the Best.

An Irishman, in speaking of a spell of sickness he had, said: "I laid spachless six weeks in the month of August, and all my cry was, 'Wather, wather.'"

"What makes a woman marry?" asks an article in the North American Review. And we answer, man.
