The Coming Comet.

The Coming Comet,

One Sunday, a young countrywoman was standing at her door, when a masher, thinking it a good joke, asked for a drink of milk. The young girl brought a glass of new milk. After drinking it, he said with a lisp, "Your milk is very warm, my dear. Do you keep the cows at the fire?" With a sly look and a good-patured smile at the swell, she replied "Yis: an we keep the calves at the properties, for imparting vigor and tone to the It is fancied by a grateful patron that the and Shirtings
