T is often said that the New Brunswick is a splendid apple, none better, but it lasts such a a short time. Why can't we grow a good keeper like the American Baldwin. We have that apple is the Wealthy which is just as bardy and productive as the New Brunswick, the apple being as good if not better than the Baldwin. Wealthy apples are for sale and on exhibition at G. W. Sipp's, where those who want a good apple or are interested in fruit growing are cordialy invited to call and see the best apple ever introduced to this part of the country.

Dr. Hoskins of Vermont, authority on fruit growing says, that fruit growing is profitable six hundred miles further north than was suppposed to be possible before the Wealthy was originated. Yours Truly,

How THE OFFICE BOY SAVED THE Editor.—The paper had said something he didn't like and he was going to see the editor about it and thump the stuff-ing out of him, so he said. At the foot of the stairs leading to the den he found a small boy, who blocked his way. 'Is the editor in?' he inquired roughly. 'Yes, sir,' replied the boy, politely.
'Can I see him?'

What Am I to Do? The symptoms of Biliousness are unhappily but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, also, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events.
