WASHINGTON LETTER. (From our Regular Correspondent,) WASHINGTON, December 4, 1891 Americans have queer ways, in many respects, and it is not to be wondered at that foreigners, who judge largely from outward appearances, should fail to comprehend our real character. For instance, the United States Supreme Court this week heard the sider that August Flower has entirely cured me of Dyspepsia in its worst form. JAMES E. DEDERICK, arguments in the three cases brought against the constitutionality of the McKinley tariff law, cases in which it is possible for a decision of the court to turn the commercial and writes: I have used your August Flower for Dyspepsia and find it an NOTIOE!

Sir Richard Holds His Seat.

A telegram, from Ingersol Ont, of the 7th, says:

The petition against the return of Sir Richard Cartwright as member of parliament for South Oxford, was dismissed to day, counsel for the petitioner announcing that it had been decided not to offer any ev dence in support of the charges was that Sir Richard Cartwright, Mr. Laurier and Erastus Wiman had conspired together to win the election. In dismissing the case the jadges declared that there was no evidence to show corrupt practices had been used to influence the election of Sir Richard.

CONCORD, N H, Dec. 7.—The hearing in the Sawtelle petition was resumed this afternoon. Isaac B. Sawtelle took the stand and testified at great length to the circumstances of the meeting of his brother, Hiram, at Rochester, on February 5th, 1890, and the carriage ride to the woods in Maine. He worship and sat down in read a letter the ad arrived during my a sence, where upon I was startled by a sudden and loud rap at our door and, upon opening it, to my surprise a large number of my church congregation and friends filed in, passed me two and two, until the parsonage was crowded by as happy a company as ever I saw, each vieing with his neighbor in endeavors to make us feel that they had come to do us good. While at first it was a great surprise, it gradually wore off and few were more happy than this soribe and his family. It was not only a real surprise and welcome visit, but also a creditable presentation of useful articles and money. We said: "Come again Don't mind our not expecting you. HON. JAS. McSHANE, M. P. P. MAYOR OF MONTREAL

Recognizes Honesty and Merit! Canadians must commend him

The Hon. Jas. McShane, Mayor of Montreal, and another man, and so great is the public interest that the Judge has found it necessary to station officers at the court room door to keep out the crowds.

It would be presumption on the part of your correspondent to say how the Supreme Court will decide the tariff cases, but it is apparent from the questions asked by the Justices of the lawyers, while the argument was being made, that the validity of the law will be sustained.

is a man who possesses many strong characteristics which help to make the successful ruler, politician and business man. Some of these characteristics are strongly developed in Mayor McShane's every-day life, and are worthy of our admiration. When the worthy mayor knows he is following the great path of duty, honesty and truth, no human power can cause him to swerve from it. He is always opposed to charlatanry and deception, but ever ready and willing to hold tenaciously to that which bears the royal stamp of worth and merit.
